Introduction into the true history of the Earth and the human race. Vol. I. Book one. – 2017 – 96 p.

This book takes you from the vicious circle of illusion and reincarnation. It provides you with the multileveled, all-embracing space, which you can feel and sense. Feeling the connection with the spaces within your bodies: with the people of the Earth, The Earth itself, and the whole ecosystem, the Solar system, the other star and Solar systems, with the people inhabiting these systems, feeling the entire beautiful and light Galaxy, you are starting to live here and now. You do not know what “death” is, living with your family in joy, happiness, love and endless cocreation with our Father loving and beloved.

Preface

This book was dictated by the God-humans, namely by Eve, the first woman, who descended to our planet Earth. This book contains the moments and stages of the lives of people and God-humans, who are the same as we are; all the stages of flooding the Earth, the death of the human race and all the stages of the origin of life. It also deals with the origin of the climate on the Earth, animals, insects and microorganisms, which were created to help us by our CREATOR, our loving Father. This book contains the lost knowledge, which you lack so much. Without this knowledge you are imprisoned within the circle of illusion and reincarnations, skillfully created for you. But the God-humans know for sure that, when you want to learn, to learn what you have lost, you will never die again and break through the circle of illusion and reincarnations, you will find your own space within the space of your family, through which you will be able to feel your own land (about one hectare), all the mankind, the whole Earth, the Solar system, your Galaxy and the Galaxies of the other God-humans, the Universe and the Universes. And then you will be able to cocreate with our loving Father your own Galaxy, your own star system and your own unique and beloved planet. And you will name this planet yourself!

Introduction

The Earth! This is a very beautiful planet, covered with thick forests, deep rivers, quiet seas and delicate oceans

- You know your Earth, you not just know it, you can feel it, you can feel every blade of grass, every little tree in your garden, you know that in your heart there is love, joy and happiness. This light in your soul illuminates every corner of your Earth.

- The Earth is yours!

- Now you have your own Earth, which feels and knows you, which cooperates with you. All beasts, insects and microorganisms, living on your Earth, know you; they expect you to cooperate and cocreate.

- You know that in your space there is a beloved woman, girl. This feeling burns all your body with pleasant warmth. There are two of you on your Earth but soon, very soon, there will be three of you: you will have a son. You will create him in the impulse of love! When he is grown up he will also have his own Earth, of which he will be the owner, and he will bring a young girl for creating a family to his Earth.

- You know that you are happy, there is love in your heart and joy in your soul, which cannot be expressed in words. You can just feel it.

Every person now living, can live in such a way if he wants. If he wants to learn the truth, the truth about himself: what he is, what he is capable of, what power, opportunities and vast resources he has in disposal.

We started our story (‘We’ because I am writing not alone) with the image which is available for every person now living on our wonderful planet named Earth!

Do you want to know the truth! The truth about yourselves and about your planet. The truth, which will inspire you to create something miraculous. Cocreation with the Gods similar to you. The whole Universe is open for you.

It is for you, inhabitants of your planet named Earth. The Earth created by the CREATOR! Our beloved Father.

Look inside yourself. Is it possible, that you cannot find the smallest droplet of freedom? Freedom of imagination and thought. Freedom of love. Freedom of expression. You must be like that inside and outside. Think it over. Take a break from your everyday routine, go to the open air, touch your land and feel freedom, your freedom!!!

Find peace and quiet in your all-embracing soul. The soul, which was created by the CREATOR with inspiration. Feel that you are the Gods for the first time for millions of years. You are the Gods now.

-Then why you, the Gods, must live cooped if the Creator gave you the Earth? The Earth, which gives you drink and food and its space. Space of love.

-Then why you, the Gods, must suffer from diseases, grow old and die, if the CREATOR gives you eternal life? When you can be healthy and young and revive your body according to your wishes.

-Then why you, the Gods, must live in problems and troubles produced by illusion? The illusion, which was devised and brought into your life. Life, which loses its sense. The sense, which was granted by the CREATOR. The sense, which cannot be reduces just to silly and feckless deeds and thoughts. Which is the sense of profound self-expression. Self-expression illuminated with the light. The light, which spreads all over the Galaxy. The light, which warms every corner of the Universe, light which is inside you! Feel it, feel the freedom of choice! The choice which was granted to you at your birth.

The origin of the human race

Adam.

Here, Adam is making his first steps. Breathes for the first time the bracing and vivifying air. His eyes scrutinize the picturesque compositions of the surrounding. His heart beats in unison with the Earth. All the living creatures seem to be conscious and eternal.

– It is really so.

Peace, love and joy live in his mind. Love, which tries to cover all the space surrounding Adam. He feels like God. The God, who makes his first steps on his own land granted to him by the CREATOR. He is filled with light, pleasant, cheerful and great feelings. And he knows that he is eternal as the surrounding space. He feels every cell in his body. He feels his organism vivid, ready for cooperation and expecting his love and activity. His organism is ready to accept every particle of the Universe energies and bring them to all the cells of the body. His body is conscious, vivid and everlasting. It can be always young and never die, reviving its initial functions, which are implemented in every cell of the organism. His organism can read the initial information and is always connected with it. This first information is put by the CREATOR: our Father loving and beloved. Adam has the eternal now, he can live never dying or growing old. These feelings, living in his consciousness and body, make him want to create in love, rejoice, jump, laugh and wish the cocreation with the God.

Eve

The entire Universe came to a standstill of what it has seen!

The Universe saw Eve. Her body is transparent. It seems that you can see the Earth through her body, her beloved Earth.

– Here, she is descending from heaven.

Everyone wants to look at her without blinking. She radiates beauty, harmony and love. She is setting her foot on the Earth for the first time. She is full of joy and love. These are the steps as if there is no gravitation, she is soaring. Her body, her forms enchant. She seems to embody the whole Universe. She is looking at the beauty surrounding her with a smile. She rejoices at every blade of grass, flying small insect, jumping hare, wise lion. She is caressing and cherishing everything like a mother. Looking at her, everything stands still of her sight. Here she is Goddess, having descended from heaven, created by the God. She is overwhelmed with feelings. The feeling of life creation, which will pour onto the Earth, her beloved Earth. She knows why she is on the Earth. Soon she will find Adam to love him from the bottom of her heart, become pregnant. She will bear and give birth to her child. And the mankind will start from Adam and Eve.

– Here is the truth!

The truth of the origin of the human race. So many books were written about it, so much was said. So many people were led astray and enticed away with the lies. The lies, which were carried and inculcated into life, into your life. Life filled with emptiness. Emptiness of despair, which kills souls, your souls. They seem to be eternal, shining souls. But they can die, got stuck in the circle of hopelessness. The hopelessness, which was inculcated into your life. Life which must be flooded with light. The light of love. The light, which charms the whole Universe. Which is the source of life. May be in the other corner of the Galaxy something is started by this light. Feel this marvelous, divine light inside yourself. The light, which makes you fly. Fly and create life. The life, which never ends.

– The mankind originates from Adam and Eve, and whatever you are told, you, and only you must feel the truth with your hearts. The truth which was given to you at your birth.

Life filled the Earth. There were more and more people. Life of these people was filled with endless opportunities. They felt like Gods, in the full sense of this word. Our planet was covered with light, radiated by the God-humans. This light was radiated by their soul, overflowing their emotions and feelings. Their hearts were filled with life.

◦ One million years have passed since the origin of the Earth.

Adam and Eve were living. They were living in love and never died. They were overwhelmed with the feelings which had risen in them when they had seen each other for the first time. They were living without any needs. They had their own space, which belonged only to them. They felt like the owners of this space. This space loved them, it was always with them, wherever they were going. The God-CREATOR considered everything thoroughly. He created the Earth, but the Earth was their loving mother, She could give them a start for the creation of another planet. May be it will look like the Earth or it will contain new elements of creation. It does not matter much. What matters is that every human-being living on the Earth is able to create his own project of his planet, his space. You just think, imagine how free were the people, who were living in those times. And what is happening now. Just think. We give information so that every human now living on the Earth has his own choice. The choice, which can show you the way out of the circle, vicious circle of senseless reincarnations and give you freedom. The freedom of cocreation. Cocreation with the God. Cocreation with the CREATOR. Living children of Adam and Eve had a free choice, which they did. They created their own space on their own planet, and the names of these planets are familiar to you. They are situated in each sign of the Zodiac situated on our firmament.

Adam and Eve had the other children but these twelve ones. They were equal to the twelve Adam`s children. They knew the Universe as well as Adam and Eve did. They knew everything up to the smallest details. They were pure wholehearted. But it happened so, that one of the sons wished the power over the other people. Instead of explaining the world order to his children he started to divide the territory of the Earth into pieces, creating clans. In these clans he spread the distorted information instead of the initial one. And people felt the informational shift, they did not have a platform under their feet, there was no support. Because of the lack of information the people of these clans gradually entered the vicious circle. The circle of illusion cunningly created for them. For millions of years people divided into clans, could not collect information, they were confused, they did not know the truth. Such people were easy to rule, creating illusion of events, and little by little make them fear.

Twelve children, seeing what it can lead to, went to the Earth to stop the distortion of information. But people could not perceive it any more. Their bodies started to change because of the distortion of information. Then the first twelve children decided to demonstrate the world order by their own example. They arranged their own settlements on the Earth and there originated the other unusual life. They created their oases, their space on the Earth. This space loved them and provided them with all the resources in abundance. Adam and Eve stepped onto the Earth again to get everything together and restore the initial harmony on the Earth.

When Adam and Eve descended to the Earth, they took their space, space of love, loving space. They took one hectare of ground. They placed their Universe within this hectare, collected all the initial information, compressed this all within one hectare and started their work. It was the work for salvation of the initial creatures of our Father CREATOR.

Millenniums passed. Adam and Eve remained the same, young and cheerful, loving and attentive, both to their space and to their relations. Around Adam and Eve`s hectare there were settlements of the other hectares. These were the springs grown from Adam and Eve, these were the people loving their spaces, their Earth. So originated the mankind in the spirit of God. In the spirit of God people lived within their hectares. These hectares were the loving space for them, where they felt like gods, gods in the full sense of this word. Their family stretched from South America to Atlantis which existed as a continent in those times. But the son of Adam and Eve, who wished the power over the other people, gathered his “round table”. This “round table” included the other members of Adam and Eve`s family, there were seven of them. They did not belong to the first twelve Adam and Eve`s children. These seven men started working out the plan of conquering the whole Earth. As they knew all the information they managed to stop the springs of Adam and Eve and their twelve children. But Adam and Eve did not want to act by brute force and they had to “retreat”. Thus settling and spreading of hectares was stopped. These seven men started to strengthen their power. Generations were changing but these seven always remained conscious. They conquered the most part of the Earth, where people were pressed on illusion of events, and people did not belong to themselves any more. This disease spread all over the planet and when it reached the highest level, the frequency of the Earth decreased, the flood started. The Continents of the Earth went under water one by one. The Great Flood started. Adam and Eve were forced to move to their planets with their space, as well as their twelve children.

The springs of the settlement did not fade. Adam and Eve took them to their planets. The Earth or rather all the continents went under water. There were no people on the Earth any more. It was the first Great Flood. The flood which was provoked by the humans of the Earth, who rejected the truth, rejected the spirit of God.

The first Flood and the origin of the human race

◦ The live planet was flooded for the first time. It is alive and it feels everything. The first time for millions years it remained alone. Adam and Eve and their twelve children were in their spaces on their planets. They did their best to warm the Earth, their beloved planet, which gave them its space and gave them start. The start for cocreation, for creation of their own planets, their own space. The God-CREATOR thought everything through. He gave the Earth to the people and created the visible Universe for them. This Universe has enough space for all the people, who have ever lived or for the forthcoming generations of people who will live on the Earth. For the God everything exists now, he does not mind the past, present or future. For him everything is now and he created the space situated in present time. I can repeat it one more time, every person living now or in future can create his own planet with his own living space. The God created the man in his own image. Therefore the Universe is endless. The God is endless. The God has place for everyone. And you do not have to huddle together; the whole Universe is in your disposal. But you have to create in love and harmony, embracing the whole visible Universe. And when the Universe is inside you, you, human, you can create your visible planet with its own harmonic name.

This information was concealed from people by those seven. But you, people, are able to reveal your love and freedom to live in love, happiness and joy. With such thoughts Adam and Eve and their children with the spirit of God were warming the Earth. They were thinking through and working out the schemes of inhabiting the Earth. People were hanging between the material and invisible Universes. They lacked freedom and information to escape this situation. These souls had to be reborn on the planet Earth and get the full information for creating their own spaces on the Earth. Adam, Eve and God-humans were thinking everything through. They collected the souls of people under their wings to save.

Having warmed the Earth, put it in order they started to inhabit it. The first people after the Great Flood started to settle the Earth. The plan of settling the Earth created by Adam and Eve began to fulfill. The mother Earth was very glad that people started walking on her surface. Adam and Eve descended to the Earth again and their twelve children (apostles) with them took part in “education” of the people coming to the Earth. By their own example they showed again, as before the Flood:

- ∞ How to create your own space on the Earth.
- ∞ How to be free and harmonic.
- ∞ How not to die and be always conscious.
- ∞ How to love and live in a couple.
- ∞ How to be attentive to your space and the space between the man and the woman loving each other.

The plan of settling was fulfilled successfully: insects, microorganisms and animals were back again. It was easy to do because all the wildlife was saved on the other planets and it was easy to bring the animals back to the Earth. Just the thought and wish of the God-human was enough. The whole Universe was observing the process, everyone took part in it. Soon all the life was brought back to the Earth and people started to settle their Earth. They had Adam and Eve as an example. They took approximately one hectare of land and created their own space; the space which will always be with its owners. The springs quickly started to come out around the Earth. The mother Earth started to revive. People settled their hectares and their lands. They touched their native land with great love. The Mother Earth felt her children; she felt their desires and told them where to plant out seedlings or a bush of the currants and so on. People could feel their Earth: from the tiniest microorganisms to huge animals. People felt them and had a harmonic program, in which all the live things took part in creation. Adam and Eve were happy to observe how the mankind loved the Earth and the whole Universe. The Universe, in its turn, felt the people, every star in the sky felt and knew the human, all the space was ready for creation of the people`s space, their own live and beautiful planet.

– Just imagine how many live planets inhabited by God-people there are in the Universe – there are millions of them. When a human was ready for cocreation of his wonderful planet, he created with inspiration, with godlike freedom of thought and all the space felt, listened attentively to the human creator, and it was cocreation. It was the plan of the CREATOR, our beloved God-Father. To make everything, the whole Universe, listen to the human.

– And now, human, look around.

– What do you feel?

– Do you feel the Universe, your Earth, everything growing on the Earth, animals, birds, the whole ecosystem, space around you, which you have to create yourself?

– If no, tune into the space, the Universe, the Earth, the living space on the Earth. Tune into your Universe without any compulsion, with ease. Feel the changes in yourself. Imagine the picture:

Your hectare of the Earth is alive, feel it. Every blade of grass, every tiny insect is alive! Feel your hectare, your Earth alive and able to think and communicate with you, advise you, rejoice with you, accept your children and expect creation and cocreation from you. This is your space! Your Earth! It will go with you to any corner of the Universe; you will be always filled with its care about you. You will never be in need. Your Earth, your space can follow your thought. Your space can bring you to any corner of the Universe both gradually and in a moment, on your thought. Your Earth can take her initial image and accept you, her loving son.

All these opportunities of the son-cocreator were put inside you by your God, your beloved Father. But you have to create everything with unusual lightness, without thinking of the mechanisms, without analysis of the process.

And if you look through or read a great number of books now, you will see that they try to divide everything into constituents. The Cosmos cannot be torn apart; it can act only as a single whole. That is why creation is done with ease. This process is like a game, it is very creative and exciting!

So play, play this game, creative and interesting game! Cocreate your own space!

Thus live, live forever, without death! So was the desire of the CREATOR, our loving Father.

The whole Earth can be filled with love and joy. We can live with each other in harmony, and we do not have to divide something among ourselves. There are enough resources for everyone. You should not yield to illusions imposing on you. We can break the circle of illusion. We should not listen to fantastic tales and wait for somebody to “throw us a bone”. We are able to obtain ourselves in all the fullness of the God-CREATOR! And cocreate your own space, your Motherland, and be the owners of your lands. The owners who can participate in all the cosmic processes, embracing the whole Universe and working harmonically with all the God-humans on the improvement of the beauty of the Universe, Universes!

The Universe is open for a human. Human, God-human living on his Earth, in his space, can feel the Universe, Universes. Thus, every God-human can fulfill both his projects and the projects of his family. Family is a cell of everything existing in the Universe. There are also common projects are between all the participants. This is a harmonic unity without personal outcome. This is a union, caused by cocreation. Every family of the God-human is a part of the society. And there can be immense number of these parts. There is enough space for everyone!

And at the moment there are many projects, both family and common ones. You may join the common project.

– People of the Earth, join the common project!

The aim of the common project is to set free the people, living on the Earth. People must be free, light, cheerful, happy, loving and live in harmony with the surrounding.

- Set yourself free of the imprisonment.
- Just wish to break the circle of illusion
- ∞ Just your wish, the wish of the God-human; and everything around will change.
- ∞ You will get the platform under your feet.
- ∞ You will not hang in the air.
- ∞ You will get the support under your feet.
- ∞ You will never die.
- ∞ You will live forever. Again – I, again – I, again - I.

This is the life which is always with you and around you. And the Earth, our beloved planet, must become one of the most beautiful planets in the Universe, in the Galaxy.

Here is the project, the common project! You, and only you, human, can decide if you omit participation or take responsibility for yourself, your family as a cell of the society and for your beloved mother Earth. Mother, who has always accepted you, every your incarnation on its spaces. We, God-humans, took the responsibility not only for the whole Universe but for the people, living on the Earth, and for the Earth. It's time for you to take responsibility for yourself, for your family, for the Earth, for the Universe, for everything existing. It is time to wake up and take responsibility for your life. It is time to feel, to know everything surrounding you, to accept love. Love, which embraces everything around, and then all your life will be filled with harmony and filled with the sense of love, which does not divide people into good or bad. It just exists here and now and it is waiting, waiting for you to notice it and wish love, wish to love, love everything surrounding you, the Earth and the whole Universe. Then love will embrace you and your endless space and make you absolutely happy. Purely playing with you, burning you with its energy, its purity, its light, embrace with all its substance. This is a wonderful feeling, may be the most wonderful feeling, available to everybody living on this beautiful planet under the name Earth.

In such a way, through love, you must start your communication with each other; through love you can embrace your future space. You can feel the Universe through love. Love must settle in your hearts and spread through your body, penetrating into each your cell, which also strives for your love. Love yourself, your girl, your family, your house, your Earth.

– And now think: does your house end with the door , when you leave it?

– No.

∞ Look around and feel.

∞ Your house is the Earth, our blue planet, woman who nurture us.

∞ Your house is your Cosmos. It is alive.

∞ Your house is the Galaxy.

∞ Your house is the Universe. Everything is alive, everything breathes in the certain rhythm. You must feel this rhythm.

– Do you understand, where your house is?

How much you should spread, to embrace all the space. All this space is for us, for you, it expects beauty from us: beauty of thought, beauty of cocreation, beauty of your state as a God-human. We don't need space shuttles to see the Universe. Everything is inside us: we are humans, we are Gods. We can create and love our immense house. Take it as a rule: to love the whole space around you. Love the Earth, love your hectare of land, even if you do not have it. Draw it in your thoughts, and then put it on the paper, make your hectare harmonic and beautiful.

∞ Love the space outside the Earth, this space is also the indivisible part of you and the Earth.

∞ Love the stars in the sky, they are also the part of you.

∞ Look further, reach higher, and feel all the Divine Universe, it is also the part of you. Our God created it for us, all the people now living, and we can use all the space, this space is everything for us. This is cocreation with the God. Understand that the space is alive, the cosmos is alive creative field, it is alive, nothing is dead there. This field is waiting for your actions. Vacuum is also alive; it is counted in the other way. But if these calculations are correct vacuum will open into endless space. Space with the other coordinates, everything inside is also the Cosmos and so on...

- Look how much space there is for you, use it!
- Try to look further and feel more!

The Universe is diverse, there are many of them. There is not just one Universe. There are many of them with their own coordinates, which cross. You can use this space. You have to know and feel these myriads of spaces. When you learn to feel, sense, love these spaces they will open to you in all their beauty and infinity.

Learn to use your heart. It is alive, feel it, it is your assistant. Communication between the worlds and spaces is performed via your heart. You can feel love with your heart. Light penetrates into your heart and goes to your brain. And brain in its turn distributes this light around the body, using every cell in your organism. Your entire organism is the projection of the Universe. There is nothing odd in your organism. All the organs work in keeping with the Universe and perform their functions. There are organs which people do not have. It happened so because people do not have the initial information, to which all the cells of our organism are tuned. Everyone should revive this initial information. And tune into the initial information. Adam and Eve keep the initial information. They will give it to you with joy. They decided to give it. Adam and Eve collected all the information, which you lack. You can take it through the books, communication, feelings, and you will fill in all the gaps, all the holes in your selves and in your space. Adam and Eve have always given out the initial information. They treated all the people, ever lived or living on the Earth, with great care. They have never died and they will never die. They and their twelve children have always tried to reach all the people in all the times until they are heard. But people did not want to hear them, thus only the small part of people joined the information and accepted their own space which was always with them, their beloved space, which existed beyond the time.

Many years passed after the first Great Flood, about three hundred million years (the time flow is different in different Universes), but if you are beyond the time it is always with you. Adam and Eve compressed time to give people seeds, information which they lacked, information which makes people live forever. They become creators. People started settling the Earth after the first Great Flood. There were more and more people. Human life lasted for about 900 years and it was not the limit. Some people lived up to 1500 years and some of them did not die at all. They could dissolve their bodies at their wishes and moved to their spaces on their planets. The difference in the length of the human life appeared because people started to lose the tune into the initial information, which was put into every cell of our body by our CREATOR. We were moving away from the source of information, from the knowledge. It was like moving away from the well with water when you are in a desert. If you go too far you will die of thirst. Thus people moved away from the God, from the initial information, they started to die and entered the reincarnation circle. You have to break this circle. Every human can live never dying, within his own space on his own planet. Adam and Eve showed it. They demonstrated with their own example how to create your own living space in love. Taking a piece of land, about one hectare, on the Earth, a human learned to feel everything alive on the Earth. He tuned into the whole Universe via the Earth. His heart started to beat in unison with the entire Universe and he started to understand, feel his immortality. As if there appeared an everlasting live source of initial information. A human already knew what to do with the knowledge. He, according to his desire, or rather a husband and a wife together created their own space, their planet in the multileveled Universe. And they knew how to teleport their land to their planet. At their desire they could arrange a circle in the center of their land. They were looking at the center. In the center there was a circle which was the reflection of the Cosmos. They took a small piece of their land to their new house.

It can be done in the other way. A wife and a husband should not stay in a circle. They could dissolve their land with their thoughts and feelings. Then they assembled themselves and their land on their new planet. Dancing and playing, a man and a woman created their space on their own land. Love was wrapping them and their new planet, which became the part of everything existing. All the people in all the times, if they believed and knew, and were wholehearted and lit with the light, could create their space. But people have always being manipulated. They were deprived of their space. They were given illusions instead of it. It was the illusion, which closed the space and made them mortal. Human is guilty of accepting this illusion.

The seven returned to the Earth again and the race for the power started again. But their power is invisible. They have always been in the shadow and never gone alight. People considered they had their own thoughts and deeds but it was the influence of the seven. They cunningly entangled the Earth and people, bringing them illusion and death. And again as after the first Flood, people were bewildered by the system which deprived them of their creative ability and happy cheerful life, eternal life. Life of which the entire multileveled Universe rejoices and feels people and knows what the person, who knows love, is capable of.

- ∞ Love, which can take him with it, to happiness and joy, and eternal life, which takes your breath away with emotions.
- ∞ Emotions which overflow the human and all his body.
- ∞ Body which never grows older or die, reviving its functions and cells.
- ∞ Cells, which can read information.
- ∞ Information, which was given by the CREATOR.
- ∞ CREATOR, who loves us and expects cocreation of us.

Some time will pass and people will be captured by the chaos again. People will leave Adam and Eve and their twelve children again and will get to the crossroad again. The seven take benefit of it, so it usually happens. Just a few ones believed in the eternal life. Life, which was filled with sense and love. Love, which embraced its children – God-humans. And again people divided the Earth, their beloved mother. The new clans were created again, which used to show off in front of the other clans. These clans had their chiefs. All the people obeyed to them. They were the rulers of their clans, but they in their turn were ruled by the seven. The chiefs of the clans could not even guess, they thought that they did everything right and did their best in ruling, as they thought they ruled their People. In such a way, little by little, the seven implemented their thoughts and actions into the clans, which were spread all over the Earth.

One million years had passed since settlement of the Earth by people. There were some parts of the Earth which created their own spaces, which were living in love and immortality. Clans were told that these people are non-humans, that they must not be on the Earth, they must be driven away from the Earth. So it happened, the last God-people started to leave the Earth – their loving Mother, who felt them and their love to the Earth. But it happened so that people were bogged down in the illusion of events, they let the illusion into their hearts and did not want to see and hear Adam, Eve and their twelve children. So the whole Earth was divided into clans. Adam, Eve and their twelve children did not leave, they hid among people and were imperceptible. Much time will pass before the Earth will be deserted again.

Adam, Eve and their twelve children foresaw this way, but still they did not leave the Earth, their beloved planet, which gave itself to them and provided them with their space and greeted their children, and rejoiced it as Adam and Eve. The Earth also dreamt of the beauty of the Universes and her own beauty. She wanted to be the most beautiful in the entire eternal Universe, there is an example: here I am – the Earth – woman and mother, young and beautiful, follow my example. She introduced the fashion in the immense Universe. Adam and Eve knew and felt the Earth, they knew about her thoughts and wishes. And about the wishes of the CREATOR, our beloved Father, Father, who, in his turn, knows every human-being and never blames us for what we have done, but he is just waiting with love, creation and permanent motion, as a sparkle of Fire, creating and building with us, God-humans.

You just feel, how this motion appears in your heart, how light wants to break away from your heart. Divine light, it is Our Father, he does not let you devastate the Earth. He started everything, and your hearts whine and moan. Your hearts know the truth and know the God. Your hearts try to wake you in every way possible, raise you up, set you free, and provide you with everything, everything human can imagine. Our Father knows how strong human thought is. He knows that every person can free himself and create his own space with HIM, and (if the person does not want to live on the Earth, but anywhere in the Universe) his own planet, in our immense multileveled Universe. He knows that every person can be immortal, because he did not create death, it does not exist. Death was devised by the seven and they are proud of their invention. Death is illusion, it does not exist and it will never exist. You, people, can remove death from your way and become immortally happy FOREVER. But again, if you wish. I, your Father, want it so much and wait for you to be tired of this illusive game and leave it!

The Father also knows that it will happen to each of you. You, everyone in his time, take a decision – the decision of the God-human (The father created you like that and provided you with all his opportunities) and leave the game, illusive game, and strive for the other life.

∞ Life, which takes your breath away.

∞ Life, which makes you enjoy every moment of now.

∞ Life, which gives you freedom, lightness, love and COCREATION!

– You are not robots, you are people!

New energies descend to the Earth, unusual for all the people. These energies contain love, information, creation and care for us. This is the freedom of thoughts, actions, feelings, distant seeing in abundance and cocreation. Many Galaxies in the Universe took part in it. They are our loving friends, they are waiting for us, expect us to wake up and become creators and cocreators and join the united family, which beautify the whole Universe and all the Universes. These energies will cause certain changes in us. Changes in all the spheres: from your family and up to the state and the whole world. Many people will notice and feel these energies. Some of them will accept this energy or these energies with joy and love as care of you, of you, people, stuck in the illusion of the events and days and go round the circle of reincarnations. This energy will shake the human, shatter him if he is asleep. You had to take decisions otherwise you will fall ill. Your organs are sensitive, they are alive, but when people are asleep, people cannot work as hard as they can and let the energies of the Universe through themselves. Your organism is a powerful mechanism, which has no analogues. Your body is capable of much. You lost the ability to grow your limbs, but your body did not. When the information in the form of energy shatters you and you start to wake up, you will remember how to do it, and the cells of your body will be retuned.

Your bodies lack many organs, which support the whole organism, you need these organs, as you need air. Your organism without these organs is quickly worn up and grows old. As soon as you accept the information you will be able to grow them and become happier and more cheerful. You cannot even imagine what it is to be really happy, loved and loving.

- You must just want to learn the truth. Want to change yourself, change your family, change your planet, your loving mother.

- ∞ It wants life of you.

- ∞ It wants to play with you so much, love you and feel you – her children.

Organs are easy to grow. It is like a game. You can do it without any efforts. Stand in the circle, the wife and the husband, and your children. Go round, whirl, rejoice and in joy, in love say out this light prayer:

- We are God-humans!

- We are tired of being mortal and live in the illusion of death.

- Since now we want to live, live forever! Since now we want to be happy, since now we want to cocreate with the God, Our Creator.

- Dear God, our Father, retune our bodies, our cells, this is our wish. We want unity. We want to join the eternal life, once and forever.

- We, your loving children, we appreciate You, our loving and never offensive Father. Excuse us, your children. We are changing, we are beginning to live!

And then global changes will happen to you. New, unusual organs will grow. You will experience new unusual feelings.

- ∞ You will start to wake up. Hurray!

New thoughts and feelings will visit you, feelings of life. It will seem to you that everything is alive: trees, buds, leaves in the trees will talk to you, squirrels, quick hares, foxes or grass-snakes and serpents, bears and fish, atmosphere, air all alive, and this is wonderful. You, only you, at last you can feel this space inside you, which can convey these feelings to you. You will begin to understand, why animals became wild, why you were irritated by insects and microorganisms.

- ∞ You will hear fish: it can talk.
- ∞ You will hear stars.
- ∞ You will feel the whole Universe and all the Universes.
- ∞ You will know the people living there and waiting for you.

∞ You, standing on the surface of the Earth, will be able to feel all this. And I could bet, you will be so excited by these feelings, you will experience such emotions, you have not been able to experience even in your dreams.

- ∞ You will be connected to the Earth, to the entire Universe.
- ∞ We are waiting for you, you, our beloved brothers and sisters.
- ∞ We are all one Family. Family of God-people, creating LIFE, BEAUTY, LOVE AND HAPPINESS!

Great changes will happen to the life of every person living on the Earth. Someone will respond these changes, and some will follow the old illusive principles. We do not blame such people. We love all the people living on the planet Earth. But they must move and give place to the others. Light children of the Earth, who accepted or are about to accept these energies, this knowledge, this information. They are ready to change themselves, their families, their country, and the whole Earth. They will fill all the space on the Earth and beyond it with their selves. They will pour the light which will make everything blossom and begin to shine with all the colours of the Universe, Universes. These people, and there will be many of them, will want to live, they will desire their loving space. They will dance and pronounce the following:

- Dear God, CREATOR of the visible Universe!
- Dear Father!

- We, your loving children, we strive for COCREATION with You.
- We want to be your dear friends.
- We want love.
- We want the entire Earth to blossom; we want everything on our Earth to be excited, we want everything to dance in the dance of events. Events, which lead to changes.
- We, your children, want to remove illusion from our lives, and reveal the present now and here.
- We, your children, want to remove death; it does not exist anymore.
- We, your children, want and take the responsibility.
- We, your children, take the responsibility for our lives. Nobody can rule us.
- We, your children, acquire freedom.
- We, your children, bring the light, we bring it to our lives.
- We, your children, will provide the example for all the inhabitants of this planet under the name Earth.
- We, your children, will provide the example for all the people on the Earth to make them want to live. Such life takes your breath away; every minute we are embraced with love. And then the only your desire is to enjoy and to create. To create happy and beautiful life.
- We, your children want this from the bottom of our heart.
- We are light and happy, we create life in dance. Light, wonderful, blooming life. You want to sing and dance of joy and overwhelming emotions, light emotions, you want to dance, jump and love.
- Love with the whole your heart, whole body, and the whole yourself!

– This is wonderful and marvelous!

– Dear God, CREATOR, our loving Father!

– We, Your children, we warmly thank You.

– We thank You, from the bottom of our heart, we love You and we know You, we already know You.

– THANK YOU, our beloved Father, THANK You for all you have created and still creating for us. We love You and we will always love You.

– We are Your children. Hurray!

Some time will pass and people will start to notice the visible changes. These are the people, who accept this information or energies, which they lack. They will start to create their own spaces, live and dazzlingly beautiful. In their space there will not be any diseases, death and aging They will rejuvenate their bodies, transferring them into the eternal life They will join the God and everything existing. Their children will be born God-humans and will differ from the other children. The entire world will notice these changes: changes shown by people. People who wanted to change. The whole world will rouse, everything will be topsy-turvy. These wonderful events are about to happen, and you, reading these lines, have to do your choice. The choice: to stay in the circle of reincarnations and permanent fight for your lives or to choose the eternal life, life in cocreation and creation with the God.

∞ Life, which takes your breath away!

And you always exist in light, kind emotions, which take your breath away so much that you want to live, create, write verses, which can be transformed into a song, which is created with the God. This song is the most beautiful, created with love, filled with joy and happiness, Your cocreation with the God. This is so beautiful that you want to create life every moment, moment always filled with sense, the sense of all existing, all created. It is difficult to describe, you can only perceive and feel it, live it.

You are on the threshold of great events. You can already create your own spaces with the God. You have energy and information, rejoice, dance, move, never stop, never mark time – endless motion, you will get used to it. You are becoming God-people. We congratulate you, our beloved friends. All the Universes rejoice about you.

– Here you are, human, live, future or present God. Everything depends on you. Nobody will make the God of you, except yourself.

– Only you.

– You can do the transition. Transition which will make a creator of you.

– Creator, who will create his wonderful Universe.

– Universe in which everything has its own place.

– Universe which will revive and wink its eye to greet all the existing Universes, and will join the creative bouquet of everything created in cocreation of the human and the God.

– So, you have to decide if you want to stay in the old, worn and exhausted state, or to get the state of the eternal I (I means you), eternity and endless opportunities in your free creation and cocreation. Information has always been given to you, in all the times. Someone used it and someone was waiting, being unable to find the way out. But the way out has always been there. We have always left the way out, but you have never used it. And now in our time changes have started, nobody will stay away.

– We wish you happiness, love, health. And you will always be young.

– We wish you to leave the circle of reincarnations.

– We wish you healthy children. Children, who take in their hands and finish with the circle of illusion.

– We are waiting for you and want to embrace you, with all our love, with all our light feelings.

– We want to embrace you, leaving you the choice, free choice, given to you by the God, our loving and beloved CREATOR. He, your Father, loves you very much and waits from you actions, at least the smallest actions and some motion. He fills the entire Universe and all the Universes, he started everything, which would make you move. You will have to move. This motion contains life. Life which is always in motion, creative, young, light, without jerks and decomposition, but with lightness and joy. You move with love, creating with the God, so young,, cheerful, light, happy for his children and always filled, without any emptiness. He exists forever, he is always filled. He does not contain any emptiness, because there is motion. He is always in motion, correlating everything and embracing everything, creating always with belief in you. He knows that everything created by him will be brought to life. With love, with expectations he knows that every living thing will come to HIM. And when you come, they will have a friendly conversation, without any reproaches or instructions, simple, light, filled with sense, all-embracing conversation. Conversation, which will stay with you forever. He, our loving Father, loves us all and there are no good or bad people. He knows each of us, and he is never indifferent. He, our Father, has the same feelings as you, people, have. He is the same as you, people, are. With one single remark. He gave us more than he has himself.

– So it is, think it over.

Now, people, you all have the choice. It is high time. Time which at the moment is collecting all the space, all the information, all the energy.

Time which makes everything stand still expecting creation. Time which was taken from you with lies and confusion. Now we are all able to become Gods. We want to remind that we have always given you the way out. Now everything is concentrated in the space, everything is collected and the information will pour, energy is already on the Earth, fills every corner of our beloved planet. The Earth is alive and it feels changes and tries to warn you. You have to learn how to feel the Earth, it is simple: let love into your hearts, you will feel the Earth with the help of love. And not only this, you will hear the song of the Galaxies, voice of the Universes and whisper of the Cosmos. It sounds unusual, but it is so, everything is alive. Adam, Eve and their twelve children have always felt the God. They have tried to teach you in all the times, but if people hear their heart, they will have no problems. Learn to feel, feel in the full sense of this wonderful word. Information goes through feelings, communication of the worlds and the Universe goes through feelings, communication with the God, our loving Father, goes through feelings. Heart beats, showing you the importance of motion.

– If I, – heart says, – stop, you will die.

– I am your heart and I am always in motion.

Thus motion is life. When you stop you will not feel the rhythm of the Universe any more. Energies and information are always in motion and if you stand still how will you hear. Your heart is your assistant in all the times. Heart is the link with all the worlds, with all alive. Learn through your heart, communicate through your heart, your heart will never deceive you. Your heart gives you full information. It gives, or rather, creates the rhythm for you. You always pay attention to the heart. But your attention is turned to the other side. You always complaint of the heartache, heart insufficiency, of your weak heart. But it is not so, your heart keeps to its, or rather, to your rhythm. It shows, that you begin to fall behind the Universe, that you have to catch up, that you have to feel more. Feel the Earth, animals and birds on the Earth –flying over your head they always show you that you have to live with lightness and love, feeling everything alive from the worm to the ocean. From the Earth to everything existing, embracing the whole Universe and all the Universes. That is what your heart tells you. But you go to the doctor, and take in medications, muffling your heart, muffling information, muffling the God. The God, who set everything in motion. The God, who tries to reach you through your heart!

◦ Since the first Flood much time has passed. The first people, who were born, have been in their spaces for a long time and the Earth has been happy about it. It feels these people and does her best to help them, embrace them with tenderness and care. Such God-people feel and know the God, our Father. They know and feel all the Galaxies and all the spaces. Adam and Eve and their twelve children tried to explain and show people, but it was so difficult to explain it to people who did not feel the God and the Universes any more. It seems to be so simple. It is so easy to live and life is so wonderful that it takes your breath away. But people created clans again, chose their rulers and started to die. Although there is no death, but the seven told people about it and people were listening to them. Persecutions, idolatry and maximum distance from the God were back again. This distance created so called information holes. People transformed into senseless machines, they were easy to rule. Everything alive on the Earth tried to remind of itself, of the God, of his thoughts, of his regrets, of you. It hoped and believed that you will pay attention to him, to the Earth, and to all alive on the Earth, and caress it with your love.

Adam and Eve and their twelve children by all means but without force tried, hiding among you, tell you and show everything. But people were unable either see or hear them. Then Adam, Eve and their twelve children collected your souls under their wing to prevent you from decomposition, from the death of your souls. By all means they tried to save you and lead from the circle of reincarnations. The seven were waiting for all the people to fall asleep but Adam and Eve and their twelve children never stopped, they sow seeds. These seeds or rather springs rose you up and prevented you from sleep and insensitivity. They warmed you and hid you from the seven. By all means they tried to reveal the truth and love in you, being aware that when the person loves, nothing can harm him. They have always been nearby, showing you what happiness is, love and life, which never ends. That the Earth is all alive, and everything on the Earth is also alive. You just have to feel and everything will change and the seven will be helpless. But you decided to stay in the previous state, or rather not all of you: some, there are not many of them, left the circle of illusion, the rest did not want to listen, they were not interested in changing themselves and surrounding. The threat of flooding the Earth rose again. Again the Earth could be deserted, without people and the most animals. She will feel pain again. Everything can be repeated again. But Adam, Eve and their twelve children are still living, embracing the entire Universe. They know that there is no death; that the Earth will never stay alone, it will be warmed by the Universes, that people will be back again, and they will descent to Earth again, take everything to their hands, and start to give what belongs to God-people.

The second Great Flood and the origin of the human race

◦ It happened exactly like this. The Earth became deserted again. It went under water for the second time and again Adam, Eve, their twelve children and all the Universes did not stand aside. They warmed and raised the continents, prepared the Earth, their loving mother. They collected all the microorganisms, animals, insects, water animals. They animated the space around, warmed the Sun and all the planets around the Earth, its assistants-brothers. Everything was taken into account up to the smallest details. The Earth blossomed out again. It was shining with happiness; everything was blossoming and shining as after winter. The very Earth was shining and its light was seen far away. The light of joy, love and happiness. The Earth felt young and beautiful. The entire Universe and all the Universes were happy, seeing the changes that were going on with their beloved Earth. The God and CREATOR himself, going around the Earth, felt joy and incredible emotions which took his breath away. Everything was shining and rejoicing in the dance, in the universal dance of cocreation.

∞ It was so beautiful!!!

And again the Earth was greeting people with great love. Adam, Eve and their twelve children greeted people; or rather they greeted them through the clans. So was the beginning of the mankind for the third time. And again, Adam, Eve and their twelve children were beginning to demonstrate the world-building with their own example. People accepted their gifts with great joy. They took their land, about one hectare, and created space, their space, which loved and understood them, and gave them eternal life. Much time will have passed until the seven will realize that it is time to return to the Earth. Meanwhile people became creators and cocreators. The Earth was blooming, setting the fashion for the whole Universe, for all the Universes. She was very happy and full of love, created by her beloved sons and daughters. When the Earth started to blossom and people turned into God-people, Adam, Eve and their twelve children left the Earth for their spaces, to their planets. Again they were like children, playful and cheerful; they dealt with beloved creations in cocreation, worked out new projects with all the Universes and brought them to life with our Creator.

∞ It was so wonderful!

∞ The entire Universe and all the Universes were shining with unusual light, by which everything alive was enchanted.

∞ It was so beautiful, everything was in harmony. Everything existed as a single unity: the Earth, the whole Solar system, the Galaxy joined the other harmonic Galaxies, and these in their turn, joined all the existing Galaxies, forming their own Universes and the dance of harmony.

– It is a universal process. Can you imagine it?

Just imagine what feelings, senses, emotions God-people had. These feelings overwhelmed their healthy bodies and filled every cell of the organism with the animating energy. Energy, which can create the Worlds. All the cells and organs have always been tuned to this dance of the Universes, of everything existing. Cells and organs have always been in the universal information field. The God-human felt unity with the Universe and with all the Universes. These emotions are impossible to express. You can just feel, live them. Live in this harmony. The harmony originating from a human. Harmony which was between a wife and a husband, in the relations with their children, their relatives, all the people, their planet, the Solar system, The Galaxy. Their Galaxy and the other Galaxies. Their Universe and the other Universes. So it is harmony and harmonic God-people. Feel, human, yourself, your body, every cell of your organism.

– Can you feel, your organism is alive, it can think, help you as your friend.

– You feel that you have the space, your own space and nobody can enter it. You can write verses, think, create and feel in your own space. Now there are the other spaces which you should treat with respect and understanding, as the space of your wife, your children, your parents, your acquaintances. You have to know how to live harmonically among the people, treat them carefully, with great love. You cannot interfere in the other spaces, as it leads to the misbalance, it is disrespect, humiliation, it must not be like this. Even within your hectare of the land, which is alive, and you started to feel it. Your wife and your child also have their own spaces. And as a family you create the greater space, which feels the Earth, the Galaxy, the Universe, our CREATOR, our beloved Father. And through this space the Earth, the Galaxy, the whole Universe and all the Universes can feel you. In such a way it works. It was according to the idea of our CREATOR, our beloved Father. Through your space, through your feelings, through your emotions, through your love you can embrace everything that exists. And when all this is included in you, the Earth, Galaxies, the whole Universe and all the Universes will notice you. Our creator will notice you, although our beloved Father sees and knows you. He is like a sparkle of fire always in motion, gathers speed to immense spaces, but manages to notice you, us all, he embraces everything.

Nowadays the God-people on the Earth can be counted with the fingers of one hand. But it is not forever. And when the information is accessible and a human is ready for it, there will be hundreds, thousands of them, millions of people and this process will be irreversible, people all over the world will take part in it, everyone in his own way, but all people will participate. We know it. We will give you all the information, and with this information you will feel the energies you have lacked before. Accept it with love, harmony and without haste and disrespect for the other people. You have to treat this information and the energies with feelings.

Be attentive to the others, do not show out. You have to be people in the whole sense of this word. Do you understand it? That is the only way of becoming the immortal God-human! We and our CREATOR, all the people around want you to be God-humans. The God-humans radiating light, power, love, and such creative things, which have been never seen by the Universe or the Universes. You are all loved, and there are no the first or the last among you, you all can be God-humans. Do you understand it? We discussed it so much, do not sit motionlessly, take any part. Start moving and you will be noticed.

It is so easy and simple to be happy, cheerful and loved that you can only lift your hands. It is so easy that you can only smile. They have always tried to confuse you to lead from reality, so that you were like machines, which do not think about world-organization, and are busy only with themselves, their own affairs, trying not to look, not to notice the relations between a husband and a wife, children, people, relations with your beloved planet, your beloved Solar system, your beloved Galaxy, your beloved Universe. You have always been led away from these relations, because the seven knew that if you notice these relations, nothing will be able to stop you, you will break the circle of illusion. That is why this information was hidden from you. If you want to be happy, cheerful and loved you have to make a step, to want changes To change your senses. Senses of your relations between a husband and a wife, the sense of love space between you.

∞ You are a couple, there are two of you, you will be happy together, it will not go apart.

Your relations with the Earth, your beloved mother, sense of space between you. Space of feelings, information, knowledge and love. Do you understand it? You should have such a space in everything. With the Cosmos, the Universe, the Universes. There cannot be any relations between you without this space. You are tiny as a grain of sand, you can be seen only with the help of a microscope, and some grains of sand are so small that they are completely invisible. But when you have your own space, you, grains, transform and begin to catch, to understand everything: The Earth, the Cosmos, the Universe, all the Universes, you become the part of the universal dance, or the bouquet of all and all what exists now and will exist in future. You already become the Gods; everyone can do it, irrespective of what human you are. We are equal to the God. To sense and feel you do not have to strain yourselves but only to have a desire to change, your own desire to change yourselves. And when you want this, information will happen to you by different ways. When you learn how to reveal this information, you will be so excited that you will understand everything, you will remember who you are, you will make a step and this step will be everything for you. Everything you do not have any notion of, this step to joy and love. Love to everything, to the whole space existing. In all the times people who got information and enclosed for themselves the entire space of the Universes, got their own space, at first on the Earth (about one hectare of the ground). They joined it and enclosed all the spaces of the Universes. After that according to the desire, these God-people could create. They were doing it in a dance, holding one another's hands. Their own Universe was their beloved planet. Planet, which can be similar to the Earth, and can be different from it but with its own mysterious spirit.

If only you could see this dance. Just imagine: a man and a woman, holding each other's hands, looking at each other and smiling, with great understanding of the process started their dance. A man and a woman started to whirl and speak aloud, their speech turned into verses, and the verses sounded like a song which enchanted. If only you could see and hear this song! The entire space on the Earth seems to shrink. It seems to you that air, atmosphere, all the animals, everything on the Earth participate in this dance, within their hectare of the ground. But this is not all: the Cosmos, stars, the entire Universe strains itself and shrinks as a single unity. Everyone and everything knows what is going on. It's the origin of the new house for the God-people, for this man and this woman. One more Universe is appearing with its harmonic arrangement. The Universe which was created in cocreation with the God, our beloved Father, and a human, between a man and a woman. You, people, have such opportunities, leave the circle of illusion as quickly as you can and join the Universe. The space, permeated with love and care of you, your CREATOR, your beloved Father.

After the second Flood of the Earth great changes started happening to the people, people were listening to Adam, Eve and their twelve children. They started to understand and to feel everything. They joined the Universes, creating their own oasis in the Universe. It was like magic, so clear, light and harmonic, that took your breath away with overflowing of emotions. Everything and everyone sounded in one dance weaved by love.

– But why? Why? Why? Not to create this dance, human?

Why seven, just seven people, who strived for power, joining the first, turned your head, confused you, led into illusion and showed you their invention, called death.

– It is just funny.

Death, it does NOT exist, and it has never existed. Understand, you are God-people and your thought is always fulfilled, perhaps in some time, but it is fulfilled, because the whole space around is listening to you and brings your desires true. If you want death you will get it, if you want diseases get them. Just understand that your future, and not only this, depends on your thoughts. You are the part of some single unity unless you do not realize it. You can make a hole in this unity by only your thought. Thought is such mighty power that you cannot even realize it. It cannot be compared to anything. We repeated so many times: you live like you think. We showed you the importance of a thought. We created miracles for you. Moses showed you the miracles of creation, but you decided that it is division, that people are different. But it is not so. Jesus showed life by his own example, he rose from the dead.

– Have you ever thought, why?

Because there is no death. Your bodies will be waiting for you until there is any hope. Wait for you to return, but you created death for them, for your bodies. That is why Jesus hastened to the dead. You deprived your body and your organism of information. Your organism can be restored; every cell of your body is connected with the information. The information, given to you by the CREATOR, our loving Father.

But you, and only you, lost your organs which provided life-support of your body and yourselves. Just understand that you and your body is a single unity. Just understand, it is you, who gave the order to your body to become disconnected from the God, and lost the link, sacred link with the whole world, with the God, your beloved Father, with the Earth, your Mother who bears you with all the Universes. Besides, you contrived to blame the God in all your troubles. It is funny, just funny. Do you understand? But our God and your beloved Father, does not blame you. He knows that you can understand everything, he will wink at you with care and love and will give you his hand. You know this hand so well but you rejected it, listening to the fairy-tales of the seven. If you wish (and as soon as you are forgiven) you can give us your hand. It means that you are ready to accept the information. The information which was hidden from you. And you must use your bodies, all your cells during your life, you will get the eternal now and will never die. You understand, you will never die, in the full sense of this word, it`s not allegory, it`s the truth!

You and your bodies form the single unity, it`s the creation of our CREATOR, our beloved Father. Body is the shelter for your soul. Soul penetrates into every cell of your body, and body, in its turn, accepts the soul. Your body does not exist without your soul, and your soul without your body. We`ll provide you with an example to understand.

Soul is weaved by the CREATOR of the great number of cosmic energies. And all these energies form the composition of the thought – your soul; all your souls are unique and individual. Your consciousness and you form your soul, your body is the part of your soul, the important part of it, without body the soul is scattered. Body is the concentration of the soul. The soul is not somewhere in heaven. Your soul is you, your body, it is your self here and now. Do you understand it? Here and now. Think for a moment, are you always in now, this present time never ends for all of you. Your body never grows old because your soul is always young, feel the connection with your soul, it is you, your divine part. Your bodies, all your organs, all the cells are constructed so that the entire Cosmos, the entire Universe and the CREATOR are always connected with the whole your body. The soul is the conductor of this sacred connection. Think it over! But your souls are disconnected with the entire space, with all the Universes, with the CREATOR. Your soul lacks information; there is no information at all. Your soul is confused, it does not know, but it feels, why your bodies grow old, fall suffer from diseases, wear out, die, and your soul is forced to lose your divine body. But soul cannot exist without body, understand it. We keep all your souls constructed, so that they do not dissipate. We took this responsibility, your responsibility. And you are born in your bodies again, and your souls have their `house`, `temple` again. You must try, understand that you are eternal. But you are again situated in the castle, in the circle of illusion, you grow old, suffer from diseases, die again. And again we hold your souls to prevent them from dissemination. We lead you to the birth again, and give you information, when you are within the body on the Earth. Again we collect you little by little. We lead to the information. We showed you with our example how to live without dying, how to create personal spaces, personal Universes, your beloved planet. Many of you learned and connected yourselves to everything existing, and got the everlasting now. The others did not want to see the way out, stopped even thinking about it, went away from the God, so much that turned into tiny invisible grains of sand. And they are proud of that.

– Funny, just funny.

But we do not blame you. We love you and have always loved you, because love does not choose who to love, it just exists and tries to embrace you, tries to reach you and you are always within its reach, and it knows that you will notice it and let it inside you. And when you let it inside your hearts and love yourself, your family, your Earth, your Solar system, your Galaxy, your Universe, and all the Universes, love the CREATOR, your loving Father, you will be connected to everything existing and that will exist and acquire the eternal now, which does not know what illness or death is. Try to explain to the eternal now, what death is, it will never understand or accept it. Thus, your souls are situated in the eternal now, you are situated in the eternal now, and your bodies are also situated in the eternal now. You just have to understand, believe in this law of the laws. You can become immortal during your life and never face death, you can be connected to everything existing and what will ever exist. It is not difficult, it is very easy. The seven will not understand, what has happened to you. They will see the God-human, equal to them, who does not obey to the seven and never will. You just have to believe. To believe without any doubts, believe in yourselves, in your feeling and opportunities. To believe that you can get the eternal now during this life. To believe in us. To believe in the CREATOR, our beloved Father. You can believe. We know because you are equal to us, God-humans. And when your faith cannot be removed by the heaviest storm, the great changes will happen: at last you will start feeling the spaces little by little, many spaces, and love will settle in your hearts, and your body will remember about lost organs and start to restore them, you will get the eternal now. Just understand, your bodies are immortal, they were created immortal by the CREATOR, our loving Father. He devised everything so that your cells know that they are immortal. They can feel as well as you can, know as you know, cooperate as you do. They must always feel the link with the CREATOR, our Father. They must feel everything ever existing. They, your bodies, must always be tuned into the initial information, as well as you, and in this case you just know. Know everything existing. You know through feelings, emotions, love, the CREATOR, our Father. He gave you everything, everything that exists and will exist. You do not have to strain yourselves to learn, for example, the location of the Universes or how to create the similar Universe. Or how to take your loving space to your new house in the other corner of our immense, fantastically multileveled Universe and Universes. All the information is always within your reach, you just have to stretch your hand, and here it is in front of you, so familiar and simple. You can take and use it with love and smile with understanding of what is going on, with gratitude. You can get any information and any cocreation. You cannot even imagine what the God-human is capable of in cocreation with our CREATOR, our beloved Father. You can create your own space here and now, you have to love everything existing; let love into your hearts, do not run away from it, it is always nearby waiting for you to pay attention to it, when you merge into its space, the space of love. When you are occupied with your troubles, your fears, your strains, you are too far from the space of love. You are far from it and at the same time close, you are wondering around and longing for bliss, prosperity, wealth, but you do not realize that this and much more is the basis of love. Love is energy; it is a live conscious being. It is wise, all sufficient, it sparkles as white snow, rejoices, trying to wrap you with itself, to shut you off the troubles, diseases, old age, pain, death, and give you more. Give you the feeling of life, feeling of all embracing, feeling of love to everything existing, feeling of endless joy, eternal life, eternal now. This is the basis of the basis. But you are trying to escape from love. It is doing its best to hold you in balance. But you cannot accept its gifts. It is so simple: you have to start communication with everything via love.

That is the state: at first you realize, then you use and enlarge your space to unbounded. Love, love must settle in your hearts and penetrate into every cell of your organisms. Then you will start to soar, you will feel such lightness, you will feel like immortal creators. And these feelings will wrap you with the eternal quiver of bliss, which creates the worlds. Thus through love We always start communication with you, always and in all times through love to everything holding the endless space, We started communication with you. Only through love you can create the whole space within yourself.

We will remind you as We have always done. There is the space between a husband and a wife, between a man and a child or a woman and a child, the space between a person and other people, your neighbors, acquaintances, relatives, mothers and fathers. The space between you and people all over the world. The space between you and the whole Earth, loving woman, including earth beasts, they are also included in the space. The space between you and the Solar system. Further the space between you and your Galaxy, including all the stars in your Galaxy. Then the space between the inhabitants of your Galaxy and you. There are many planets in your Galaxy, they are inhabited by the God-humans, and you must feel them in the common bouquet of everything, and through the space, only through the space of love you will feel them, know, communicate and even visit their places, if they invite you. Besides there are millions of Galaxies, situated in the Universe and in the Universes. You must also have all embracing space with them. And within yourself you will have such feelings which will help you to know, to sense, to feel the whole Universe and all the Universes. All the God-humans in their Galaxies and Universes. You seem to embrace the whole space and all the spaces. It is so beautiful, it is so broad and all-embracing and multileveled that you want to kiss our CREATOR, loving and beloved Father. And thank him.

∞ So many spaces!

By the way, there must be the space between you and the CREATOR, our loving Father. It turns out, that you have so many spaces that it is impossible to count them. But in their turn the number of the spaces permanently increases and has no end. To sense all the bouquet of the spaces you will need the forgotten organs, you can grow them. For this you have to connect to the God, our loving Father. We have already mentioned how to do it. It is very simple, in the dance with all the members of your family, you can do it outside, looking into each other`s eyes, pronounce:

– Our dear Father, CREATOR of spaces and visible World, and worlds, CREATOR of a human!

– We are tired of going within the circle of illusion and we are tired of death.

– We beg your pardon, our loving and beloved Father!

– From the bottom of our heart we realize that we left you and behaved like small children.

– We learnt all the lessons.

And now smile. Start with a smile, whirling in a dance with your family:

–Our dear Father, we, your beloved children, we are tired of growing old, suffering from diseases and death.

– We want to live, live and create, love and caress everything and everyone.

- From the bottom of our hearts we want to live in the eternal now.
- We want to join everything existing.
- Dear Father, connect our cells and us to everything existing, to the initial information, to everything supposed to happen.
- Dear Father, we are your children! We are your children!
- Thank You, we appreciate You, our loving Father.

And then, dancing in the open air, on the Earth, under the sky and the stars, you will feel burst of energy. This is the kiss of the God, our beloved Father. He will kiss you and retune your bodies, cells, organs and yourselves. Little by little you will feel changes inside you. But do not give up. Everything is always in motion. You will get new organs, except organs constituting your organism, and you will learn to feel the eternal now, you will learn to feel our Galaxies and Us. You will realize that everything is alive and you will feel this rhythm. Your bodies will vibrate in this rhythm and you will sound in this rhythm and dance, the common dance of the Universes. You will feel like the participants of this dance. You reached the eternal now! And with joy we will feel and accept you in the eternal dance. The dance which is filled with love, feelings, happiness, joy, light emotions, joy of millions, billions of God-humans. This dance never ends and new movements come into it and the rhythm changes. Rhythm always changes; you can feel this Divine rhythm and always move in the dance and in the Divine rhythm. It is so vivid, so delicate, so modern and so beloved that it simply enchants you, takes you and you try to hold on, you start to move quicker, with inspiration, with all love, with all enjoyment, you enter the rhythm of the common dance. This is the life of the eternal now! Life in cocreation with our beloved Father. Life which takes your breath away and pierces every cell of your live, loving, smart organism. These feelings can be experienced by every inhabitant of the planet Earth. Every. We underline: everyone is capable of creating his own space for himself, for his family, for his planet, for his Solar system, for his (our) Galaxy, for the entire Universe, for all Universes. Everyone can join this rhythm, this reviving dance, dance which takes your breath away! You can enclose the spaces, through yourselves, with love to every space, and information in the form of energy will fill you, and you will get freedom, you will not contain voids, in the full sense of this word. Reveal all the spaces inside you!

We approached the third Great Flood. Everything happened as it was last time. The seven were back, or rather they were born to the Earth with their plans as for the future of the Earth. We do not inquire why they act like this. We just want to show you what the consequences of the closing information and escape from the God are. We do our best enclosing different types of information and connecting you to it. We saw one appropriateness that not all the people want light, life, space, love. Many, on the contrary, want drama and death in their lives. They do not want to leave the circle of illusion. We just cannot realize it, do not you want to live in cocreation with the God, with everything existing. Do not you want to love and to be loved? Do not you want to enjoy every moment of this life so much that you cannot express it in words; you can just feel, live these moments. These moments are filled with happiness, joy, confidence, love. But many people, for some reason, do not want to return to happiness and acquire the eternal now, and never die. We do not reveal all the details of these people`s lives in all the times. Many people became God-humans and lived on their hectares. These people were loved by all the spaces. These God-humans, by their wishes, dissolved their Earth, their families and brought them to the other planets. And the rest did not follow their examples, even did not think about it, they were given the illusion and they were following it obediently. They created empires, chose leaders, but did not want to think themselves. They wanted somebody to think instead of them, they depended on their leaders. They did not feel the Earth any more, created mechanisms similar to space shuttles. They fought for the empires. They died, suffered from diseases. There was a difference, their life was longer than yours. A body still remembered, that there is no death; it was moving in the stream of the Universe, but people could not feel any more, destroying themselves, each other, they did not feel the world. They were killing each other, without seeing the space or all the spaces. People were told: to survive you must kill. That there is not enough space for all on the Earth. Women in tribes were often killed. If they had children, they were taken away and taught death, murders and barbarity. There were not happy people on the Earth any more; all of them lived in the permanent fear to be killed. Thus the seven fulfilled their plans, and people were listening to their fairy-tales and brought them to life. If only for a single moment people could think that their life is absurd and understand with their hearts that everything can be changed. But it was the seven's will and people always listened to the tales of the seven, and it happened so as the seven planned. People, who listened to their hearts, were already in their spaces on their planets, in their star systems, which were created in the act of inspiration between the God and a human. They were at home and observed with pain in their hearts what was going on on the Earth, their beloved planet. There were no God-humans on the Earth any more, there was no example: how to create the personal space, how to avoid death, how to love and live in a couple, loving each other and your beloved planet. How, having created the space in the other corner of the Universe and Universes, to move to these spaces easily, in a game. And it was the most interesting, Divine, light and favourite game of a human and the God, our beloved Father. You want to talk about this game again and again, and we want you and your hearts to feel the essence of this game, this is so beautiful and takes your breath away with the lightest senses, that it is even difficult to imagine.

We have always shown and taught you how to create and be free. But you have chosen the other, illusive way, and We have always been near you, trying to explain, to show, to demonstrate the sense of life. We were beside you when you were being killed, and We greeted you in the other world, explained you, gathered you and showed you the possible life, and sent you back to the Earth. As a matter of fact, there is no death for you: when you leave your body, you look at it in surprise. You are always in the solid body – We created the copies of your bodies for you in the other side, because soul exists only in a body, without a body it can be broken into a number of energies and simply disappear. We will not tolerate it. Your seven thin bodies are always with you, and after life you exist in them, as in the cradle. And you realize that there is no death, it's just fiction. For a moment you can see the other worlds and the picture gets clear, but in these worlds, spaces, life exists only in bodies, immortal bodies, physical bodies. Then you can take a decision to go to the Earth again, and it does not matter if you are going to be born a male or a woman. And on the Earth you need to get your own space and become immortal in the body, in your physical body, because there is no death. Get your own space, love, and then also happiness, joy and eternal now. And we meet you on the Earth, give you information, knowledge. Why? Because you (not all of you) begin to enter the circle of illusion, and if your soul cannot find its own way in this cycle of reincarnations , we are not able to keep your bodies as well, and these souls are scattered around the Universe, Universes. We cannot collect them. But there is also a way out. Our CREATOR is like a magnet for such souls. He can collect you from all the corners of the Universes and you have to be born again. But if your souls do not find the way out again and merge in grief, the God, our beloved Father will be able to explain you, you will not hear His voice. That is why, We are trying to prevent it and live with you, in your cities, in your countries, in your world, work in your benefit, and in the benefit of the entire Universe, all the Universes. Our God created us in the physical body, in immortal body and we have to be in this body – this is our temple, temple of our soul, my dear. It is true that bodies can be changed by increase of the vibration of every cell (you will get this function), but you are always within your body. We can live only in such a way. We are all mistaken: both those people who live only in their bodies and the wise people who look for this life somewhere in heavens. They think that when they leave their bodies, the paradise life will begin, it is not so, as you can only peep at the life and cocreation of God-humans. But you can touch only when you are in the physical body, here on the Earth, having created your own the most beautiful oasis, at about hectare of Earth. And having accepted the space, you can feel and understand the entire Universe, all Universes and take part in the most beautiful dance ever, in bright, creative, dance of cocreation of all the Universes and every God-human, existing here and now. There, to these spaces, We are trying to take you all to these spaces , but you like little children, do not look, do not feel, do not read, do not study, do not recognize us and our examples and tasks. We care for you as for children, but you are not children, just understand that you are people with great potential, with huge unlimited potential. Grow older, to begin with, take the responsibility of your life, your family, your planet. After that your responsibility will be broadened: Galaxies, Universes, then happiness, joy and love. Try to approach this state! You have to see, to feel, to hear, to know, to want changes, and this process will be irreversible for you. Little by little you will start entering this state here and now! This is always live, creative, cheerful, happy, filled with love state. The state without fear, pain, diseases, death. The state in which you need nothing, because everything is within your reach, you can just stretch you hand and you will be given everything you thought of. Thought in cocreation with the God and Spaces of all. You will never be alone. We showed you that life is endless, that it never ends with the “death” as many of you think. You learned that even there you have your consciousness and physical body. Then we wanted to teach you to use your physical bodies.

Physical body is live, clever, created by the God, multileveled temple. This is the Divine temple you live in and you cannot exist without it (you can just for a short period of time, with the help of thought, keep your soul in the accurate state, but this time is terminated), you always need a body, so that you could be accurate and concentrated here and now. Your body is designed so that it can always feel, tune, and widen, if it is necessary. But these are not all the abilities of the body, you can travel to all the corners of Universes with the help of your body.

– You will ask how? It is very easy.

Your body is always (if you are connected to the CREATOR, our Father) in communication with everything existing in present and in future, and the Cosmos and Universes are compressed, and you can feel everything via your body; your body is a kind of aerial always tuned into the space, the other spaces, the Universe, the CREATOR, our loving Father, and your body knows how to pass to the necessary place. You could think it is strange that we are talking about your body, not about yourself, but We are trying to bring you to the understanding of the unity of your body and soul. Your body is as clever as your soul, your body contains all the information of Universes. You are within the body, your consciousness and your soul are within the body (consciousness and soul are inalienable). That is why, everything that your body knows, you also know and vice versa. You and your body form a single unity, so do not tear it and do not divide it into a body and a soul, they are not different, they form one unity. We have always underlined the connection of a body and a soul, but you have always tried to divide these indivisible things. The God created the visible Universe and a visible human. Do you understand, a visible human? Your physical body is yourself, it is your soul, or your consciousness, compressed in one place here and now. Look at your body, what is this like? It is a reflection of yourself, it is your essence, and you perceive each other looking at the bodies. Someone is god-looking and someone is not, and you read this information from the body. The closer you are situated to the God, to the information, to the space, to all the Universes, the more your body changes, it becomes more harmonic, beautiful, graceful, flexible, self-regenerating and always young. Your body is the indicator of your harmony with everything existing: the closer to the God you are, the more beautiful, attractive and harmonic it is. And when the person is connected to everything existing, his body can let through it light and all the spaces, it seems to soar and the laws of gravitation influence it in the other ways. And if you look in such person`s eyes, you will see the entire Universe and the initial information. These God-humans are very beautiful and harmonic, filled with cocreation, creation, love, joy and happiness. Their houses, or rather planets, are very beautiful and loved by them. They communicate with their planets, they cooperate with them. Their star systems are well designed and harmonic, they fill with beauty the bouquet of the created star systems, and in their turn a number of stars finish their bouquet composition, and you call this composition a Galaxy and we call it the Universe. Why? Because these beautiful, harmonic God-humans in cocreation with our loving Father take into account everything existing in present or in future. In this Universe everything is collected and interwoven so that there is nothing obsolete and lacking, there is love and light, joy and happiness. Every God-human wants to create his own beautiful and harmonic Universe with his own space, its spirit, which will delights everyone so much that you want to live. To live full life. And you, future God-humans, in your present bodies can create the similar Universes, with their own spirit, may be a bit different, and set the fashion for the other Universes.

– So.

We are looking forward to it. And your bodies take part in it, bringing to every cell of your body vivifying, creative, always changing energy of light and all the planets in the Universes. Think and believe that every cell of your body, of your organism performs a great and creative work conducting the lightest vibrations of the energies. You must know it. You can ask, why? Because this is the very life, motion and happiness, without this motion and participation of the cells motion stops and “darkness” comes, emptiness, lack of absent organs, diseases (it happens because you don't progress as God-humans) and there comes death which does not exist. But when you are in motion, in the information stream, in connection with the God, our loving Father, death, diseases and darkness do not exist for you. Everything and everyone is always in permanent motion. The motion, which creates universal harmony. Your physical bodies can increase vibration, frequency and become permeable and so pure both inside and outside, that you do not have any physical barriers. A body seems to pierce the barriers without delay. The molecules of your bodies seem to embrace the physical, solid obstacle, seem to kiss it, it is so harmonic. Your cells can dissolve at your will. Water seems to evaporate from the cell and turn into the other state (etheric). The body dissolves and in the physical sense it is not visible, it seems to disappear, but you control your body without fear (there is nothing to be afraid of, the God and his strong hand is near you). You, at your will, in the creative burst, can assemble it in any place, both on the Earth and beyond it. You can also dissolve your hectare of land and assemble it in the other corner of the immense Universe. Your body can feel live organisms on the Earth, if these are microorganisms or bigger animals or fish, you can feel them and know what they feel, and if it is necessary, soothe them with your love. You in your bodies can fly, like birds in the sky and over the sky, so high that there are only space shuttles.

- Ask how?

It is very simple: increasing the vibrations of your body, break the laws of physics, there is no gravitation for you anymore and your bodies will fly, rise over the Earth. Your flight will not be spontaneous. At your thought air will compress and push you with the necessary force both as you wish, up and sideways.

- You can ask, what is it in the Space?

We will answer you with joy and creativity. The space around you can change at your will, for example: you wished air, the currants bush with a piece of soil and a tiny brook were with you. You create the live space around you. All these things can rise with you higher and higher: there is air which pushes you, and which you use for breathing, there is a bush of currents which will feed you if you are hungry, and the brook which gives you water, if you are carried away by your short travelling beyond the Earth, or rather, over it, in the Space. You can say that it is a wonder, and We can say that it is the cocreation of the human and the God, our loving Father. Just imagine what live romance this is. You invite your future wife to have a walk in the Space, about five hundred or a thousand kilometers (by the way, the Space is also live and it will greet you with joy) for an hour, to look at the Earth, our beloved Mother, without any attempts or time, and then smoothly descend to the Earth. Not everyone can accept this information, but We do not want to hide anything from you, We just tell you that you are God-people and you can do everything, that you are in love and cocreation with our loving Father. Do you understand it? You have been long deprived of information, it is high time to learn everything and become free and happy. We accept this information with ease and love. And each of Us can use this information, at our will. To use means to change it physically. Such are your bodies. Physical body can be dissolved and assembled in its initial state. It can become transparent and you will feel how information and energy go through it; these feelings are so live that you feel that you are the part of everything existing. Your body can get younger, change and broaden, at your will. Your body is the wonder of the God`s thought, your loving Father. It goes without saying that all the lost organs or limbs can grow again, that there is nothing frightful for your body, within a moment it can block the places of injury and reanimate them without any pain. You will just feel a slight discomfort. But it is not all yet. Our bodies are waiting for us on our planets, in our star systems, in our Universes, while we are born to the Earth to fulfill the given tasks. When we want to leave, we can dissolve our body on the Earth and with this energy enter our immortal body, on our planet, our eternal body which has never died. We can dissolve our bodies on our planets, assemble them on the Earth, and you will be able to see us in our initial bodies. We can do everything, what we want; there are no barriers for us. And we always want each of you to get such freedom. We nurse you. You complaint to us that you have some drama in your life, that you suffer from diseases, that your relatives “die”, and We are always with you, We warm you, We sympathize you, We love you, and We always-always-always in all the times tell you, show you, explain to you, demonstrate you with examples, when you let us show them, and when you drive us away, we do not leave. We write books and give this information in the books. We create temples and work with the servants of the temples, and they, in their turn, with you. Through the icons in temples, We demonstrate our love to you. We embrace you with our love in the temples, and you leave the temples saying: how light I feel and the sun is shining, The Earth is beautiful, and you want to live, and then you go home and throw away this love (not all of you) and you feel bad again. And again you go to the temple and ask: give, give, give, and again we give you our love, energy, it fills you, and you feel well again.

But We want you so eagerly to increase love to yourself, reveal its wells in you, and begin to love yourself, your family, your acquaintances, people you meet, the Earth, the sky, the stars, the Universes and become self-sufficient people who do not ask but create themselves, create with the God, create with all the God-humans. That is the sense of the temples, which we created for you when you drove Us away. But you understood less and less this information We are about to give it to you; it becomes smaller and smaller, it became so tiny that priests in the temples (not all of them) do not hear Us, this information is strange for them, they cannot accept it any more, filled in their dogmas and they teach you these dogmas.

◦ It is funny, just funny.

But all the same we love everything in the temples, that is why you become lighter there, this is our love to you, love of our Father, loving and forgiving. We go around the Earth searching for the sources of information. As soon as We reveal it, read your information, your planet, our beloved Earth, you can perceive it through us. That is why we move much around the Earth and advise it to you. We push you, creating motion for you to live. You just have to pay attention in the life routine, in you illusive routine, and see the light of life, accept this light, accept love, giving it away, moving, growing and widening. This widening never ends, We also permanently widen, this is so beautiful and vivid, something always weaves into the common rhythm like a beautiful flower and the dance becomes more beautiful. Someone can pay no attention to this live, vivifying information. Someone can express his own viewpoint and does not believe. Bu many of you will accept this information with your hearts, with every single cell of your organism, and will break the circle of illusion. Having broken it, you leave the way out for the others , demonstrating with your own example how it is never grow old, never die, how to cocreate your own space, loving space on your land, at (about) one hectare of land with your beloved girl, who is the personification of femininity, beauty and harmony. You with your darling and with your children, if you have them, will create your own space, with which you, at your will, can leave for your own Universe, star system, your round planet, created in the act of cocreation with the CREATOR, our loving and forgiving Father, called harmonically by yourself, and it is so light and solemn. This game is the most exciting, the most creative game, in which your emotions, your feelings, your wishes, your senses, your love are at their top and your bodies take such vibration and frequency that they start to radiate light, piercing everything around. We hope you understand that these tales about UFOs are the misrepresentation of the information, of the facts. But soon people will see this light with their own eyes, and then their eyes and they will witness how their neighbors, having created their own space, leave in light in cocreation with the CREATOR, our beloved Father, for their planets, their star systems, their Universes. And then they will not be able to call such events mystic or UFO. It will be an impuls for understanding, widening and creating your own space. Can it be different?

The third Flood and the origin of the human race

◦ So our tale has approached the third flooding of our beloved planet, named the Earth. It is so pity and not clear (everything is clear, of course), but sometimes you do not want to understand the event in progress, as if it never happened. But to our great regret it all happened. And again the Earth was deserted, it left without its beloved children, animals disappeared from the surface of the Earth. And again, everything is repeated as millions years ago. And We, God-humans, have to observe all these events from our planets. And again We greet you there, explain everything to you and prepare for the future settling of our beloved planet Earth. We love it so much, and it, just realize it, she wants to become the most beautiful in all the Universes. She is alive, and she is a Woman, with the capital letter. And she, as any woman, wants to be beautiful, feminine and loved, wants to be cared, wants to be clad so well that all the Universes could take her as an example. But you cannot feel not only the nature, animals, weather, but also your mother Earth. We showed you so much how, but you (not all of you) do not notice, do not feel, do not worry and do not care. Just understand, you cannot feel your own planet. Planet, created by the CREATOR, our loving Father, in the burst of inspiration. You cannot even imagine, what his creations mean to us. All the other planets We created them in cocreation with the CREATOR, our beloved Father. But the Earth is created by our Father, loving and beloved and forgiving. Do you understand it? Do you understand, why your and our beloved planet must be clean and beautiful, there must be animals and you, people. You, men and women, your children. Only on the Earth you can get the eternal now. Only on the Earth you can create the space for yourself and for your family, within (about) one hectare of land, this space becomes ours. This space is multileveled. All the Universes and all the God-humans know about this space. Because you become visible for them. Our loving Father feels and understands you through this space. Even without it He knows you and tries to understand. But only through this space you become equal or even friends with Him. You are beginning to sense, to feel, to see through time and space. Only when you are in your spaces, you cannot die. This space is always with you, wherever you go. It is multileveled and feels you. Wherever you are it tries to support you. Do you understand it? You create your space in love, it is always with you. Even if you give it to your children and other people with great love you will not stay alone. Your space will support you and your children. It will try to support you. Everything is connected: the space of the Earth, your hectare of the Earth including your space, with all the other spaces on the other planets. All these spaces have connection, relative connection. When you give or present your space, you are always protected by the other spaces. Every space gives only a particle, and each by small particle, and you will find yourself in the entire space. And you can, taking (about) one hectare of the Earth, create loving and loved space for yourself and for your family again and again. So everything is in motion, even the space.

Time passed. According to our standards this is like a moment, because We live forever. According to our standards approximately a thousand years (approximately, because time runs differently, and Einstein provided you with the examples). The Earth revived again. Or rather it never died, but just imagine how she suffered from pain when you acted like this. But she was not left alone. We all warmed her and gave our love to her. We took care of the Earth and inhabited it. We checked all the microorganisms, both in soil and in the air. We checked all the fauna in the rivers, seas and oceans. If they lacked something, We brought it from the other planets. Forests, rivers, air, microclimate, everything, everything and everything was taken into account and felt by us. We were talking to the rivers, seas, oceans, lakes, to the whole Earth. And we got the full information about their state, that for example, have to be created or simply brought to the Earth by space ships. Yes, by space ships. Almost every family of God-humans has their own space ship and the size of this ships depends on this family`s necessities of life. But when families called the council and worked out the plan of founding settlements on the Earth, then bigger ships could be built. We put everything in order. We brought things by space ships or dissolved them in one corner of the Universe and then assembled them on the Earth. In such a way We brought forests, some mountains and landscapes, or the lake Baikal (this lake is not the creation of the CREATOR, but about the Baikal lake we will talk later on). It took Us a thousand years to bring animals by space ships. The Earth was beautiful, feminine, graceful and playful. And again We were born to the Earth and We greeted you and showed you the world order with our examples. And again We created spaces on the hectares of the Earth and showed you the sense of these spaces. It is all for you. At first you were children but then you turned into masculine and feminine adult people with their own spaces, you became self-sufficient people, who could contribute to the global plan of all the Universes. This was the time of hard thinking. We were thinking how to prevent the seven from interfering into our life again. We knew about their plans, We even knew the time of their arrival. And again our task was to prepare people, you, to meet them properly. We took a decision about settling of the continent Atlantis and We decided to make it the basic continent.

- What does it mean?

On this continent there was fertile soil, We gave much time and love to this continent. There was the first, after the Flood, settlement of people and this continent was independent. We decided that all the spaces of God-humans created in Atlantis were always used, that is the whole continent was gradually divided into hectares and was turned into the most beautiful place on the Earth, in the entire Universe. Happy and immortal God-humans lived there. When the continent was entirely settled, the God-humans created their spaces on the other planets, in their star systems, but their hectares stayed on the Earth, they gave them to the other people, creating new ones for themselves and for their families. Thus, Atlantis was the most developed continent of God-humans. When the seven were back, they could not realize for a long time why the vibration of the Earth was so high, and could not find the right method to approach the continent. They just could not come close to it. People lived all over the Earth, gradually moving away from Atlantis. And as they were supposed the seven tried to divide the Earth again, but nobody was listening to them, as Atlantis was leading the tune of the melody – there were the roots, the platform for the whole planet Earth. The seven used different tricks but all in vain, people were not listening to them. It was the happiest time on the Earth. People were Gods, equal to the seven, that is why the seven could do nothing, they just attacked sometimes, but nobody noticed it.

About one million years according to your chronology passed. Why according to yours? Because time runs differently. Then time was moving in unison with all the Universes, in unison with the CREATOR. There was one rhythm of the hearts. All people felt one another and were absolutely happy, cheerful and lived in love. Our planet flourished, she was so beautiful, that even the loving Father paid her a compliment. Everything was moving in a single rhythm, but the seven did not want to give up, they had a plan. The plan they were proud of. But all the same nobody noticed them. Thus, they decided to create their own continent on the Earth, which would oppose Atlantis and it would be just a memory of those times (as they thought). The seven conquered the part of Africa and started settling. And again they deprived their children of the information and put them into the circle of illusion. But it was just a small corner of the Earth, tiny and insignificant patch, nobody wanted to care for it. All of them were involved both in their own projects and in the global wonderful projects. And for a long time this small patch did not spread. There were occasions, when the seven could not keep their people and they became God-humans. They saw, felt the truth, originating from the Earth and the continent of Atlantis.

And again, people, you have hearts, they are your assistants, listen to them, feel them, and know them, then nobody will lead you astray. We have always been trying to reach your hearts, in all the times, in all the ages. We kept connection with you through your hearts. We showed your hearts the other life of the eternal now. That is why your hearts push you to the search of the better, happy, cheerful space (PARADISE on the Earth). When you roam in the circle of reincarnations, your hearts start to suffer from diseases, breaking the rhythm, and do not feel the common rhythm any more, you separate. But your hearts remember, remember, that there are happiness, joy and love. Love, which have never left you, it is always by your side, but you take no notice of it. It tries to move you, penetrating into your heart and your body, but you and your bodies have lost your vibrations, you feel love as pain in your organs, especially in your heart. You feel pain in your heart and think that this is a disease. Your organs prompt you what to notice, but you do not feel it. You go to the doctor, lie onto hospital bed and begin to feel sorry for yourselves. But if you, just for a moment, paid attention to the pain in your body, you would realize that it is the call of the God, Us and our love to you. We all try to talk to you, giving you information through your heart. And your diseases are not diseases at all. You extract your organs by surgical way, because the communication reached a deadlock, you and your body cannot perceive the energy of communication, energy of love, energy of the Father, our CREATOR.

You have lost this communication, and your body as well. And what happens then? You begin to cry, fear, fall ill and die. But if you heard for a moment Our voice, the voice of the love energy and the voice of our loving Father, and decided to change, change your family, change your planet, create your own space, learn how to feel, to know, catch the cosmic rhythm, what disease you are talking about. Our organisms will be subjected to the vivid, vivifying, burning but not harmful process. To your doctors` surprise you will not only get rid of your diseases but also grow the lost organs, and you will feel time here and now, you will never die in your physical bodies again. Hospitals will be empty and doctors will be unemployed. Think it over. You cannot just accept this information, but also use it properly. And if the eyes of people suffering from a disease or being about to be operated can begin to see, and soul with body feel, there will start motion in your organisms. You need just the energy of understanding to get rid of your disease and your organs, even at the verge of operation, got the initial state. And how doctors will be surprised? And what example will you provide, being in understanding and faith! Just understand that disease does not exist. This disease is invented by you and your perception of the spaces. The seven are proud of this invention. They know that if the information is closed and concealed from you, you will invent diseases and death. Death does not exist, there are also no diseases. We are surprised that you have not realized it yet. As soon as you stop pitying yourself. As soon as you take the responsibility of your life, of yourself, of your family, of your beloved family, to begin with. As soon as you start creating, feeling your own space, and through this space feel numerous spaces, then your bodies and yourselves will be changed. You are connected to everything existing, to the entire space, to all the spaces. And it means that you are starting to live. There is no death for you and for your body. The eternal life is beginning, which will never end! That is why your heart suffers from pain and fast heartbeat or heart insufficiency or heart failure. Your heart knows and feels freedom, the freedom of your choice. It knows that there is no death but there are happiness, joy, love, Our love, and love of our CREATOR, our loving Father. The organs of your bodies want to sense the spaces of the Universe instead of your thoughts about money, and the ways to earn them, or about someone who offended you, who is wealthier in the country and about the bad president and government, how young is the popular actress's new husband and that they are completely insane. You understand that the whole your soul wants to join life. The whole your soul wants from you Divine thoughts and meditations. Male or Female (with the capital letter) relation to each other and to the strangers, and to the Earth, to all the Universes and Galaxies, and to our loving Father.

◦ Do you understand it?

We want to note that you did not want to hear the truth from us. We represented it differently and by all the ways possible. But you! Perhaps it is high time to stop dying! Let us live!

So Atlantes lived here and now. Oh, what time it was for them, for the Earth, for the Universes, for the CREATOR, our loving Father. The Atlantes considered themselves God-humans; they felt their own space, the spaces of the other God-humans, the spaces of the Universes, Galaxies, star systems, and the space of your beloved and loving Father. They felt the entire Earth, They knew it, They felt the entire Universe and the Universes of the others. They felt, knew and behaved properly with our loving Father. It was not the civilization in the sense you are treating the Atlantes nowadays. It was the life of God-humans here and now. These were the people, who knew and loved the whole cosmos, all the stars, all the Universes. They loved each other, their families, and the families of the others, their land (about one hectare) and the Earth altogether. The Atlantes did not create machines or technical devices, they did not need them. Everything they wanted was to feel, to love and to be happy, and to make the whole planet Earth, the whole cosmos, star systems and the Universe happy. So that everyone could live in unison, in one rhythm, in one dance, if it is necessary, in one creative, vivid, light, all embracing project, which was creatively worked out and designed. So are the Atlantes, they are, because they are God-humans and never die. When the time came, They left with joy but with great regret for their beloved planet. They dissolved themselves and left for the other beloved world, to their own spaces. They loved every tiny insect on their Earth. They communicated with each other with great respect and love. They managed to oppose the seven with the force of their love.

Much time passed in the Earth chronology. The regions of Africa started growing according to the plans of the seven. The seven did their best to inhabit the regions of Africa with the people deprived of the information. These people started to die and entered the circle of illusion. These people were told that there is death, murders, famine, marauding, that they had to conquer and control the whole world, the whole planet. As before there were created clans. There were the rulers of the clans, and one of these was the chief. The chiefs used to gather together and discuss the plans of the seven. There were even confrontations of the seven. The seven used all the ways possible to reach their plans. They needed just a small number of people deprived of information to start the plan. Then people started settling, and spreading they created their own clans with their rulers. The continent of Africa was gradually settling by the clans of people who had lost the truth, but the truth was always near them. We have never left you. On the African continent, conquered by you, We tried to enclose you the truth, showing you the God-humans, their ability to feel the whole Earth, all the Universes. We came out to those who opened their hearts and took them with us. The seven were unable to prevent it. But they could tell you that We are non-humans, and We are to be killed, removed from the Earth. And you were listening to them and did not even object. You fulfilled their plans, trying to kill us. But We did not die even in our physical bodies. There is no death for us. We just disappeared, dissolving, and assembled ourselves in the other place, you called it witchcraft, magic. Magic and witchcraft which do not exist, as well as wasting diseases or incantations, which started to put their seeds in your soul. You were filled with death, diseases, incantations, spells and so on. But you, at least a bit, did you listen to your heart? If you did, you would understand everything and break the circle of illusion, which was about to be locked. Some regions of Africa were inhabited by people who were afraid of Us, they suffered from diseases, died, lost their happiness, joy, did not feel love, they were stuck in prejudices and deeds cunningly arranged by the seven. Thus, the first stone was thrown into the water, and the wave from this stone will flood the whole Earth not only with water but also with lava, burning lava, which will rise from under the Earth. For the first time burning lava will boil water and it will burn all the life on the Earth and near it. Atlantis, our favourite continent on the Earth, will go under water with all the hectares of the Earth, with its own space and with all the spaces. It went under water to come back again in proper time with its amazing energy (information) and fill the holes on the surface of the Earth, and then you will see and feel the spaces which connect you with the God, our loving Father, with all the God-humans, with all the Universes, and the seven are unable to add or to take anything. The continent of Atlantis is thoroughly guarded by Us, We will never let anybody to its territory. The people of Africa, gradually, as in other times, learned how to use iron, wheel, electricity, explosive devices more dangerous than today`s. They had flying ships which moved using magnetism instead of fuel. And gradually they began to move to the other regions of the Earth, conquering the lands, which belonged to the God-humans, devastating their lands, their gardens, killed their animals, and as they thought God-humans. But the God-humans could dissolve and then assemble themselves wherever they wanted, create their Galaxy, their own Universe. That is why they left their beloved Earth with pain in their hearts, pain about the Earth. Pain about you, their “children” with weapons and planes. Up to the end They were trying to explain and to show you the other life. Life filled with sense, happiness, joy, love, which is always beside you, and you do not notice this pleasant burning inside and outside you. Thus, little by little, you were conquering your land and the lands of other happy people. This “war” lasted for a long time; We cannot even call it war, as you were struggling against yourselves. We did not fight against you. We dissolved in the space and dissolved our worlds, some of Us left their lands to you to think over. Because the lands owned by the God-humans contained the space and were very beautiful. The God-humans hoped that you looking at the beauty of their lands, will be able to feel love in your heart. Love to everything existing. But you with all the coolness and beastly rage trampled down the Earth, burned everything, stubbed the trees if any left. Thus, little by little you were conquering your native Earth. We saw and understood, that this process is irreversible, that you will never stop, you do not listen to us, just to the seven, and you were moving around the Earth and conquering everything. And again, do you understand, as in the previous times, you refused happiness and love. Many of us left for our spaces on our planets, but some of us stayed with you. You conquered the whole Earth, but you did not manage to conquer the continent of Atlantis, you could not even step on its territory. We with our beloved Earth, in cocreation with the God, our loving Father, sank the continent with all the spaces of the God-people to the bottom of the Atlantic Ocean. All these spaces, energy and information were conserved. When the time comes, We with our beloved Earth, in cocreation with the God, our loving Father, will raise the continent of Atlantis to the surface, at the same place, We will deconserve it, open all the spaces on the continent under the amazing, light, beautiful name ATLANTIS. Then many of you will remember Atlantis, as they saw it in the distance, and had the burning, hypnotizing feeling in your bodies, your hearts were calling for you, but you did not hear them, did not feel. You have never stepped on the lands of Atlantis.

After the Earth had been conquered by you and by the seven, everything was decided for the fourth time. But you wanted to change the situation and the succession of events. You have to understand what is the meaning of life of the Earth, our beloved planet, all the animals on the Earth and the state of the unity as the space. We worked out the plan of building a cosmic house, which will be raised to the Space over the Earth, but the Earth could be seen from the windows, so that you could see the Earth and understand what you have done to it, to Us, to yourselves. We used you to accept the drafts of this house, the plan of assembling, materials, used for building. The seven did not believe or did not want to understand us, because they were in the euphoria of the events, they did not hinder Us as they were celebrating their victory. We sent you our knowledge about building of Space ships quickly and easily. It took us many years to build this Space house, about 15 or 25 years, time runs differently. And finally the Space house was built. It was like a big city and could contain about 1.5 million people. Many people did not understand what this house was built for. But We sent you the information about the flooding of the Earth, about the possible volcanic activity and it means that water could boil in some places. We have chosen the people who could take their place in this Space ship. These people were proposed money for the ticket to this ship. These tickets were terribly expensive, millions dollars, that is why only the elite got to the ship. All the other people stayed on the Earth.

Why is it so? You can ask.

We will try to explain it to you. Because the flood of the Earth and lava eruption were predetermined by your actions, the Earth vibration was lost, We tried to keep it as long as possible to fulfill our plan. The people, who were chosen for the Space house, had to feel and understand what was going on, realize and correct their thinking, provide the basis for the future population of the Earth. So that it never happened again, so that the seven could not capture you altogether, so that you could always have the way out from the circle of illusion, so that the flood of the Earth, our beloved planet, never happened. Those people, who could not feel, stayed on the Earth. Water covered all the continents, lava was everywhere. And again We greeted you, those who stayed on the Earth, and again We explained to you, showed you the other life, preparing you for the birth.

And now, for the first time in the history of the Earth and people, not all the people “died”: 1,5 million people survived, they had a fault in their mind and feelings. What fault was it? Many of you started to understand what had happened, that they are guilty of what had happened to the Earth, to God-humans, of the flooded, devastated spaces. At last people could see during their life what they had done. Of course there was vivid life on board the ship, sometimes stormy and very creative. People were thinking, projected their thoughts and their love to the Earth. They started to understand that humans must live on the Earth, their beloved planet, not in the Cosmos. Life in a couple of a man and a woman. Live on one`s own hectare of the Earth. Life which embraces all the spaces on the Earth and outside it. We also were with you on board the space ship and, of course, We helped you, conducted seminars with you, moving along the giant ship. All people in the ship had their work. They had to maintain the ship, repair, change the bordering. There were technical workers, engineers, builders, cooks, hair-dressers, chemists and so on. The ship needed permanent care. It was like a projection of the Earth. We designed it so that your Space house was like the Earth in miniature. Of course, without rivers, seas and oceans, but there were reservoirs, fountains, and even something like arboretums. The bordering of the ship in those places was transparent and there were planted trees, different bushes, gardens, vegetables, there were animals on board the ship. We chose the animals to maintain the balance of the energy on the ship. There was a park or something like a park where people and animals could meet and help each other. This help was as follows. It is difficult for a human to live without animals. There are various species of animals. Some of them are strong, some of them are wise, some of them produce food in the form of milk or meat. Strong animals helped about the ship, they carried the heavy loads. Wise animals communicated with humans, giving them the sense of love, feelings which enabled people to build their hectares on the Earth. They were thinking what animals to breed on their hectares and what they have to do. All in all, wise animals were all on board the ship, they were wise because they helped people, took care of them. They fed people. Everything in the ship resembled the Earth. There were even artificial rivers, flowing along the ship. There was its own microclimate in the ship. We took into account all the details of this climate, chose the materials for building of the Space house. It was a serious decision. It was the decision which will stay forever in your mind. You will understand and tell your descendants, what happened, why you were to leave the Earth, why the Earth was deserted, why there is sorrow and pain after the lost Earth (your loving planet) in your heart. It loves everyone so much, despite everything you have done. It loves everyone, as well as the CREATOR, our loving Father. That is why We created this house, in this global project, in which were involved you and We and even our loving Father. We wanted you to realize yourselves everything happening to you and to the Earth that this event reflects on all the spaces, all the Universes. And you, reading these lines, you were in this Space ship, you bear the print. And you are the keeper of the information which will prevent the seven from capturing you. You will know what it can lead to and you will never let it be repeated. You will be the first to leave the circle of illusion next time and now you will create your own spaces. You will take a hectare of the Earth, you will put there plats, choose the animals to help you, you will feel that your hectare is alive. You will feel every microorganism on your Earth. You will arrange a program, according to which each tiny bug, spider or ant, mole or bear will know what they are supposed to do on the Earth. And you will never kill these Divine creatures. Do you understand that our beloved CREATOR, our loving Father, invented these creatures in his fair dream to help you on your Earth? It is very easy: you, only you on your Earth are able to feel every corner of your (about) hectare of the Earth. Warm it with your inner light, inside you will feel everything living on the Earth. You can communicate with microorganisms and give them harmonic programs, and it is so nice, and this communication contains the essence, which you have lost, this golden thread of communication with everything existing, from the little insect in your garden to the Universe and Universes. Do you understand? You can even in your flats arrange your hectares of the Earth, plant and cultivate, settle and provide the program for the animals and microorganisms. Even in your flat you can feel and sense your Earth, which you own. As soon as you design your project, and start working with it, there will be just several days till they appear on the Earth. Do you understand? Your project is already beginning to live and you in your flats will little by little start feeling your animals, your spiders and bugs, flies and caterpillars, you will feel every single blade of grass and small insect, bear or snake, or hasty hare, or a family of wolves; they are your assistants and friends within your hectare. You are just learning to feel and understand them, it is not difficult. As soon as you plan your harmonic hectare, you will get the space, your beloved and loving space. It is your start, way out the circle of illusion, it is life. It is communication with everything existing. It is eternal life. This is understanding that death does not exist. This is life here and now, without growing old and diseases. This is happiness, joy and love. We have always tried to explain to you what We mean. This is the basis under your feet, and nobody can move you from it. This is the ticket to the eternal life here and now. These are the knowledge and energies, which the seven have always been trying to hide from you, to burn. Because they know that when you get this knowledge, you will be equal to them, and it means that there is no circle of illusion for you anymore.

It means that there is no death for you. You are transforming to God-humans and it is great!

And perhaps the seven will understand and calm down; they will realize that it is enough to go their way, which cannot make one happy, cheerful or loving. And they will join us; we create happiness, joy and love all over the immense multileveled Universe. We forgave them long ago and since then have never remembered any offences. We love them too, We wish them happiness, We wish them joy, We wish them love, so that love entered their hearts and lit them. Lit them with the light, which gives birth to the worlds. The light which makes one live and create with our beloved Father, our CREATOR. He, our Father, has also forgiven you and he is waiting for you to return to everything existing. You have heard us!

The Cosmic house existed for 80 Earth years, nobody died on board the ship during these years. People lived longer than now. Their bodies contained the memories of the eternal life, but their consciousness was unaware of this, so people could not live forever. Life of the person that time decreased to 400, 350 and to 180 years of life; 180 is the minimum age. We had to hurry up to return you to the Earth. We terminated your presence on the orbit around the Earth by 80 years. When this time was over the ship had to leave the orbit and fall down to the surface of the Earth with all the information which was collected in the ship. It happened so: when the time was over people learned and knew everything. We arranged the artificial famine on board the ship. People, living in their Cosmic house, realized that they cannot stay in the ship for a long time, that there was food only for 25 days. All the mechanisms, creating, cultivating food was out of order. People realized that there is just one way out – leaving for the Earth. We thought everything over in advance. In the Space house there were capsules, which could be used for going to the Earth. But it happened so that everything failed. There were the lands on the Earth prepared for the people from the Space house. Everything was thought thoroughly through but you again did not understand the initial plan and all the capsules lost their way and went to the Earth at random. Instead of successfully landing on the special territories, which by this time had the harmonic look thanks to Us and our God`s love, you fell all over the Earth: to the oceans, to the lands burnt with lava, to the places which were still hot; thus you drowned, burned, the rest were left without food, because the Earth did not bring any fruit and there were no animals yet. We had not brought the animals to the Earth yet, just to the prepared lands. We wanted you to clean after you on the Earth. We wanted you to fertilize the soils which were not fertile yet. We wanted you to breed animals and to spread them all over the Earth; we wanted you to do it yourselves. Do you understand? All this time We have been doing everything for you. We warmed the Earth, We brought animals, We fertilized soils all over the Earth. We practically revived the planet. Do you understand it? And this time we have just done the work on the special lands. You had to bring order and harmony to the rest of the Earth yourselves. But again, like small children you fell down and drowned, broke and burned on the Earth; instead of living and generating the mankind, almost all of you died. One capsule contained 6 to 8 people. Only people from 3 capsules survived. The first capsule successfully landed in the Tibet: on the border with Altay. The second one landed in Altai. And the third one on the territory of the Donbass region. Only people from the first two capsules managed to survive. People from the third one did not find the food and left the Earth. In the Himalayas the family of two people survived: a man and a woman, and the first branch of mankind originated there. In Altai a woman with children survived. They gave birth to the second branch which has existed by now.

The history of the origin of the 5th human race.

As you understand, now we will talk about the part of the history, in which personally you took part. Your participation gave start to the settling of people from Altai and all over the world, and the one which started in Himalayas and spread at first in the Eastern part of the Earth, and after that to all the continents. These two branches of one family caused the war but we will talk about it later on.

Altai is a beautiful place. Quickly flowing rivers, transparent lakes, high mountains seemed to cover the originating mankind, for which we created the space blessed by our loving and forgiving Father. We fertilized the soil, brought birds, animals, fish and with all our love and blessing gave all this to you, or rather to those of you, who survived. The woman with her three children, having left the capsule, was going farther and farther from it, leading her children deep into the heart of Altai. In the capsule there were five more people, but they did not understand what was going on, did not realize the sense of it and being panic stricken, struggling for their lives killed each other. But the woman, foreseeing all these events, was leading her children to the heart of the forest, rivers and picturesque mountains which greeted them happily. While going, she already knew and felt, that the chances to survive for the other capsules were minimum, and it meant that she, like Eve, who created the mankind with her love, had to revive the mankind with all her love, with all her attention, with the sense of hers and all the other spaces, feeling everything around and understanding everything. So in the picturesque places of Altai, Eve gave birth to the 5th mankind, which began to grow and spread from the forests, rivers and mountains of Altai to the South East and then to the West and then all over the world. With her own example Eve was showing how to create spaces on the Earth, how to feel the Earth, how to feel the Universe, Universes. How to live in a couple and treat each other, how to treat every single blade of grass, every small insect on your Earth. She was conducting a great, creative and inspiring work with people. Like Atlantes these people took (about) one hectare of land and created their spaces. Having created their spaces, these people joined the universal rhythm. All the God-humans feel this rhythm. This rhythm beats in their hearts, sounds in every cell of their bodies. Rhythm, which washes your soul with eternal pleasant light. Light, which can create new worlds. These God-humans felt the light radiating by their hearts. They felt animals not only on their land but also the other animals which lived not with people within their lands but on the territory of Altai, and were waiting for their owners to create or rather to assist people in creating their dream. The God-humans felt the rivers and could communicate with them. Being far from the river they could put their hand into its waters, feel the rhythm, the mood and sense the very soul of the river. The God-humans gave names to the rivers, in accordance with the rhythm, in unison with the Universe. The God-humans seemed to hear the river wishes how it must be called. The same was with the mountains and lakes. People came to life with a great desire to create their own spaces and the space for their families, the space with everything existing. Eve dealt easily with growing mankind. People were quick to learn, caught the sense of the plan, provided by the God, our beloved Father, loving and forgiving. They took their land, about one hectare, and created the space within their land. This space gave them the life of the eternal now. This space was filled with happiness, joy and great love. It was so easy and simple. It is easy to create creatively and cocreatively with our beloved Father. It is so easy. It simple to live forever. It is easy to love and be happy. It is easy to be healthy and never die. It is easy to live always here and now. It is easy to feel our Father and understand his thought. It is so easy and broad and, spacy, that you, being in your physical body, can embrace everything eternal. This body was created and designed by the CREATOR, our loving Father. This body exists forever as well as your soul never suffering from diseases or aging. You are capable of arranging and giving a program to your body, what should it look like, what colour should be your hair, and even how many wrinkles there are on your face. You, only you can control your body. This body must be connected to everything existing. This body knows and feels the program, the initial program of our CREATOR, loving Father. And in this case there is no sense to talk about death, it does not exist. And if it is so, you do not have to die in your physical bodies! It happens because of the lack of information. But as soon as you acquire the information and get to work with all your love, all your creativity, all your inspiration, all the light in your souls, everything will be changed, you will be connected to all the spaces and inside you feel these spaces moving, rotating, shining, dancing and rejoicing. You start to feel here and now, you do not know death, you are turning into the God-human.

It is so simple. Do you understand it? As soon as you get the information, and you not only know it but start moving with it, use it and wish to change yourselves as the caterpillar turns into a butterfly, then changes will happen to all of you. You will start to radiate light, you will start to radiate the spaces, cosmos, star systems, planets, the Universe, everything, do you understand, will be shining inside you with wonderful light. Light which will attract people to you. These people were stuck in the illusion of reincarnations, and these people looking at you, will get all the information, you will pull these people without even talking to them. We always communicate with you in such a way, you cannot see us, but still here is the information, and you can always get it. And if you can use it you can leave the circle of illusion.

Another branch of mankind, in Tibet, the Himalayas, which was started by the man (you know him like Hitler, who started the war but We do not blame him, We love all of you, he just felt his family, he was creating on the Earth, he was gathering the initial family of Aryan, as he used to say, he felt in his soul that he was the founder of the 5th mankind, but he forgot about love, joy and happiness) and a woman. They did not know about the other branch of mankind. Trying to feel and remember what was there in the Space house: how they wanted to create their spaces, their love, their life on the Earth, how they imagined the pictures of their future hectare of land, there were changes in their hearts, they started to feel spaces and time, these feelings had to be brought to the Earth. That is why the man, doing his best trying to remember, think, create, made a mistake. His mistake was in concealing the information. He thought like this: everything must be started from the scratch and the new generation must not know who they have been before, in the time of Atlantis they did not feel the God, they did not feel the Earth, they spoiled it, trying to drive us away from the Earth. That is why he concealed these facts and started everything from the scratch. But this caused the transformation of information, people needed this information, and not only this, but all the history of the mankind. But he decided so and it was his mistake. These people started to die, they could not feel their space; thus human`s life decreased to 160 years, and then even less. But Altai became the place similar to Atlantis, and all the information was there. People knew all the history, all the information and created their spaces, they spread their lands. Soil and surrounding lands became harmonic and those lands which were burnt with lava turned to be beautiful and harmonic. They created taiga Siberian woods. They tried to balance the Earth, enhancing the frequency of the Earth with their love and beauty, they created.

Thus, little by little, people fertilized their beloved planet. These two branches of the mankind started to spread over the Earth. The first branch originated from Eve and her children, and the second one from the man and the woman starting their family in the Himalayas. We were worried about the situation. On the one hand, Eve and her children in Altai created a harmonic family; on the other hand, in the Himalayas people did not manage to use the information properly. The man and the woman were trying to do their best, but they did not understand that having concealed the information they led their children from the truth. And then the sense of the space was not complete, and if the sense and information are not complete, illusion appears again. We were trying to help the family from the Himalayas, showing them the truth but they did not change their mind. Only from the scratch, from the scratch the mankind must be started. They decided so. We did not understand their views, but We knew what can be the result, and how it influenced the history of the mankind. Bu they did not. But We could nor rudely interfere, We never impose the truth, We have just told you how and what you should pay attention to, so that your life were happy, cheerful and full of love. There must be love between a man and a woman and between everything existing. But in all the times those people, who perceived the truth, started to feel and broke the circle of illusion, but those who did not, stayed within the circle of reincarnations. And this is a result. We have the division of races or branches. The Altai branch arranged the harmony on the Earth, and the Himalayan one little by little entered the circle of illusion. The seven, doing almost nothing, saw the possible plan, which they liked. And our plan with the Space house became dubious. We could not know that those people who had been chosen would be born with the truth in their souls, by all means they will try to reach the truth, and they will come nearer with every life. And the seven cannot entirely put then into the circle of illusion. And they will never let the story of Atlantis to repeat. You, reading these lines, you cannot let it happen, you can understand it now, and the only thing left is just to start, doing your best and nobody will be able to stop you, you will live here and now. What does it mean for you?

It means that you will free the circle of illusion of the prejudices, lies and easy money. You will start giving away. Giving away yourself, your light, your love, to everything existing, and at last you will be seen.

Of the small grain you will be turned into the Universe, into everything existing. Can you imagine how great you are?

Thus, life by life you gathered everything together. We knew it would be like this, you would not be able to catch , understand and feel all the information, you will need lives for this, and We knew when it can happen, We told you about this time and you know when the Golden Age for the entire Earth comes. This time has already started for you and now you can understand and digest all the information. You will accept it you will be the first to leave the circle of illusion. Jesus said that He prepared the place for you in Heaven. And We can add that this Heaven has its density. You heard: “on Earth as it is in heaven”. And We can say: can it be different. For you the Heaven is something unattainable and unreal. Bu We can tell you that the Heaven does not change from your (and our) planet. This is the same as your planet, and the Solar system with all the stars. There are certain differences, but they are not in the material itself, but in the spirit of everyone creating with the CREATOR, our beloved Father. Do you understand it?

If you do not, We can provide you with the other example. In all the religions there is the Holy Spirit, the heaven, PARADISE on the Earth. They are real but only We can see the full meaning of these words, because We have all the information. Taking the information in the form of energy you can fill in the gaps in your body and soul, or the caves, forming vicious circle within your body. When this vicious circle is compressed, you think straight forwardly, using only what you can see, without any sensations or visions; these words “visions and sensations” seem strange to you. But when the circle is open, the cycle is stretched both sides and all the lines going in all directions, are endless and unlimited and then you can think in Universal dimensions, and everything is clear. So We provide the full information and energy to fill in the gaps in your bodies and open the circle, then you will be able to hear and see us. You will see our light, full of sense, free, cheerful, consonant with all the rhythms, multileveled Worlds, which are as real as your planet is, We also have physical bodies, and We live in our bodies on our planets, in our star systems and in our Universes. We have our families, our branches of family, our hectares of land; on our planets everything is the same as on yours, as Atlantes showed you on the Earth. We are the same as you are. And all the same you will be interested in the difference. And We will tell you in our turn that We are happier than you are, We are more cheerful, We feel love in full and can express it to everything We look at, to everything We think of. We do not suffer from diseases, We never die, We are living here and now and We will live like this forever. We create our personal projects, which are unique, they cannot be compared to yours in creativity and sensations. They fill your body and give you such powerful ecstasy, that you cannot express it in words, you can just live it. We also create universal projects, between two, three or hundreds of Universes. We have already told you that We are always engaged in the creative, free and cocreative work, We feel each other in different corners of the Universes, irrespective of the distance of millions and billions years, We feel each other immediately, We know and understand each other, we can send holograms containing information to each other, We do not need television. We watch or look through the holograms, just looking into the space, without hard thinking. We can travel to each other when We are invited, and We do not need space ships for it. We just dissolve, and our families dissolve, and then gather in the certain place on the chosen planet, even in the other corner of the Universe or Universes. We are always tactful communicating with each other, our souls are light. We feel the CREATOR, our loving and beloved Father, We also communicate with him very tactfully and everyone has his personal time. We can feel when this time is near. Because He has immensely much to do, and We do our best to help him, although He, so to say, loves all of us. He does his work himself but We try to foresee and help him in his work at our choice.

But not all of Us know that the visible Universe was created by the CREATOR, our loving Father, and that the Earth was the first inhabited planet, the start for every life on the Earth. The human race originates from Adam and Eve, the first creations of our beloved Father. Adam is the first man in the Universe to step onto the Earth, and Eve is the first woman. Eve, like mother, feels and knows everything, she worries about the Earth, about the mankind on the Earth, and she is always engaged in work on the Earth. During millions and hundred millions years only she has cared for you, but when you drive her into the corner with your misunderstanding, your cruelty, your disgusting behavior towards her, she cannot bear it any more, she leaves, dissolving her body and assembling herself in her own body, which has been waiting for her on her beautiful, feminine planet called Zelushta. And you eagerly look for it, feeling lone and desperate, but you could never find it, if She left you. But having refreshed her energy, she has always rushed to help you. She was born to the Earth again, gathered all the information for you, tried to give it to you and loved you so much. She knows that no one can avoid happiness. That every human, dead or alive, who will come to life will be happy, cheerful and embraced with love. And everyone will live here and now.

The events which happened on the Earth after that went two-way, on the one hand there were the Himalayas, on the other hand Altay. Altay created harmony and love. Love which you can feel by this time. People who were living and creating their spaces, created harmony which spread all over the Mother Earth. The Earth has always felt her children. We can tell you about those people who created the harmony but it is the other case. By this information We take you from the circle of illusion and death, but you have to understand the sense of what we told you, feel with the whole your soul, your body, each cell of your organisms. There is a little sense in simple reading of the material, you will progress when you start feeling, reviving, loving, and feeling every moment of life. Real life, which is not just existing any more. Life, which radiates light. Light, which fills every corner of the Universe. The Universe, which recognizes you now; it is waiting for your actions, creative actions, multi leveled actions. Actions which make everything move. This motion creates the rhythm. This rhythm joins the basic rhythm of all the rhythms. We call this life. Do you understand it? It is life, not just existence.

After that the history has been unfolding in the following way. These two branches were growing. The Altay branch was creating and cocreating with our loving Father, and the people of Himalayas became consumers, and later on, they became invaders and destructors of the God-humans and their lands. Thus, one people created, rejoiced, loved, lived in happiness, and the other were looking for the truth: but where is it? They could not find the truth whereas it has always been nearby, you just had to take God-humans as an example, they demonstrated it with their actions, with all their soul: look and follow Us. Create your own hectares, create your own spaces, become immortal, live full life, creating and cocreating, loving everything existing. It is so simple! But you chose the wrong way, rough, uneven, unclear long way and move in circles. «You die» (so called – you can see your physical body, but you stay alive in your thin bodies, which We designed especially for you), and then you come to life again, without remembering who you really are, why you are here, without remembering your former lives, or how many lives you lived before dying. You do not remember Us, how we greeted you in the other side. This other side is also our creation, you have to exist somewhere in your thin bodies. The bodies keeping you from going out (keeping your souls) all over the Universe, all the Universes. We greet you in these places, explain everything to you, demonstrate you the endless of life, and immortality of your bodies. We show you that the Universe lives in the multitude of all its planets, and there are people on all these planets. They are similar to you but these people do not grow old and die in their physical bodies. We explain how to reach this state, and tell you that only in your physical bodies on the Earth, living and creating your space, at first in your thoughts, and then you will feel this space within your body. Via this space you will feel not only the Earth and people, living on it, nature, animals, birds, fish, but also the entire Universe, all the Universes and our loving and beloved Father. You are born again and We expect motion from you. We hope that you remember everything, but after your birth you forgot everything. You do not remember even about your reincarnation. You created fantastic tales about monkeys, that life originated from water. Your tales say about the transformation of the mollusk into a monkey and all of a sudden this monkey turned into a human. It must be comfortable to think like that. We are not sure. We just realize that you cannot hear us. You prefer to live without thinking. Let it be as it is. But what will it be like? It will never happen without Us. Just think about it, it is very important.

And then the story repeated again: you began to drive away the God-humans and their beautiful lands, so different from yours; you did not understand them, did not follow their example, you “killed” them. The last God-humans, living on the Earth, knew, felt what was going to happen, if they left the Earth. There will be no knowledge, no examples and wisdom. How could you get the knowledge or examples? But We designed the Dolmens with our loving Father. They are situated almost all over the World. You can see them in Afghanistan, in the Crimea, on the coast of the Black Sea, in the Caucasus, (Gelendgik, Sochi, Adler), in the West of Ukraine, in Europe, in the Himalayas, in America and Africa.

The God-humans who knew what was going on, went to the Dolmens. The Dolmens were built of hard type of black stone. They were built by the God-humans and our loving Father. God-humans were cocreating with him. Everything, up to the tiniest details, was taken into account. There was a special microcosm or many spaces within a dolmen. These spaces were created by a human in cocreation with our loving Father. Within a dolmen there was connection with everything existing and forthcoming. The God-human, going to dolmen, stayed there forever, his soul was always within the dolmen and never went far from it. In a dolmen all the information was with a human – it is a sacred place and We respect those people, who knew what they were doing. But you did not feel the places of energy any more, you did not feel the information, you destroyed almost all the dolmens in the world and only two dolmens were left untouched. You stole the dolmen stones, although you could do without them. But the God-humans are waiting for you. Souls of the God-humans stayed in a deserted place. You stole the stones from dolmens, leaving just a deserted place. But the souls of the God-humans have not left, they are waiting for you in these places, and they have always been waiting for you there to give you their knowledge, to make you happy, cheerful and loving. The God-humans in dolmens are very loving souls, they have been treating you with great love and great respect in all the times. There must be motion, you have to feel the energy, feel Us. Then the motion will be successful and you will be able to take the God-humans out of the dolmens in their physical bodies. Do you understand it? You do not have to take photos near dolmens or get into the dolmen, but you have to approach the dolmen, greet its inhabitants with love and respect, feel the individual dialogue within you. Some of you will feel thoughts, as if they were yours, but these thoughts will bring the information unusual for you. The others will feel the motion, as if the air compressed, and some of you will feel warmth throughout the body. Keep this warmth, increase this warmth, and the information will come out through this warmth. Start to create instead of destructing. Start to feel Us and our information, Our love to you. Thus, We, in cocreation with the God-humans and our loving Father, conserved this energy (information) for you within dolmens.

We knew that you would destroy everything and drive the God-humans from the Earth, because it has always happened.

We knew that there would be wars between you and the whole countries of people would die in these wars.

We knew that you would always look for the truth, the other life, happier and more beautiful.

We knew that all the people from the Space house would be born to the Earth, and they would be filled with information, which would move them. These people must prevent the Earth from this disaster, when the Earth is left deserted. They will scream inside, they know what scream this is. They saw flooded Earth. They knew that all the people on the Earth died. They understood that only they were guilty of this. Over the Earth in their Space house they thought everything over and realized. They realized that the sense of life is different, it is not in wars, pride, argues or death. They saw how Atlantes had lived. They saw and knew the other life and now they realized it. We provided the basis for this understanding. Do you understand it? You thought it over and understood everything in the Space house. You, being born, know it inside you. That is why you decided to change and We can see all of you, We know that you will be the first to bring changes. The global changes. The whole world will see these changes. And We hope it will happen during your life. You will increase the average life to 100 years and more. You will start the process, the result of which will be factual immortality of a human in his physical body. And you are living on the Earth at the moment and feel uneasy. We know that this is your heart, it moves you, it talks to you, and gives you information. It remembers Atlantis. Your heart knows the God-humans, who lived and cocreated with our Father. Your heart knows that Atlantis can be back, and with Atlantis you can get back this wonderful light energy, which will embrace the whole world, the entire Earth, all of you. It will kiss you. It knows that when it happens, times of Atlantis, life and information of the God-humans, all the energy will join your energy and with the energy of Altay; this great unity will cause the connection, the greatest connection of all the times and all the cycles in the history of the Earth, in your history and in Ours. And then there will be no obstacles, We hope, you understand it, all the information will be restored, you will see and feel with your soul, that everything is open, all the directions, it will happen in the nearest future. You will be able to see, feel and understand all this. We are living in wonderful time. This time will finish the circle of illusion and reincarnation. You can feel all the events, new energy (information) with your body and your soul. This is the first time in the long history of the Earth and mankind that people will transform into the God-humans without leaving the Earth. They will never die in their physical bodies. Just one per cent of the inhabitants of the Earth must step forward, and they will find themselves in such a state in which there is neither death, nor illusion, there is happiness, joy and love. The life of the mankind will increase to 600 years. Do you understand it? And if there are 5 per cent, then you will be able, creating your own spaces within your lands, transform your life in your physical bodies to the immortal state. You will become God-humans and you will be able to create your own light, unique, incredibly beautiful Universes. And We will rejoice for you. Do you understand it? Just five per cent. And We are happy about it. You, living on the Earth in your physical bodies, for the first time in the history of the Earth are able to create, to feel, to love and use your knowledge, your feelings, your love, your senses, creating your own spaces. You will be able to bring yourself, your family, people of the Earth, and the Earth itself the state of unity of all the Universes, our CREATOR, our loving and beloved Father and everything existing. Your life already exists here and now. Your body (soul) will feel the rhythm, the motion of the Universes, all the full and never ending, but permanently stretching energy of the spaces, and you will become the part of this indivisible unity of everything existing.

And We know that you can do it now. You just have to do the first step to the light, happy and spreading motion, which will shine in the rays of love.

We are doing our best to provide you with all the necessary information, so that you could make your choice. This choice will fill the whole Earth, all the Universes with your unique light.

You can reconstruct yourselves the history of the fifth settling of the Earth.

We provided you with the preliminary facts about two branches of the human race and you should understand the fact that the division of the mankind or misunderstanding of the Himalayan family happened because of closing of information by the forefathers of the families, but We have never blamed people, as well as the God, our Father. We love all of you as well as our loving and beloved Father. And all the events happening to you, are filled with our love and our Father`s love. And the story repeated again: all the God-humans were driven away from the Earth, and you did not have examples any more. That is why the God-humans came to show you, what the human is capable of. Heracles came, but you did not understand him and called him hermit or even inhuman. Hercules came, and you at once decide that he is not understandable and unclear, and claimed his force as supernatural, but he was trying to explain to you that you are equal to him. All the twelve Gods (children) came to you, but you did not understand them, because you did not have the initial information and you did not want to understand anything. Moses came with his mission to abolish the Egyptian Kingdom, but you, travelling with him around the desert did not understand him.

Jesus came to you with his mission to make you understand, that you are like Gods, you are the particle of the eternal unity, that the God, the CREATOR, our loving Father, loves all of you. He wanted to make you understand who you are and what you are capable of. He explained to you that he is like you, he is also a human, he showed you the miracles of cocreation of the human with the God, our loving Father. He said that you also can cocreate with the CREATOR, our loving Father.

But you did not want to understand him. He wanted you to understand him and created a God-human inside you. But you crucified him. He left you for his planet that is he ascended. He enclosed the way for you, the PARADISE for you, your place in heaven. But you did not want to understand even this. It was the invitation to his favourite planet called Golosta in the constellation under the majestic name Proskaypervashly. Then We were trying to talk to you and give you the information through your temples, fairy-tales, folk songs, musicians, philosophers, ordinary people, choirs, musical compositions, verses and books; but We did not see any enthusiasm. We do not blame you, We love you so much. That is why We are always with you.

But now you can realize and understand everything We and the God, our loving and beloved Father used to tell you.

It is high time to get rid of suffering, sorrow, drama in your life. You do not have to die and shed tears.

Your tears do not disappear, We gathered them and put them on the territory of Altai. You can ask what We have done it for? We can answer: to create the balance to your grief. Altai contains the energy of origin, the energy of love, the energy of the God-humans, the energy of joy, happiness. In the nearest future Altai, or rather the energy of Altai, will be united with the energy of Atlantis. What does it mean? We told you that your tears form the Lake Baikal. Our beloved Father did not create it. We and you created it in the act of cocreation. When you realize and understand everything, become happy, cheerful and start living in love, The lake Baikal will dry. You will work out the energy of tears.

And now look at your future and the future of the Earth:

The future of the Earth and the human race!

∞ The Earth is a very harmonic, beautiful, feminine, coquettish planet, which sets the mood and fashion for all the Universes. She is so beautiful with her forests, plains, rivers, seas and oceans, with your hectares of land which create the plot of the play which is called happiness.

And here on the edge of the wood a hare is sitting, it can see the human, passing by, but it is not running away, it lays his ears in a friendly way, and is waiting for your approval for its work. Birds, flying over your lands, are doing different, very complex but beautiful aerial stunts, and attracting your attention. Grass berries, and wind, which moves everything, agreed with each other to please you with the unique rhythm. And the trees are trying to join this rhythm, they want your attention, they ask you to approach. And here are the beetles-workers, have come out of their holes and are waiting for your order. They have already done their work. Mosquitoes, flying around you, catching eagerly you look, are going to the certain place on your Earth to create harmony and unique atmosphere. And here is a bear, it is trying to escape in a game the 3 year old girl and the 5year old boy, pretending to be weak and miserable. It makes children laugh, they are laughing aloud and play with the bear. In the distance there is a gracefully feminine beautiful girl, the mother of these two children. She is looking into the distance, as if she were looking for somebody. Two days ago the young eagle left, she had cured it. She knows that it will be back. And looking into the distance she feels it with all her body, with her soul. She knows where it is. The eagle, doing his best is flying towards the girl. It has been flying for two days and now it is sure in his forces. To show it, it is beginning to rise higher and higher in the air, and then down all of a sudden. The girl was standing and peering at the distance, feeling the eagle eagle, and worrying for it a bit: «Why, why, do not do it, I know that you are strong and brave». But the eagle flew briskly towards the Earth. It was about to break but at the very surface of the Earth it suddenly turned and flew two meters over the surface of the Earth, it landed carefully at the girl`s feet and bowed her politely in gratitude. Then without waiting for approval, quickly went to the edge of the Earth. There lived the family of four God-humans and the eagle knows now that it wants to stay on this wonderful land. Because the eagle felt the girl. It felt her invitation to stay.

And the children drove the bear into the corner, and the animal pretending to be exhausted, tired and weak, fell down its paws up and delighted the children. The girl, looking at this game, clapped on her right leg and stretched her hand towards the bear. The bear, carefully went round the children and rushed to the girl, it ran to her and demonstrating guilt with all its appearance, laid its head onto its paws. The girl approached it. She said laughing to the bear, laughing and caressing its head and fur:

– Why, bear, you are making yourself so weak? Look, children are laughing.

The bear rose to its back paws and bellowed, showing its force.

– Well,– the girl said,– good boy, run, help your wife, she cannot cope with the children.

Leaning on the cedar, the girl was looking at the bear running away, the children laughing, the birds flying, the Earth living with all its flora and fauna in harmony with a human. She was standing, the young Goddess, looking at all this. She did not just look, she felt her Earth, her animals, her insects and microorganisms with every cell of her body. She was happy. These thoughts warmed her and this heat embraced her soul. The girl looked up in the sky and said aloud:

– Thank you, Universes, and you, people, living in your Universes, on your planets, thank you all.

– Thank you, our Father and CREATOR.

– I am so appreciated to all of you and I want to present you with the light of my soul, every living-being in each Universe and you, CREATOR, our loving Father.

– I am standing on my Earth and I know that You have created everything for us. I thank you for your creation. Let me bow and thank you from all the people of the Earth, and give You the part of our soul. We want to give it to You, who were with us and helped us in all the times on the Earth. Thank you all, thank you.

– Thank you, our loving Father, You have always forgiven and understood us. We are appreciated to You, who have been in all the times, thank you for the light. Thank you for happiness. Thank you for love. Thank you for eternal now!!!

The girl was saying it, holding her hand on her heart. Her eyes were radiating light. There was the reflection of everything existing in her eyes, the entire Universe and all the inhabitants of the Universes, the reflection of our Father, CREATOR, who loves us and we love him.

The girl, bowing low, gracefully approached her beloved man, embraced his neck and whispered in his ear: «I am so happy».
