Preface.

Who among the men can say just now that he is a real man?

I think, no one can do it, because you hardly even know what kind of a man he must be indeed.

You just consider yourself to be real men, but in reality there are restrictions of yourselves. You have chosen the most comfortable positions in your life and families. You shield and turn around everything you don't accept and things that go beyond the scope of your perception. And this just reveals children in you. When will you grow up and find yourself, find the mail core in yourself ...?

You should ask us for advice: how to find yourself and find the real man in you. How did you lose yourself ? What should you undertake to reveal yourself ?

In this book We answer the following questions, but our answer will evoke double sensation and give a powerful incentive to finding yourself. In particular, this concerns the men that do not exist.

Please, show sympathetic understanding of the stated information, because this is Your Reality!!!

What we the Men are like...

...A man! What must he be like? For instance, we can imagine the image of a woman because it is kept in every woman, in films, in fairy-tales and in legends but nobody on the Earth knows what a man must be like. Many legends and stories represent only fragmentary idea of real men, but We haven't seen men of full value for ages. There is only a half man or a quarter man. But where can we find a man of full value? This is the question. We'll try to highlight the image of a real man in this book, but the readers must feel the highlighted image inside themselves. Only this can extract it outside.

So, It happened that there is a woman but there is no a man on the Earth so far. Being deep in thought I suddenly felt trembling of my body, and then - a vision, in which a man standing on his planet is smiling to me. Calmness, aspiration and Love live in his smile. Now I understand the women's expression "To the end of the earth with him ...". This is so indeed, because looking at Him I want to be the same . His eyes reflect all the Universe. There is joy in them and ... Oh, if only you could feel what I am feeling now. There is fearlessness in his eyes, not aggressiveness but Love in fearlessness. He is calling me somewhere, motioning me to follow him. We are going together, I am behind him. You know, I am shadowing because we have lost our core. It was Everything in us. We, the men, have lost feelings and perceptions of the mail core.

What must we be like, men?

If we look now at all men with understanding and learning gets out the fact that all men are not men in the least. They behave like children and amuse themselves. These amusements may have peaceful nature. Time after time boys fight a mimic battle. Having fought long enough, boys move to another toy... and so on in exclusive circle. This creates an impression that it's advantageous for someone to see them children but not men.

Who is to profit from it?

It doesn't matter now, because the priests, who turned it over, or rather, overthrew, having made substitution, are asleep too.

Here we have come. Arktran is the name of a man, whom I was following. He is motioning me to sit. I am looking at him with interest and he is tapping me on the shoulder with a smile, saying that men of the Earth will soon awake. And this is happening now. "You see, Sergey", - he says, - "so many people find themselves. Many non-existent centuries have passed for them asleep, but HERE and NOW they are awaking so that to live easy, to live it up without measure. Only one woman on the Earth is not sleeping for now. She lives and shows her worth in general project. But why is She the only one if there are 12 God-people, organizers of the project, and you are one of them. Recollect the daughter of God, who says about 5 wakeful God-people, that are ruling, or rather, directing all the Universes and Galaxies to eternal beauty and creation. So I am just the one of them and my name is Arktran. There are five of us, multidimensional God-people in all Galaxies and Universes. We can think in all endless and eternally extending volume. Only 5 of us. But we want us to be a lot more. It is necessary to understand why We are revealing our multidimensional names to you and others. Because you and the others (NOW they know whom we mean) – are awaking, and this is the happiest fact. And when you wake up, the Golosshpervashli Galaxy has never known such multidimensional power. And you were the first to CoCreate our visible Universe. It was so wonderful and beautiful, so to be honest, I am sorry for you a bit, just a little bit, because you volunteered to this CoCreation, in which you are being NOW. Zeranta says, that readers will be perplexed, because multidimension reveals more and more in every Our book. But there is nothing to be done – the Pace was set and NOW everyone must keep up with it. I understand you, Sergey, you are longing to describe the image of a real man and to show your worth as a real man, but I want to put it right, because you are still sleeping, even though, awaking. You must reveal your own image of a man but not the captured one.

Do you understand, what I am talking about?

You must show your worth as a real man. And when it happens, then ... NOW let`s consider Zar, as an example. But it`s necessary to warn you that Zar will differ from adopted notions. Look: here he is running on his Velenokgrozdia planet, we are under the impression that all the Universes are running with Zar. You feel like his hands are stretching something invisible but very important on all Universes. And there is some sort of a gently perceptible, but very important sense in it. That`s about the size of it, because Zar doesn`t do anything for no particular reason. And even in this multidimensional extending he is CoCreating his project. In his three-dimensional running he extends all the Universes. What for to extend the Universes? You see, the first children of Adam and Eve accepted all complete, eternally extending energy of information, but it so happened that not all children are able to feel the light of multidimensional Love of our beloved Father. That`s why Zar was setting his personal Rhythm of all Rhythms in his multidimensional running. And this Rhythm was extending and extending on all Universes and Galaxies. Though people in these Universes and Galaxies, accepting Zar`s Rhythm, were following their extension. But for Zeranta and other God-men, the movement should have stopped at all. We never sleep and are not going to sleep, because we feel and know multidimensional Light of our Mother and the volume of our beloved Father. In our bodies We feel Power, extending us, and in this multidimensional volume We create extensions for other God-men. This process is endless and it will be so. You, Sergey, wanted to write down the images of real men for them to awake and recollect themselves. But I remind you of the following: Zar, remember your actions, when you wanted to give the energy of information to all people of the Earth. Did you write it down? No, you didn`t. How did you give it?

So, recollect...

Yes, you spent your life and wanted to share this experience with others. Do you understand now that it is multidimensionally. But to write down images for people to read ..., there is no multidimensional meaning in it. They just read – that`s all they can do. But when you spend your life with others, and what is more showing your example, this is called recollection of yourself. And this recollection, or rather, accumulation of God, involves all people living on the Earth and outside. Thereby We offer to all inhabitants of the Earth to recollect and collect themselves. It`s not easy or it may be easy. You are to decide for yourself. And here we have: you know that a spark of the Universes and Galaxies is highlighted in every cell of your body. You also know that all your incarnations will never disappear. Thereby We want to set you on to understand yourself as a God-man. You see, a GREAT IMAGE is hidden in this simple word God-man. This IMAGE was created by the MAKER. When the LORD was creating Adam, he wanted to see him much more extensional than He was himself.

Do you understand what We mean?

All people are built up multidimensionally, but they have such an unthinkable potential that even the Father has no idea about it. Why He, Omnipresent, has no idea about a man?

We mean the man`s abilities.

This is because He didn`t Create any restrictions in you, He Created you multidimensional and extensional, as He was himself. But there is one correction: He Created for you more, than for Himself. And now look at all mankind of the Earth as an example.

Who can you see?

The men, that don`t understand, who they are, what they are capable of, and even don`t think about their potential.

– But why does it happen?

« Because not all people want to accept multidimensionality as the first 12 children of Adam and Eve. They would accept it, but simply didn't want to do it, or because they were lazy, or for other reasons. In all Universes and Galaxies not all people accepted multivariate multidimensionality and the volume of our beloved Father. And it's not a secret. But in Our Creating Space the inhabitants of the Earth didn't accept the multidimensional extension and the volume more than others. This one-dimensional attitude of the Earth inhabitants to everything primitively makes disbalance in Our Creating Space. But our Creating Space has no completeness or restrictions. The Earth inhabitants have no idea that they harm not only themselves but also surrounding multidimensional Spaces of the Univeses and Galaxies. Zar was the first, who saw the future illusion and something that brought time limits into men`s lives(who had given up the multidimension of Love). In his CoCreation Zar made a project, which must purify the Earth inhabitants, recycle all mud and dusk. This project has no limits and it includes all multidimensional ways in and ways out. And this is an Enormous project to measures of the Universes. But carrying it out, Zar fell asleep, that brought many troubles to Us. Men would completely lose themselves if they were let take their course and not be awoken. At best, there would remain only legs with one eye and not in all men. Many of them wouldn't exist at all. May be laziness is hanging over them. We don't know and it isn't everything we are interested in. We Love every man of the Earth and not only the inhabitants of the Earth. That`s why we wake them up, shaking all the men, Loving and sacrificing ourselves. And the time has come in all untimeliness, when we establish the Love eternaty and extension portal in all display of scope and in the one that will display. NOW many people, who want their personal extension will find themselves in all multidimensional Space. Your Spaces are open and waiting for you, dear, come out quicker into Joy, Happiness and Love, feel the infinitely extending the volume of Our Beloved and Loving Father. People, your exit depends only on you, We'll help you, when we see your aspiration. Oh, if only you were given senses of yourself, of an entire God-man. Feel and perceive, our dear. If to look at many people and think, what will be the difference between them..., there will be a sensation that your difference is just in feelings.

Feelings – is the main tool, which will help you to find extension. By way of feelings the mankind will recollect themselves: the complete God Creator. Only through feelings, perceiving, remember how Love in your hearts burnt the breath. How you lived your Projects multidimensionally, just lived, but didn't read them off; How someone lived his own. If NOW to look at people, you'll pay attention, that, against will, many people relive that others have already lived. Then, all mankind lives again the rests of other lives, it is darkness and hopelessness. The MAKER created a free man. HE provided, or rather, indicated his individuality. It means that, every man differs from others. But if it is so, why do you relive that was imposed on you, considering it a real life. Standarts of the so called "life" were created and you follow them blindly. Yet has anyone imposed these standarts on you? Have you ever thought about it?

But what for?

Only to overlook others. The men, who created it, had only one desire: overlook other Earth inhabitants. But they thought restrictedly, that's why they were caught in their own nets.

Enough sleeping!!! People, Wake up!!!

It's enough to relive standarts, which were imposed on you! Free yourself from the nets and recollect feelings and senses you possessed. When memories of LIVING LIFE attend you, you will perceive freedom within your bodies, that will inform you about your Lands, universal Spaces, about your Planets, made and shown by the CREATOR. About your endless freedom. About your Love, which highlights and Loves you with it's immensity. And all this is internal, our dear people!!!

We were sitting and Arktran was showing holograms. He was talking about life recklessness of the Earth inhabitants. "People were given freedom, - he says, - but they don't even want to use it. Well, that's peculiar. If I'm free why are we talking about life limits and standarts. You see, Zar, I am free in everything. Of course, you understand it, your light of freedom hasn't gone out, otherwise you wouldn't look for eternal movement of Pace.

But many people don't feel it at all. They don't know about the existence of Living Life, which is free in its multivariately three-dimensional Creation. People might have been let take its course. We might not have paid attention to them and their life. But we can't behave in such way, because Love is burning in Our hearts. And this Love doesn't even think about giving up someone. People don't understand that life is the light, not the dusk. The Loving light is illuminating the guide for all people in extending Creating Space of Our beloved Father.

There are only 5 God-men in the Creating Space of the Lord NOW. They can perceive and feel all eternally extending Spaces. We, at large, and with Love, Create movements, which are the engine for all Universes and Galaxies. Many readers can say: " But we thought, that in other Galaxies there are the God-men, who embrace all the Spaces, who ARE and Will BE." You see, not all God-men can embrace EVERYTHING that exists and, at the same time, be in Our universal Creating Space. To embrace means to be and feel every corner of all Universes and Galaxies even those in the project. We don't say that it is difficult, it is Lively and easy, as dancing a magical dance. You see, feelings, emotions and perceptions are the main concepts of your three-dimensional receptacle. And these perceptions are available to all existing people now and those, who will exist in the future. We teach and show three-dimensionality by way of our examples. Together we live the scope and multidimensionality. People should only see and sense, feeling the energy of information every 1,5 millisecond. Feel NOW, Sergey, and others will feel it with you.

The energy of EVERYTHING in you.

What is meant? The energy of EVERYTHING – is EVERYTHING that exists in all Universes and Galaxies, Yin Yan, all the rivers, seas and oceans, the air and all harmoniously created landscapes, iron, that is originally in you, multidimensionality and scope, We and you, and EVERYTHING, that surrounds Us. Sergey, ALL this is in you NOW and in other people, who want to move three-dimensionally. You are made of ALL this. Do you understand? But there is an individual Heart in you, so , you differ from others individually. You are different, perceptions in you can be experienced in another way, as in every inhabitant of the Earth. You can express feelings and emotions in your own way. Do you understand? NOW you can just understand Our words holographically. If you are able to see and feel three-dimensionality of everything, that EXISTS, you will be able to give it through your body to other inhabitants of the Earth. But this multidimensional transference can be “mortal” for many people, because bodies of the men, who stayed in old perception of the world, won't be able to sustain informational multidimensionality of everything that EXISTS. And it's up to you to decide: express everything you saw and felt. Sergey, you are demigod, and We are God-men. Do you know why is it so? We want this demigod to make a decision and take responsibility for coming Reality. And We don't care, who will do it – you or someone else. But we want to warn you, Sergey: you were the first who saw useless debris on the Earth and were the very man, who made a decision to show the harmony of multidimensionality in your CoCreation. Why don't you take responsibility and finish the started? It is too difficult for you to make and carry out such dimensioned decisions. You will certainly recollect yourself. But you know, that Zar's energy is in you. It means you are that very Zar, the first baby of Adam and Eve, the third shown man in the Creating Space of Our beloved Father. You should be very light and wise, not to become high and mighty. But you are able to do it, because We know you well enough.

So, what have you decided?

– I take the multidimensional responsibility and will finish the started. This is my decision, and I remember that I still haven't realized what I have volunteered for, because the remained illusion in my body prevents me from seeing the Real Reality. But I am sure: I want to BE in the Rhythm of all Rhythms. I Long to BE the Rhythm myself. I want people of the Earth to shake and look about. I want people to feel the Real Life, but not illusion, which was deliberately imposed on them. I want and wish(with all my heart and soul) people to find out and feel Happiness, Joy and Love. I wish all people on the Earth would never experience “death”, time and darkness. I wish all people would recollect and revive their burning and ardent Love. I wish all mankind would feel and understand that life is NOW and HERE, but not somewhere else. And nothing will stop me, because I Love, so Loving everything and everyone, I show my, Created by Zar CoCreation.

NOW I feel the dimensionless Creating Space in my body! EVERYTHING breathes in the same Rhythm, having it`s own unique Rhythm! There IS EVERYTHING that may and might BE in my body, therefore in me. There are iron, land, rivers and waterfalls, everything that can BE in me. And this Life of EVERYTHING in me has no ending, that`s why it is always progressing and extending. So, this process is everlasting. I feel IT with every cell. THIS EVERYTHING is in me. All religions, world orders, Universes and Galaxies are in me. I understand, that such an extensional feeling I have, reveals ZERANTA in me! This Creating dimension in me makes it clear that WE are all GOD-MEN!!! Universal energies are watching me with great attention. They don`t understand my intentions yet, but are searching my Project thoroughly. Every living cell within me is open, feeling the timeless Spaces. They haven`t seen so much information yet. I`m becoming enormous. I`m beeing stretched on all sides. I`m delivering my multidimensional sermon:

Dear CREATOR, Our beloved Father!

I am Sergey, manifested by Zar, informing You, that I myself show the CoCreation of Zar, approved by You. Feeling with my body the multidimension and the volume of EVERYTHING, that EXISTS and WILL EXIST , I give my feelings to all people of the Earth. And I am sorry for people who don`t want to move and feel EVERYTHING with Us. But I see everything is changing, because We show reality.

I feel the multidimensional volume revealing on the Earth, in people, animals, birds, insects, thalassophiluses, riverines and oceanophiluses, all microorganisms. The illusion is melting down and the LIGHT of Love is highlighting. There is no darkness now, but there is a clear day as it was always!!! The connection with EVERYTHING that EXISTS, is highlighting LIFE in every living man. And this LIFE is being filled with extensional meaning of LIFE. The people, who wanted changes, began to feel the general multidimensional project. There are changes in their bodies. The bodies are extensionally stretched on all sides. And this lets them feel and sense the eternally extending Creating Space of Our beloved Father.

And that is so good!!!

I want to take a breath but cannot afford myself to relax, because in my CoCreation EVERYTHING is much more broad and Extensional. This process will never be completed.

Now I understand: all my life I was looking for something extensional and multidimensional in me, but I couldn't understand up to the end what I was looking for. Everything is different now. Feelings, senses and emotions are awaking a man in me. It was lost by me after I had fallen asleep on the Earth. And I am telling you, that I can't compare my emotions with anything. The male core or the base was always in us, men, but we never paid attention to it for some reason. By way of my example I am showing all men that we are able to find our real multidimensional male core and become real, but not illusory men, not children. Some people can say NOW that We are talking nonsense, because they are men indeed. We just say: We feel sorry for you; sorry, because you want to remain children. Unlike you, many men will revive their memory and real themselves with it. And you will just remain children, but may be you will see men in Us. The wave will surge in your heart, it will inform you about the time to awake and search for yourself, eternal, multidimensional, extensional God-man.

electronics. Instead of feeling this energy and reviving the Space of multi-level tree, they (contrary to our interests) tear hadronic energy to pieces, extracting only a small part of it into the meatspace. This is so unidimensionally, that We simply can't allow it, breaking their aims. If We allow scientists to activate at full capacity just the fragment of hadronic energy, what will happen then? Information garbling. They will seize this one-dimensional and fan their "discovery" into recklessness. Do you know that the energy of hadronic collider, which is searched by scientists NOW, is a tree? Yes, everything is so simple and easy, why complicate it? We don't understand. Everything the scientists are projecting and carrying out NOW was and remains the tree. There isn't this tree on the Earth NOW, because the mankind refused the multidimensionality. Sergey is delighted NOW, because he has seen this through his spiritual sight. The tree looks like a building with many seats. It looks like a cascading stand for flowers and every stage or link is a multilevel energetic field, reflecting the multilevel Universes. The man himself chooses the level for creative work, embracing the unlimited, multidimensional Spaces of the Universes and Galaxies. "Looking at this tree I feel something large and all-embracing", - Sergey says. - "And inexplicable processes are taking place in my body. This tree seems to have a CONNECTION, multidimensional CONNECTION with all Creating Space". So, it is interesting, that such tree could grow on every hectare, in the Space of every man and every family. "What is the destination of this tree?", - you will ask. The Lord, Our Father thought EVERYTHING over, so that everything would be connected. This CONNECTION may be different. And this multilevel tree created its unique CONNECTION with EVERYTHING that EXISTS. The hadron collider, which the scientists are trying to activate NOW, are just the fragments of information energy of the multilevel tree. Their attempts to reproduce the multidimensionality of this magnificent tree are unsuccessful. The same is with electric, nuclear, atomic energy and others. You split these energies, causing disharmony, and this is all you can do at the moment. The energy, called electricity, has another character. By way of rupture method you extract a particle of energy out of complete multidimensional image and try to light up your houses and streets. As if you pull out man's liver, use it for your own purposes and don't even think about the man. You create disharmony and reduce the vibration of the Earth. You should understand, only growing and natural, joined in the multidimensional image, which can extend and change on the Earth, creates multidimensional structure of extending energies. They are in HOLY CONNECTION OF EVERYTHING, that EXISTS, reflecting the image. And this is the TRUTH OF EXISTENCE, which must be highlighted in everyone. You must understand it. But you look for something unknown somewhere, splitting and stretching it, because you don't have CONNECTION, the HOLY and multidimensional CONNECTION. And the attempts of scientists to split the energies, which must be only in formed, combined condition, are equal to negative, inharmonious actions. This creates disharmony and harms all Spaces. The mankind, not realizing the CONNECTION of everything that EXISTS, using electricity, makes recklessness. Because of this We prohibit scientists from splitting all kinds of energies. That's enough, guys, bringing recklessness into OUR harmonic Spaces. Those, who don't understand this warning, will simply go to regeneration. We scrimp and scrape the harmonic Space of the Earth in all Creating Space of Our beloved Father. That's why all We are saying HERE and NOW is proceeding to action. And the scientists, who do harm, must feel and sense multidimensional natural structures and BE in the Pace of all Paces. Learn to feel and perceive multidimensional changes, which are extending every moment. You must feel changes, in other words, the extended addition to everything, that EXISTS and WILL EXIST. There is no ending to this. It means that the mankind must understand and acquire, that is always a sensible movement, eternally and constantly extending and branching off. And within every branch the extensions are expanding multidimensionally. There is no ending to this, because Our Father didn't create any restrictions. He Created just continuation of EVERYTHING in eternally extending Creating Space. Understand this, continuation of eternally extending Creating Space. But you manage to plan your life as if it is the last one. A car, a flat or an estate, much money, and one more thing: take up a prestigious post, and that is all, your extension has completed. And further – a deadlock and death. Then your life is over. You don't know what to do or think up. You become finite without knowledge of the eternally extending energy of information. Without feeling you don't even imagine how much you don't embrace. All that you plan, is a teeny drop of the enormous Galactic ocean. Besides, this Galactic ocean is constantly expanding. And you, restricting yourself, have to regenerate over and over, try to catch one and the same teeny drop of life, losing the scope of the Galactic ocean. Do you understand? Just the only one teeny drop, which is not changing for you. You avoid speaking about multidimensionality, to say nothing of feeling and moving in the Pace of all Paces. You have very restricted representations about EXISTENCE. You don't live, you lead a miserable life, thrown into multidimensional Spaces of the Universes and Galaxies. There is nothing to talk with you, to say nothing of planning harmonic Universal Projects. You just groan, speaking about your miserable life, which becomes worse and worse every (non-existent) year. But it can't be better, because you create disharmony on the Planet, exhausting everything that your insatiable animal instinct needs. You can object, saying that you are not animals. And we'll tell you about your likeness with them. This is a very deplorable fact. You have decided to regenerate in your children because of misunderstanding. But this regeneration is peculiar to animals only. "But how can we regenerate if not in our children?", - you will certainly ask. And We will answer, that you are all individuals. You mustn't regenerate in your children, because they are also individuals with their feelings, emotions and tasks on the Earth. But you don't hear Us, and know, that your regeneration in children is inadmissible and illogical, misrepresentation of EXISTENCE.

What will this result in?

You will literally start eating people, justifying your actions by regeneration. Don't you understand, what We mean?

Then We'll explain to you how and what can your excessive "love" result in. Love that regenerates you in children. Because of this "love", you plan children's future, which, in your opinion, will be better for them. Loving insanely and soullessly, you are looking for yourselves or your continuation in children, misunderstanding that you and your children are multidimensional individuals. And your real PARENTS are the Father, CREATOR of EVE-RYTHING, and your Mother, Love, which fills you and EVERYTHING that EXISTS with itself without remainder. Unlike people, animals don't have immortal soul. That's why regeneration runs through descendants, for example, a wolf, a fox or other animal. You must know such phenomenon as sarcophagy in the animal kingdom. It is connected with the fact, that every wolf cub or a fox cub lacks for information about its ancestry and regeneration. That's why by eating an old wolf, a young wolf gets the energy and a kind of information of that wolf. Do you understand? Eating! But the CREATOR thought over the animal regeneration in a different way. It's you, people, allowed sarcophagy among animals. You started eating them, not loving. It's you, people, created sarcophagy among animals. And now you are creating sarcophagy among people. It cannot be allowed, because a very serious disharmony and misrepresentation of the original energy of information will be revealed then. And if your excessive "love" to children, husband, wife etc. continue, you will eat yourselves. It was mentioned by Daniel Andreev in his book "Roza Mira". And We are also warning you now. People, wake up! What are you creating? It's a degradation. It will reduce your short lives, for 20 non-existent years more. You are all to a man multidimensional individuals. Do you understand? We repeat it time and again, "loving" excessively and unidimensionally your children, mothers, fathers, husbands, wives etc., interfering in their Spaces, you shorten yourselves and your lives. And this adds more and more disharmony to Your eternally extending, multidimensional Spaces. We tell and set our examples, how to love. Love is dimensional. Love is all-embracing. Love is free. Love doesn't attach one man to another, because attachment is ruinous. You can tether a dog to the tree. But tell Us, is it possible to attach one person to another? You shoot many films about Love, and in these films you manage to misrepresent Love, so there is no real Love left. In films you manage somehow to attach one man's Love to another. Do you understand what you are producing? The attachment of one man to another(it doesn't matter who that man is) will direct it's unidimensional, aggressive display(to mothers, fathers, children, husbands, wives etc.), it is important what happens further. Then all country watches your nonsense and thinks, not feeling, that is all about the merits of real Love. You can guess what happens further. After that you copy unnatural merits of Love. But you see, Love is different, It is not restricted or unidimensional as you are. It doesn't attach or burden, on the contrary, it separates dimensions of available among loving people and those in love. It means that love is not love in your family. It is a double-dealer. This double-dealer was imposed on all people of the Earth, it is anti-love. It is Love destruction, or rather, removal. Love can't be destroyed, but it can leave you, when you send It away. "So, what's happening?", – you will ask. "We all don't love...?".

«So, what are we doing?»

You shorten yourselves, harming all existing Spaces. In the book series "Roza Mira" We tell you what Loving means and what is Love like in its multidimensional multidimensionality. Many people will say, objecting NOW, and even try to show Us, what is Love, in their opinion. And it's interesting, that there is a great deal of such categorical and short-sighted opinions. So, what's happening? Many people have their own opinions about Love, and they consider them to be "right". But true light of Love remains closed for them. They should consider and accept the energy of information, we revive for all mankind diligently. But, because of pride, these many often don't want to listen, not saying about their accepting of true Love. We call these misrepresentations, by way of which you, people, create utopia for yourselves, Disbroabitarian state. Besides, it's interesting that, when you leave your physical bodies and find yourselves on the other side(you also stay on this side, but you used to call it "other" for some reason), understanding your restricted perception of Spaces of multidimensional Universes and Galaxies, persuade Us to send you back to the Earth. You beg Us, saying about your intentions to change yourselves and become multidimensional God-men. But after coming to the Earth you, as always, forget about your promises and live without feelings and senses, and also without Love.

So that's what you are, people!

You restrict yourselves and you made this finiteness for yourselves. You should start extending and go ahead, instead of sitting and nagging like old people. The word “old man” or “old woman” contains detrimental action. This is your finiteness in action. Being young, you are turning into old people. You mutter and nag, that things go worse, everything is dull, there is no Love etc. We can't stand such people and their demonstration of senile imbecility. Such young-and-old people turn white into black. And We show them examples of feeling the volume. We explain that, there is an eternally extending scope. Sensing and feeling IT, you'll see, except prejudices, Happiness, Joy and Love. “ But you have to decide on it”,- many or not many people will say after all. Decide on what? We'll ask. You don't want your moving at all, looking for justification. But justifying yourselves, you start complaining and asking for Our help. A strange psychology, We are not able to understand. On the one hand, you seem to ask for help, begging Us to save you, on the other hand, you say that it's necessary to decide on these changes, that is, life-saving. Yes... That's a difficult case. And we come across this paradoxical fact everywhere on the Earth. So, what are we doing in that case? We have analysed thoroughly, before, contrasting all possible variants, redistribute energy of information in all Universes and Galaxies. What influence will this redistribution exert on the Earth and its inhabitants? The most dimensioned. HEAR and NOW every inhabitant of the Earth is left to himself. Do you understand, what it means for all people and those, who are waiting for their incarnation on the Earth? You are creators of your own lives now. Before this moment, the mankind has asked, or rather, begged for better life. But people imagined their lives in different ways. One wanted a car, another one – a house or a flat, and others, in the majority, only health. Coming to the church, religious people asked priests and saints, painted on the icons, for life, but only HERE and NOW, you, people, are left to your own resources. There is no past and future for you, but there IS only the present NOW. You used to extend yourselves in the past or in the future. You used to be in a quiet sleep state, but everything has changed now. You are all living in the present HERE and NOW, and there's nothing you can do about it. We are delighted with this fact, because We are tired of bringing you together, extracting you from the past or the future, gathering in the present. Now you answer for yourselves. If you want to be thrown on all Universes and Galaxies – this is your choice. If you want to sleep always

– this is your choice. If you want to die – this is your choice, agreed. This feeling has already extended over the Earth and has been shown in everyone. And believe Us, many people are afraid of something non-existent, when a man is illuminated by Love. In connection with this information We have prepared a place for incarnation of Yanukovich V.F., because he doesn't hear Us, plays illusions and enjoys himself. He surrounded himself with bodyguards, companions etc. But now he can't be concealed by other backs and he can't conceal from himself. He is to regenerate in the underprivileged family, in the neighbouring entrance of the building, where I live. Now he will run out into the street to look at me. Looking at me, he will recollect himself and his escape. This cannot be said about Azarov N. He is in panic and depression. Why? Because after death he will not find refuge for himself and stay in non-existence forever. Because he didn't hear me. But I told him, that instead of expensive metro stations and many unidimensional projects, he is proud of, he should have planted many pines throughout Ukraine. And if he listened to Me, he would have prepared a place for himself and others, to become extensional man after leaving your body. I would have helped him to regenerate in the next incarnation. But now he will stay in non-existence and beg Me to extract him from... you can't even imagine where from.

Oh! People, you are so short-sighted, you don't feel and think nothing except your glutton. If only you realized your actions on the Earth, you would be horrified. You live in your bodies, which We prepared for each of you. It is We who prepared them, because, living on the Earth, you so lose yourself, that don't look like people. Leaving your bodies, many become unrecognizable, you are not like people, without many organs and limbs you stay in non-existence. That is terrible. You don't even think about something not to say that to become equal to Us. And here is the moment of hard times HERE and NOW, in which you are left for yourselves. Now every man should prepare his manifestation by collecting his entire physical body, so that to BE in this state and to embody in flesh on the Earth.

«How's come?», – you will ask.

And We will answer, that agreements you have signed, are not valid any more. We are clearing them HERE and NOW, to make our CoCreation revealed. Neither Universes nor Galaxies have known such things yet in everything that EXISTS. To LIVE now, all mankind has to struggle for original knowledge. That is revealing and has already revealed for the first time during the existence of the Earth.

«What will be then?», – you will ask.

Happiness, Joy and Love will be, but only for those, who felt changes and feels himself a God-man, not a man-slave. For those, who began his multidimensionally-extensional movement, being in Our general spirit. And this is a revival of many original Spaces. This is a multidimensional light of Our Mother, Love, and the volume of Our loving and beloved Father. This is ought to BE and there is no other way. We warned all people of the Earth, who were stuck in the spheres of time and illusion. We persuaded you, people, to look about and feel the Reality of timelessness. Before birth you begged Us to give you a saving chance, but having been reborn, many of you have absolutely forgot your promises.

Now We are asking you!

Don't blame Us for your own wishes. But take into consideration: there is always the way out from any situation and condition. Your realized wish, pronounced aloud, will cause God's relevant actions to you. And this will be your saving. But you will save yourselves, We will just give you some help, which is the light for you. We give this information in advance to all people and those, who are preparing to reveal on the Earth, for you to know the Reality, which is going on. We Love you all and that's why Our CoCreation is entering it's visualizing state. This is demonstration of Our joint Love to you. So HERE and NOW will LIVE only those people, who feel the Spirit, Our common Spirit. Will LIVE those people, who wanted changes for themselves and others. Will LIVE only those people, who gathered entire God-men in themselves. Sergey is writing down information NOW and it becomes clear that LIFE will be only for a man, who feels truth in his heart, which will inform him about coming Reality. But feeling the truth is not enough. Entering this LIFE will be possible on the assumption of multidimensional movement of a man himself. For other people, who remain in old, worn-out state, this LIFE will be prohibited. Now there is no other way: so that to Live people have to know and feel the entire energy of information of EVERYTHING, that EXISTS. Those, who don't want to know and feel, will be hanging in weightlessness, leading a miserable life on the Earth planet. We do wish, all people of the Earth would understand and feel themselves a part of EVERYTHING, that EXISTS and WILL EXIST. All cells of the human body live the life of Universes and Galaxies, or rather, must BE in such eternal state. Feel NOW, man, your body, your cells, which all together make you an entire man. And now try to feel all the Universe. If you can't do it, therefore you haven't got ready for your Planet. Your Planet must BE always moving that is turning around in your belly. And We spoke about it, even connected each of you to your Planets. Why have we started this conversation about Planets with you, that you have to feel them? You see... everything may be simple and easy for you, if to know and be in the state of CONNECTION with EVERYTHING, that EXISTS and WILL EXIST. When you are in such Holy CONNECTION, then you EXIST, you are God-men. So, if the mankind IS not able to have this all-embracing CONNECTION, you will not manage to find the movement in timelessness. Seeing nothing in front of you again, not feeling, you will have to lose your way and listen to someone else, but not yourself. And again you will produce dependence, and reliving programmed life routines will become inevitable for you. Julia Timoshenko has cut down all ancestral trees, and also many forests. She has done it only for you to forget your CONNECTION, to find unconsciousness and blindness. Do you remember the film "Avatar"? There was an ancestral tree, destroyed by boors. All Ancestral trees of the Earth have been cut down in the same way and that destroyed your CONNECTION with God. But Avatars, as opposed to you, defended their independence and CONNECTION with everything that EXISTS. They knew, they would be able to BE only in constant CONNECTION with GOD, who was called Eiva in the film. They felt Eiva inside themselves, and this feeling was given by the cells of their bodies, which felt the planet - Pandora. But the film gives only 49% of Reality, that`s why in addition We`ll say that everyone has it`s own Planet. So this very Planet of a man gives CONNECTION, which must BE in you, people. This is your all-embracing Space, which must BE in constant Connection with you. But without this Holy CONNECTION you don`t feel the Lord and have to look for mediators. The inhabitants of Pandora defended their Holy CONNEC-TION, it means they will not fall asleep as you did. You accepted the dis-harmony on your earth. You didn`t defend you independence and Holy CONNECTION.

Do you know, that your lands, divided into hectares, remained on the Earth, as We described in the book series “Roza Mira”? Yes, our dear, your lands are waiting for you. There is chaos on your lands NOW: something built, dumps, landfills, multistorey buildings etc.– this is only you, who allowed all this, nobody else. And now you have to sleep, regenerating again and again.

Here is your Reality, people!

We have described before, that all you, without exception, felt the CON-NECTION, which must BE in you. But this CONNECTION was stolen. You are sick and you are not Gods without this CONNECTION. I know people, feeling this Holy CONNECTION and they know where their eter-nally young bodies Avatars are, and they also know about location of their Planet, they think nothing of going to eternal body Avatar. I led all comers to their Planet, and It is in them NOW. I`d like to add that you have to turn around your planet in the belly and experience feelings, which will run through your bodies. Every morning I do this creative, multidimensional, eternally extending work. And you must learn not to sleep, but extend eter-nally. Turn around your planet not only in the morning, but also during the day. Feel the planet inside yourselves, but not only feel, sense the move-ment in your body, which covers all Spaces. Do you feel NOW your hidden cells? They are waiting for your order. Yes, you must not only feel, but par-ticipate in everything. Feeling your Planet, you let pass large multidimen-sional information scope through your body, you should not only let it pass by feeling, but distribute information with your body. «How?», – you will ask. It is very simple. Make it a rule always to programme your body. For example, say aloud, that you want to know all distributed, eternally extending energy of information. Then you will begin to notice many visions, multidimensional feelings and your body will be forever occupied by senses, which will run through it in quantity. And that is just the beginning of the movement, which is never completed. It is a great joy to know and understand it. Do you see what I mean? We are always in Joy, unlike you. I am waiting for your movement!

Let`s consider your bodies. I mean, let`s awake the cells, which are feeling but can`t wake up. Why do you think not all cells of your body are able to awake? Many will say: “ Because we are sleeping”. And there is a grain of truth in that.

Look: here is a human body in front of you. Look: the cells are moving in it, creating a special pace. NOW you can observe on the right side of your body some cells making an extended and unequal oval, you are under the impression that they are in the frozen state. Why does it happen? Why do the rest cells have their unique pace, and this oval is not connected with any pace? Let`s consider what is happening in Reality. The cells of your bodies are eager for eternal life, unlike the mankind. Because the human race was programmed and following this programme, people of the Earth lose themselves, lose their freedom, lose CONNECTION with all Spaces, lose CONNECTION with their bodies and nature. The human race got accustomed to divide everything into right and wrong, “good and bad” etc. People began to judge each other and interfere with other lives. This programmed them to divide everything. Your cells, which make your bodies and you, feel and run the set program, or rather, had been running it before. Certain processes took place in your bodies, either in one side or another, but there wasn`t joint pace in them. HERE and NOW We have opened the Spaces of your Planets. Everyone, who feels the Space of his Planet, will be able to BE in All-galactic Rhythm, and your bodies will take up this volumetric Rhythm. Believe Us, you can`t even imagine, the multidimensionality, which will be passed through your bodies. This multidimensional Rhythm will start up the volumetric programme, and all bodies will move to special Rhythm. This Rhythm has multidimensional and volumetric sensing in its base; sensing, which feels the Rhythm of all Rhythms. What are We talking about NOW? We are trying to show you what is happening? We told, that a moment in timelessness will come, when your bodies, feeling multidimensionality and volume, longing to be in such state, simply will have to throw you out of your bodies. You can't even imagine, what will happen. People, all to a man, who turned away from knowledge, Truth and Real movement, will leave the Earth. It will be massively and cause panic sensing of life. But We warned you and are warning again: join and gain your rhythm, feel and sense, not just perceive the energy of information, but, feeling, show it in your lives. And only with this combination you are in no danger, on the contrary, purifying and extending multidimensionally, it fills you with the volume, from which HERE and NOW all Universes and Galaxies are opened in the infinity for you. NOW Sergey sees and feels the panic, which comes from non-believers and insensible people, and he understands, that no one can help these people. They will say, that is a conspiracy against the human race. They will shed floods of tears, asking to save them. They will say, that We are callous and heartless, but will trample down themselves more because of misunderstanding the moment. You will ask (or rather, people, who know NOW, that because of misunderstanding they drove themselves into a corner, which has no exit): «Do we have a chance for saving?». Yes, we do. There is always the way out, any moment in timelessness of the moment HERE and NOW. But We foresee, there are few people, who will understand before the death, that they lived in the wrong way, didn't feel at all and had an unconscious life. And We'll say to people, who still realize that and want changes both in themselves, and on the Earth, that I shall save you. Even if you, being in fever, but with faith pronounce: «Zeranta, save me, I realized everything and want my multidimensional motion», – I shall save you. People, who wished multidimensional changes, will be saved. I need you very much, because I Love you all very much. But those people, who are waiting for the Flood on the Earth, will have it. For them and for those, who will say indifferently, that they don't care about the Earth, if only they were happy, the Flood will happen, sorrow and tears. They will be washed away and relegated to obscurity for 1000 years in unidimensional calculation. We shall not pay attention to these people till they begin to extract themselves from this labyrinth.

On the whole, our dear, you must learn to feel your body, it is your multidimensional partner. Your body always gives you multidimensional energy of information. Your body is your multidimensional partner. You are gathered to BE only in the physical body, and there IS no other way out. You made many troubles for Us by disconnecting yourselves from your multidimensional and volumetric bodies “Avatar” and from your Planets. We`ll say it again, especially for you, everything mentioned is your Reality. So, NOW you are looking at Us and say about your bodies, that they give you neither senses nor feelings. Loving, We have prepared the soil for growing your 49 organs. NOW multidimensionality is opened and you are able to grow all missing organs. You will certainly ask how to do it. We were waiting for this question. Let`s play a game together. «What`s the game like?», – you will ask. It is called: grow your missing organs.

What`s the point of the game?

Everything is quite simple. Let`s join our hands(NOW you will see a round dance of God-men, who joining their hands, sing universal, multidimensional song, - these are WE, take US by the hands) and, moving in the round dance, sing multidimensionally-volumetric song:

Dear CREATOR of the visible Earth!

We are your multidimensional children, who left unidimensional state! We are your children, feeling the multidimensional volume of EVERYTHING, feel all Universes and Galaxies! We, your children, know for sure, that feeling and sensing EVERYTHING, that EXISTS, We are leavening EVERYTHING, that will EXIST. Which means that, We are people of the God and our bodies are undergoing changes NOW.

And YOU, Our Beloved CREATOR, gives your blessing to Our extension both within our bodies and within ourselves. We are watching this action. And We are very glad. We are jumping and spreading our arms aside. Then We are entering the circle again and joining our hands. But this circle is different now, there is freedom and volume in it. And We are different in this circle too, We are with all missing organs and now there are 148 of them. Our height is 45 metres, we are sensing ourselves transparent and feeling ourselves pervasive and all-perceptive God-people, and this creates very multidimensional Rhythmical movement, which takes your breath away, and looking at the eternally extending volume of the Universes and Galaxies, we would like to say all people of the Earth, that HAPPINESS is all we feel, which is looked for but cannot be found. It can't be found because people don't understand it at all. HAPPINESS is a multidimensional entity, which is the sister of LOVE. NOW, being in extensional and multidimensional sensing of EVERYTHING, that EXISTS, we would like to say: I am EVERYTHING, that EXISTS and even EVERYTHING, that will EXIST!

NOW I see luminescence, which is spreading over all Spaces and, you know, it is illuminating the Spaces of people. These Spaces are very multidimensional and embrace ALL Spaces of Universes and Galaxies. These Spaces are your Stars, which warm your multidimensional Planets, where you can find your eternal bodies Avatars. And from your multidimensional Spaces the luminescence rushes to the Earth, where it can't find it's owners, that is, you, people. Do you know why? Because you lost the Holy, multidimensional CONNECTION, We show you, and not just show, but connect you to It. You might have understood NOW, that this luminescence is entity, named Love, your multidimensional MOTHER. You probably think, who is illuminating and highlighting you physically NOW, if your Love is not able to penetrate into you without your involvement? WE warm you and the Earth with our Love, and that is why you live and are visible in the physical world. If We didn't want to Love you, you wouldn't have been alive. That is Our Love highlighting all people, including you, Sergey, but you, unlike others, hasn't lost Your Love, you know where It is and feel IT. In such double state you are in no danger, because if I leave you, that is, if I stop illuminating you with my Love, you will survive, without me you will stay in the LIGHT of YOUR LOVE only. And your LOVE will highlight you in all multidimensional Creating Space. You, Sergey, are a God-man. I am telling that, for you to know and not be afraid by no means, if I stop illuminating you. Many questions will certainly arise NOW, but I ask you to understand the following. You are a God-man and you will be able to show your worth as a man by yourself, without My involvement. Before your emergence on the Earth you took into account many details and asked Me to stop illuminating you at the certain moment of timelessness. So and in no other way, you will be able to fulfil the mission, which brought you to the Earth, Sergey. I see, it is very difficult for you to understand and I imagine, what is happening with you NOW, but you must fulfil, what you wished. And you, the only one among people living on the Earth, will remain without my LIGHT. But you will find your multidimensional LIGHT and join Us, and there will be more and more of us. This project will allow to plant a grain, which will grow and give the feeling of freedom, realizing yourselves independent God-men. That you are the same as We are and are able to create you Galaxy in Our universal Creating Space(in view of EVERYTHING that EXISTS). It is just you, Sergey, will grow this grain in yourself.

I bless you!

Many questions, concerning Sergey, will come up NOW. But I shall tell you, don't sort out others', sort out yours. He is to highlight himself in all Creating Space, or rather, revive Love, which will illuminate him. If he doesn't manage to revive his Love, he will leave the Earth for regeneration. "Why will he leave?", – you will ask. Because that is his mission, which brought him to the Earth from his Planet. Sergey is an alien, but with one correction: he is always on the Earth and no other way out. While the human race is losing itself desperately, he can't live quietly as We do. So, Sergey, wake up and leave your illusions, start to live and feel, sensing the Real construction of the all-embracing Creating Space.

Enough waiting, start acting!!!

Sensing and feeling is so simple and easy, that we can just lift our hands. Perceiving the energy of information in all Creating Space is easy too. Growing the missing organs in the human body is no trouble at all. Being multidimensional God-man and living in harmony with all surrounding Universes and Galaxies is quite simple and not complicated.

So, what prevents the human race from BEING the same?

We asked this question more than once. And you know what? You and only you prevent yourself from BEING in the sensible state of EXISTENCE. Embracing all non-existent time spaces in timelessness, you see the human race, extending themselves in the non-existent time. Instead of living for the moment and BEING always in the movement, you, people, are sitting and waiting in your holes. Why and whom, you are waiting for, if EVERYTHING is in multidimensional movement just NOW. You often say, that We are callous and heartless. But tell us, how we can explain, that there is no “death” and it has never been. Why you are sitting in non-existence and looking out of there. You`d better leave non-existence, take the responsibility and enter your life at once, reveal in the physical world everyone you Love. That is so simple and quickly, that I want to shout: you are Gods, people, and you are able to do that! Why don`t you understand it, you are sitting and waiting for someone and something. And WE show you the exit, highlighting it. We go through all non-existent time distances, collected together, watching everyone, who gets stuck in the non-existence. Passing by, We highlight the exit for everyone. But only highlight. People, staying in non-existence, just look at Us, saying that We are callous and heartless God-men. But who prevents you from BEING the same, taking the responsibility and leading yourselves to the life, and, for example, your families as well.

Many might not understand, what is it all about, so in this connection, We shall describe in another way the Real situation, in which seas of people stuck and stay in the non-existence of Jonah. You know, very often after killing or natural death people are staying in the non-existence with their families, beloved people, children etc. They are staying in dolmens, tombs or in other narrow spaces. But the CREATOR Made a man physically packed, and only in such state we live, are able to feel and sense all Universes and Galaxies. Just in such state we are able to BE Happy and joyful. Just in such state we are able to feel Love and sense IT, burning in the chest and spreading all over the body. And staying in the non-existence, you are not able to live, feel and sense multidimensionally and extensionally. You are sitting there and are afraid of making a step and starting your movement, which makes everything turn round. Do you know, what is interesting? Being alive, you are afraid of “death”, and when you are staying in non-existence, you are afraid(not everyone) to show yourself on the Earth. So, what shall We do with such people...??? We understand, that a man cannot live in the non-existence, he just can be there in the fixed and gathered state. But you see, this is We, who fix you in the gathered state. And We are tired of your misunderstanding. In connection with it, We arrange everything into harmonious and primordial state. It means that people staying in the non-existence, will have to show themselves in the physical body on the Earth, and further they will have to start BEING visible in Our Creating Space.

You know..., now everything is going to be different. Your lives will be changed, even if you don't want it. We CoCreate the Reality on the Earth planet. The structures of your bodies are being changed just HERE and NOW, they are being changed from unidimensional into multidimensional, and it means that you have to BE in multidimensional, realized movement. If you don't understand or don't manage to be in time, unpleasant things(We have mentioned before), will happen to you. Mass dying will become a routine matter on the Earth NOW. All human race will go through diverse incurable diseases. These diseases will bring people to the non-existence in several days. Panic will cover the human race, and only people, who are in motion with Us, will survive, and not only survive but gain the Reality. We have already said, that the Flood will happen for those, who NOW don't care about themselves, people, the energy of information, the Earth, the Sun, the Goloshpervashli Galaxy and EVERYTHING, that EXISTS and WILL EXIST. These people, not feeling Reality, in panic will move on to the non-existence, where nobody is waiting for them, and that will happen for the first time in the history of the Earth. We had been always waiting for you, when you passed into the energy of thin existence. You got accustomed to this situation, because you know, you will get away with it, but everything is changed, and you will have to gather yourselves, before revealing on the Earth. And you will certainly say again, that We are callous and cruel God-people. And We shall answer, that's you, who are callous and dull, unlike Us. We shall tell for you to understand it: That's We, who took care of you during all non-existent spaces of time.

You wanted to die, didn't you?

But We didn't allow you to do that. Why? You will ask.

That is because you didn't even suspect, when you fell asleep, there was no "death", and it had never been. You were afraid, when you moved on to the non-existence, and We always kept you in the gathered state, giving the sense of Reality. You cannot even imagine how many souls were restrained and are restrained in the gathered state by Our Love. After moving on you were found in the subtle state, you felt burning on all sides. You didn't even suspect that was Our Love to you. Only Ours. And your Love remained in non-resurrected state. NOW Sergey knows, what we are talking about. He was one of the first to feel burning, being in the non-existence. We described in the previous books what he had made with himself when undertook all people's sins. Being in the non-existence, he felt burning inside and outside, it was and is just his Love, which knows him and only IT kept him in the gathered state. Even when Sergey, being quite desperate, wished his falling-off. But LOVE, didn't let it happen. It turned out to be stronger than his wish. Sergey felt himself in that moment of timelessness, what was IT like, Love, Loving essence. NOW you will see the dialogue, which happened in that moment between Zar and his Love.

–Why are You keeping me back, tell me, my Mother?

– DON`T YOU UNDERSTAND?

– I do understand, but I don`t want to BE in everything that EXISTS, and in everything that WILL EXIST. I don`t want to.

– BUT TRY TO UNDERSTAND, ZAR, JUMPING INTO THE DEEP END, YOU WILL LEAD PEOPLE OF THE CREATING SPACE TO RECKLESSNESS STILL MORE. DO YOU UNDERSTAND?

– But tell me, my Mother, what else can I do for people of all Spaces, who are ill with recklessness? What? Tell me. What? Что? Скажи мне. Что? After all I considered all the details in my CoCreating Space, but you see..., people, they don`t want their extension, don`t even want to think about it, and this recklessness will cover all existing Spaces. Do you understand what I am talking about?

– YES, MY DEAR SON, I UNDERSTAND EVERYTHING, BUT WILL YOU REALLY GIVE UP YOUR DREAM SO EASY? CAN IT REALLY END LIKE THIS FOR YOU? WHY DIDN`T YOU THINK ABOUT OUR LOVING AND BELOVED CREATOR - GOD? AFTER ALL HE LOVES ALL SPACES CREATED BY PEOPLE! HE IS GLAD TO SEE THE EXTENSION HE PLANNED, WILL YOU REALLY BETRAY HIM TOO?

– My dear Mother, why do YOU sting me like this...? Don`t say, my dear, anyway I know Your answer. I feel YOU in me and behind me, I feel you resisting my thought of the Creator. I know YOU will never let me break up, because you Love me very much. Forgive me, My Dear and Beloved Love, for my weakness. Being egoist I didn`t think about YOU, my PARENTS, and also my PARENTS – ADAM and EVE, They will not understand me because I am the first God-man shown by them. Eve Loves me very much, and HER half of feelings and senses is in me. I feel HER like anyone else. I Love her very much and don`t want to see HER upset... I don`t want YOU, my Beloved, stay without me...

I want LIVING LIFE and even if my eternal divine body Avatar doesn't see me, I don't care about it any more, I want LIFE and I will finish my CoCreation.

Being in the non-existence I am making my multidimensional speech, which shows me on the Earth planet. Here are my earth parents, I see them. They wish to be Happy and BE always in Love. They are Loving couple, but I understand that to BE happy they need to recollect and revive much in their bodies. I understand that being born in their bodies I might not recollect much. That's why I am CoCreating in the light of Love – my Mother, and I am already singing, and my song shows me on the Earth.

And I know, know for sure that, my Love, you will always be next to me. I shall feel YOU and revive within my earth body, and as soon as it happens, I shall recollect EVERYTHING that EXISTS and will EXIST. Here is my divine body Avatar, I see It in front of me, Love has highlighted me for It. Here you are, I see you and feel my Beloved Velenokgrozdia planet going round in my belly. Everything began to go round and whirl. All energy of information is within me. And here I am appearing ... Oh! How I want to kiss You, my Beloved, at least one more time... I am going to the Earth again, and I am there again, on the Earth, and it will never end.....

Now Sergey has recollected his multidimensional speech, with which he appeared on the Earth planet instead of breakup. But for what, Sergey, do you remember? Being born again and again you always found the Truth of Existence. And when you didn't find IT, you fell into estrangement. You always refused Our help. And “dying” you struck and struck against illusions and time interval. Love showed you on the Earth again. Do you remember how We met on the Earth more than once? And you always recognized Me. I didn't understand how, but you always knew it was Me. Your Love to me never faded away and just grew. Recollect NOW the question I asked you and my sister: “How did you recognize me? You answered: “ It was my heart that recognized You”. And I believed you, because I know that you and only you always recognized Me whatever body I was in. After transference you have never been in your divine body Avatar, but you always left your illusions and was on your Velenokgrozdy Planet after leaving your earth body. You are one of the few who thought over your incarnations on the Earth, and unlike others, thought over your being in case when Avatar will not be able to see you. For that you CoCreated multidimensionally-volumetric tree, which always met you and take you into its Space, made by you. You know, We borrowed your idea when people wanted “to die”. We CoCreated pines, which were named Vesnasgrozdyas and as your multidimensional tree didn't know what is “death”. But people, you see, people made the Flood, that reprogrammed not only Our pines but also other trees and plants.

Now you understand why I am not afraid to deprive you of my Light, Sergey. You are able to BE the LIGHT for everyone. You are my first son and the greater part of Me is in you, that is why you always felt Me more than other children. And that is KINSHIP, which cannot be erased by no means. Do you see now what I meant Saying that We are Kin? CoCreating a new soul with a man, I said to everyone that half of a woman`s soul goes over to a new little man and another man`s half completes all the Created bouquet of new and harmonic expression of a newborn Happy Soul. But there is more than a half of My Soul in you, Sergey. You see, Adam was so caught up in his CoCreations and when Our first baby appeared the most part of My Soul somehow filled you. That`s the way! And even NOW Adam is busy with something, not realizing again that We wished another thing. Do you remember the three of Us standing and pronouncing Our joint CoCreation? We wished all the following God-men were Happy, joyful and Loving in Love. Adam somehow forgot it. That`s all right! The main is that We remember it. Don`t We, Sergey?

– YES, I do wish people of all Spaces were always in Happiness, Joy and Love. As YOU are!!!

Sergey, let`s show NOW what We have CoCreated all three together!!! Do you remember?

– I do, my Dear, I am recollecting how We were standing and CoCreating the Present, the three of Us, filled with great emotions, which took our breath away. We made Our speech, that went over to the song, and Our song sounded and sounds like this:

LIFE... How beautiful and always full of deep sense you are!

And the sense of LIFE is in the LIVING LIFE!!!

WE, standing NOW, show Our feelings and senses we experience NOW. And Our multidimensionally-volumetric emotions are in timelessness of the moment NOW, it means that people, who are born, WILL always know and feel the LIFE, which is consciously LIVING. And that is so great, and you want to Create and CoCreate multidimensional Projects, which will decorate Our common Creating Space.

Thank YOU, OUR LOVING AND BELOVED CREATOR, We are thankful to YOU!!!

LIFE is so LIVING, you see, that you want to LIVE and enjoy every moment of IT.

Enjoyment..., is an interesting feeling! We are sure that people living on the Earth do not exactly understand this great feeling and the energy of enjoyment. The human race somehow implies other notions by this energy. You speak about enjoyment by food, sex and other spheres of life. But feeling of enjoyment is multidimensional basically, and that means you should enjoy, feeling the multidimensionality and volume of all Spaces.

What are We saying about NOW?

You may say that enjoyment is quite simple, for example, you may enjoy beautiful landscapes on the Earth, which attract you magically. Is that right?

Yes, but tell Us honestly, who and how Created these magically beautiful mountains, waterfalls, rivers, seas and oceans and many other things that attract you.

Because of misunderstanding, You may say that Mother-nature Created these harmonious bouquets of conscious images.

And We shall answer in this way:

«Eh... people, why can't you feel the harmony of Creation? The whole Earth is breathing your Creations, isn't it? That's you, people, Created all magic and beautiful places on the Earth planet. And further you fell asleep and completely forgot about your Creations.»

You may ask Us: “ But the GOD Created the Earth and all growing plants, didn't He?». Yes, He did, but you trampled down and killed everything HE Created. There are few trees, plants and animals, who survived. But We don't mean that NOW. You all lived on your hectares and didn't have bulkheads, which are raising above the Earth NOW. You had your land, that felt and Loved you. You see, your land. Being greatly inspired, you Created magically magnetic, the most beautiful landscapes. We helped you by our examples. All the harmony in nature created by you and Us had multidimensional CONNECTION, which flew into the Spaces of Universes and Galaxies. NOW you are admiring not feeling this CONNECTION. Just understand, when a God-man Creates beautiful oasis on his land he Consciously creates CONNECTION with EVERYTHING that EXISTS and WILL EXIST, feeling multidimensional perception of the volume.

Do you feel what kinds of volumes?

And you enjoy the nature, misunderstanding, not feeling or sensing the CONNECTION, which covers multidimensionally EVERYTHING that EXISTS and WILL EXIST. Believe Us, no one enjoys feeling CONNECTION. But just amused with chaotic emotions, which wandered within your bodies. In connection with this We suggest recollecting your lands, which are yours by right.

You ask how?

Very simple, you just consciously want to recollect and further the energy will pass through your body, analysed by your brain, you will experience feelings, senses, emotions, pictures, you will understand you Reality. You will understand and feel that all your reincarnations is the one Real LIFE, which is never ending. You just need to wish to recollect and revive your multidimensional Space by right, which is never ending in its volume but just increasing, taking up new lines.

The situation is very difficult on the Earth. Why does it happen? And why, you, people, don't even want to know, not saying about realizing this information? Don't you know that the Earth could have gone under water 10 years ago. All of You could have gone to the non-existence. Do you see? We keep up the frequency of the Earth constant. And what are you doing ...? You know, even if there would be 3 men on the Earth, so, let it be. This is so indeed. NOW the moment in timelessness has come when just vegetating on the Earth leads to death, and people, named Maya, have warned you about it. And again you don't want to understand the sense of stated information. Let us consider the following situation, in which your bodies are staying subtle. Look, NOW We'll show where you are after leaving your physical body.

LOOK: you can see a dark-grey cloud, which is disappearing. Behind it there are silhouettes, that's We are waiting for you. Yes, We are always meeting you like this. Are you surprised? But We are not with you there, in the non-existence, because We are on our Planets. Right after going over You do not understand what is keeping you in the gathered state. Being conscious, You are looking around. There is nothing to be touched among you, it looks like the hellhole. But We have thought over, where to put every lost man. We are coming up to you and taking you by the hand, We are leading you to the Space of the Pine. You see this living tree and the light emitting from it, opens a Space, which can be touched and sensed in that moment of timelessness. We secure the Space of the Pine for each of you. This is your other home.

But look around, where are you?

You are on the Earth, not somewhere in the sky or on the Earth. This is your Real place after leaving you physical body. You may ask: "What is happening with the body after leaving it, or rather, going over”. Your bodies are not getting anywhere, this is your energy and it is gradually going over to you .

But, living on the Earth, you don` t even think about the destination of Pines. Your industry is cutting down these majestic trees without remorse. Do you know what is happening to you after destroying your other home? You have to be in the hell or, in other words, in the non-existence. But We caught and put everyone into another place, for example, into oaks or birches. And you revelled and meditated in their spaces about how to recollect on the Earth your being in the other Space of the tree, where you were. But what for, you didn` t completely understand. We prompted, saying: “ Recollect, you were here neither once nor twice, but infinite number of times. How long could you be asleep, people? Don` t you understand that you are losing yourselves more and more, and anyway you will have to gather yourselves and your re-incarnations into one endless LIFE? And that` s a lot of conscious work not for everyone, but for those, who wish their multidimensionally-collected state”.

We have showed you a secluded, illusory circle, which is chasing you ions of non-existent time. And you see, what is happening to you NOW is your Reality. Before his appearance on the Earth N. Azarov undertook mission to grow so many Pines in Ukraine, for all people to have enough Spaces of their Pines after going over to the subtle state. But he completely forgot about his promise and NOW people without homes are dying. They have to be staying in the non-existence. We are keeping them in the gathered state, but it is impossible for a man to feel himself in it. He seems to be alive and dead at the same time. It is difficult to explain, but you cannot be in such state. Look, what can happen because of insensible action of N.Azarov. We paved the way so that a man could get lines of consciousness. We warned everyone that if people don` t wish their multidimensional moving to themselves, a God-man, We shall leave such people. It means that people indifferent to themselves and to EVERYTHING that EXISTS will leave the Earth very quickly. But We shall not take care of them in the non-existence. In other words, We must place them into Spaces of Pines, and further We shall leave them for caring about themselves. And there are no Pines any more. Do you see? People are staying in the non-existence, without the Space of Pines they are staying in the chasm. We shall certainly keep them back from destruction, but these people will have to experience unpleasant feelings and senses for the first time in the history of the Earth. N. Azarov will also go with these people if he doesn't collect himself. But he will leave the non-existence only when all people, staying there, will appear on the Earth planet. He will find himself in a very difficult situation, and believe Us, there hasn't been anyone in this situation. But he will turn out to be guilty of everything he is able to correct. We shall certainly write him a letter with explanations for actions. Though he may not receive it, but only his beloved relatives will be guilty of it. And because of great love they may consider this letter to be nonsense, which is not worth receiving. It is interesting that they also will find themselves in the non-existence together with him. And then they will be at their wits' end, but ...

So, your love is like that, people. You somehow decide what is better or worse for another person. You are trying to solve a problem for another man, therefore not informing him of it. Doesn't that show you Love? Isn't that a respect of a man? No, it is not. It is the energy of possessiveness and it comes to rule over you. But it is not the energy of Love. How long could you live like that? How long could you live without Love? It is not possible, but you have managed to cut your Love off and all of you have stayed alone without ITS Light. And ITS light, you see, is highlighting you on the Earth, that is, must highlight. Eh..., what will you remain after yourselves, being on the Earth, people? You will be ashamed after realizing your deeds. NOW your lives are like vanity, which is tossing from side to side in order to find something it cannot understand. Feel, our dear, and sense the energy of information, which is highlighting in your bodies with a frequency of 1.5 milliseconds. But now your bodies don't disguise it any more, and trying mildly, will pass the new updated energy of information. Sense and distribute the information within your bodies. This is an exhilarating energy, but only when a man is conscious. And it is mortal when people are sleeping, not conscious of themselves.

Collect a man in you...

Stars! Look in the sky, they are free, aren't they? They exchange their information. Their light is going up to you. But what does it bring, have you ever thought about it? If you have, you will not be able to understand and comprehend what you have seen without feelings. And the Stars are highlighting the Living Spaces of God-men. There is such notion in timelessness: finding yourself again and again is always extending. It means that again I, again I and there will be no ending to this. Finding or acquiring may be different. In the Grey Vozreogra galaxy there is an interesting Planet named Svergradya. An amazing God-man - Samurai lives on this Living Planet. Samurai is not a Japanese name, and its meaning is not that common among people of the Earth. Samurai is a Spatial man, who strives for covering EVERYTHING, that EXISTS and EVERYTHING that WILL EXIST. This very Spatial man, being on the Svergradya planet, collected Love of two people in himself. Why did he do that? Just because his beloved friends lost themselves and their Love, and also lacked of ITS LIGHT, being on the Earth planet. Samurai had been thinking and comparing for a long time, before he CoCreated his Project on saving only two God-people. We save all mankind and all Universes, and he decided to save only two loving friends. You know... it is very short-sighted and narrowly. We warned him, but he didn't want to hear Us. Samurai appeared on the Earth with only one project on saving two people. We tried to extend him, saying that he must cover the whole Earth and mankind, as minimum, which will be never forgotten. But he didn't hear Us. Just because of this he completely lost himself. Before appearance on the Earth planet Samurai had CoCreated the Space, known as Japan. Yes, you haven't misunderstood, the country, named Japan is his Creation, shown on the Earth. And it was the only country he embodied in, but it is so unidimensional that, actually, by his embodiments Samurai drove his Space, named Japan into extremes. He forgot It, but the Space, Created by the God-man, cannot exist without Love and its owner's conscious understanding. He also closed his friends in the circle, from which the created project does not let them free. If to look at this situation unidimensionally and being in the timeless state, then Samurai`s Creation made an illusory circle, which imprisoned three people. And in such state, he appeared to be, there is not acquiring but forgetting. He decided to help but his help turned out to be fatal. And We are not able to put this situation right, he is the only one to do it. But he has lost himself so much that he doesn`t seem to be conscious. His Living Space, named Japan, is dying. Earthquake is only beginning, further the Japanese islands will go under deep water. And that is the death of God-man`s Space, who forgot not only himself but his Beloved Space, named Japan.

What did We mean? There are Spaces on the Earth, which are waiting for their owners. You may not understand that the Earth planet is divided into Living Spaces, which are waiting for their owners. But they do, and it is the truth, you haven`t been able realize before this moment HERE and NOW. This information has never been written down by anyone, because no man on the Earth thought about knowing and feeling EVERYTHING that EXISTS and WILL EXIST. Sergey will describe all the starting energy of information, which allows you not only to revive Love but find yourself, God-man, and your multidimensionally-volumetric Living Spaces. If you want, on the Earth or go over to your Planets, which are waiting for you. And this energy of information opens before you the first time after you have forgotten, who you are... We cannot understand, why people, who asked for knowledge and feelings, don`t want that. I can see only 105 people, who have accepted the energy of information HERE and NOW. And the main part of them are my close friends. Well, and the rest? You don`t want Living Life, do you? Don`t you want to take Living Life with your own multidimensional hands? We don`t want to understand these people, don`t want now. Before manifestation on the Earth all mankind had made agreements and the main point of the agreements was to find themselves as Spatial God-men. And what? No one, almost no one can hear Us. But you were begging Us about help, people! I believed you, but you...

Now don`t accuse Us of our heartlessness. Now, there is no need. Now you all will go over to the non-existence. For someone there is a Spatial place of a Pine or an oak, or a birch, in case of emergency. And the rest..., you will stay in the non-existence or chasm. It is terrible, and We don't understand you, why complicate it? Instead of resurrecting yourselves, your Love and living with Us multidimensionally and volumetrically, always extending, you kill yourselves. Well, you made your choice. But We, unlike you, begin to recollect and resurrect ourselves, by extending. In 2 non-existent years, Our bodies will be more than 2 metres tall. And you may ask Us: "But you said in the previous books that if there were 5% of all people on the Earth, only in that case, people would start to get missing organs and increase their height. Yes, We said that, but We wished many people to join Us, and again, as always, you disown the God. In this connection We have made a decision, which is HERE and NOW beginning to appear physically. Everyone, who joins the Lord, will extend with Us, and those, who have chosen their own direction, let them go nowhere, that's their choice. But We know, if they turn out to be in the non-existence, there will be many groans and cries about help. That's enough, people, the moment for you has come, to understand, and when you understand, you will find the way out. And We shall grow and get missing organs.

Just NOW Sergey can tell you about his pain in the region of the intestines and he feels like missing organs within his body. I shall tell you about his pain and the reasons. No, Sergey, they are not those pains, that is the mankind, who are staying in unidimensional thought in the closed illusory and time circle, and they don't want to leave it. That's they, who hurt you. But I told you more than once, that a moment in timelessness has come, when We do not any more hold or keep anyone back. I told, didn't I? And you again are pulling people, trying to get them out by force. Again, Sergey, you are making the same mistake, which you had already made when undertook all mankind's sins. Why should your heart ache for those, who don't want their Living Life? Why, tell Us? Isn't that nonsense? Leave them all free, it's time for that, Sergey, and don't worry for anyone, because Our joint CoCreation has entered into force. And now everything will be quite simple: those people who are in the joint Pace with Us, will recollect EVERYTHING that EXISTS and EVERYTHING that WILL EXIST. Now, Segey, start to look at your body differently, start seeing it light, and if you look attentively and all people with you are in the same Pace, you will see many branches, going from your heart and extending to many organs. Look, many new formations have appeared in the head except the brain, and they are connected with it. Look, my dear and beloved, as in the region of the heart the LIMINESCENCE has appeared and IT is not like the previous information I have described before. This is the CONNECTION, through which you will be able to go over to any place in Our Creating Spaces. This LIGHT always gives the Full, eternally extending energy of information, which is changing every moment. NOW this visible LIGHT is speaking to each of you. I opened IT for you. Listen and you will hear speech in your bodies:

«My dear, you all want the one or many, and this is the energy of information, which will resurrect not only you but also EVERYTHING in you that EXISTS and Will EXIST. HERE and NOW you will see Our joint work, which have been made during all history of the planet, named the Earth. You are able to see everything, that happened on the Earth for all its history».

Sergey, for example, has found himself at this moment of timelessness. He sees himself of 53 metres height, standing in the water. He is on the Earth, which is also in the water, and this is the first Flood, made by people of the Earth.

– What are you feeling NOW, SERGEY?

– I am being oppressed by devastation, pain and bitterness. It`s so hard to understand that there are no people on the Earth any more. They all have left IT.

– But look, where are all people of the Earth?

– They are all on the Planets, but not their own ones. We have taken them to their Living Planets, because they have nowhere to go. People forgot their Living Spaces and Loving Planets, when they appeared in the non-existence.

– And now say, Sergey, why are you in the water on the Earth planet at this moment of timelessness?

– I am warming the Earth, because It is Living and It is afraid. I am scared not for myself but for every growing and living thing on it. I am explaining It, that We, God-men, will resurrect everything, that lived and grew on It. But It is crying. I hadn't left IT till the moment It saw the grass on Its body and trees. And here are microorganisms and insects going into ITS body. The animals has joined too. Everything has brightened again.

– Tell, Sergey, why did you stay on the Earth, when everyone had left IT?

– This is my wish, You didn't agree with, because there is no Space for people in the sleepy state on the Earth. They had to be somewhere before their appearance on the prepared and Living planet.

– You, Sergey, at that moment of timelessness didn't want to receive people on your Velenokgrozdya planet. And that was only your choice. We understood you and your intention. You wanted to bring back EVERYTHING into the previous state. And to populate the Earth. We wanted the same. But you decided if you would be on the Earth and warm IT, the harmonious appearance of all lost things on the Earth would be bigger. And We saw in this your devotion to the Earth. You couldn't accept what had happened. Zar, You were Loving at that moment of timelessness and NOW is Loving the Earth and everything on it. You were standing up to your chest in water and controlling the process, which gave birth to the harmony on the Earth. Three more God-men will follow Your example at a certain moment of timelessness, and We shall describe it in the next books. And NOW everyone, who is reading this book, can see himself in the Reality as Sergey did. But do not just look through or recollect, write down on the paper everything you saw, and I shall help you. It is very important not only recollect, but understand Yourself and you feelings consciously, which are always with you in timelessness. But you forgot yourselves, not understanding or feeling your senses. NOW and only HERE I am opening YOU, sensible people, your feelings and senses in the Reality of the moment. It is important, very important for you not only recollect yourselves but feel Real senses and feelings. It is very important for you to understand what We are saying NOW. Believe Us, it is very important. And in this connection let`s consider what We mean by way of Sergey`s example.

When living on the Earth he was looking for Me, feeling that the surrounding him life was bigger and more variable. Because of this, with every embodiment on the Earth, Sergey is always in search of multidimensionality and Reality. And he was always fighting with “the death”, realizing its non-existence. He was afraid of “the death”, when he didn`t understand how to avoid it, and he was always finding the way out. And you see, he always managed to do it, because he has thought over in the infinity HERE and NOW his being, in case if Avatar, his eternal Divine body, will not be able to see and feel him. We have described it earlier. Manifestating on the Earth again and again, Sergey had to wake up. He was always planning his embodiments, but fell asleep after his appearance on the Earth. Why? Partly because of laziness, lack of many organs in his body, by way of which he could embrace more etc. But he was always trying to live extensionally. Feelings and senses – are the main components by which he could recollect himself. Real himself. To recollect in order to find yourself and continue living consciously and multidimensionally, being in all volume. Just his feelings and senses are always striking in him, but he couldn`t use them in full. But he knows for sure that feelings burning in his heart push him into multidimensionality and the volume of our beloved Father. Sergey managed to go out into Reality more than once, that`s why I am not worried about him. I am worried about you, my dear and Beloved friends. Sergey knows that re-connecting with himself is not difficult, he just needs to want it and accept the energy of information easily and without embarrassment. And then, suddenly... BOOM! Yes!!! Hello, Universes, here I am, complete God-man, feeling and understanding and, above all, sensible. But it is so important for you to understand why you are resurrecting yourselves and your multidimensional Mother, named Love. Without understanding you will not manage anything however you wanted it. Is it possible to want without sound understanding? This is the basis you must have. Realization and consciousness, and no one will be able to keep you back...

Now everything is speeding up so quickly, feeling the Pace, and you should keep up with it. For example, everything that was inaccessible might be the past, and you will lose the Pace. There is no inaccessible thing, that is why when feelings and senses come to you, it is necessary to get to the point at once, without thinking. Physical expression of your feelings and senses is not a difficult art. People do not pay attention to the energy of feelings and senses, and how wrong it is! We are eager to explain to every man of the Earth and We are shouting: This is your emergence. Because, being next to you, feelings have no restrictions or ending. And it is so pity when you see the mankind, who from time to time avoid their feelings and senses, which show the sense in you. You see... that`s not hard to recollect yourself. That`s like an interesting game, but you should know the rules and will be able to play. And the rules are simple, not difficult at all. NOW We are going to explain them.

Look: I am in front of you, strolling playfully down wind, showing light and joy. I am wearing a white sun-dress. You see Me out of Space, but you could see Me in My Space, because I am existing everywhere with the LIGHT. NOW I'll show you by feelings how to recollect yourself, the God-man, without embarrassment and playing. Look, each of you is in volumetric flows of energy, being on the Earth. These flows are multifunctional and multiconstructional, you are being tightly connected with them by feelings and senses. There is a great amount of flows producing the energy of EVERYTHING EXISTING. The energy of EVERYTHING EXISTING is the REALITY, which is always active and changeable, as It has nothing to do with bounds and restrictions. NOW You are able to understand the game rules, which will help you to feel the parts of yourselves. You should mainly understand and then let in the consciousness that everything is LIVING and has its Rythmical breath. You see, all energies are Living and have their unique rhythm. Try to understand that any collected energy IS a LIVING thing, which fills you, being inside and outside your body. Thus there IS

EVERYTHING in you, that EXISTS and WILL EXIST. You ARE the ABSOLUTE. Do you know where is the God-man, you have forgotten?

Think about it...

He is in you, of course, in each of you. And it is so easy to understand, that I cannot refrain from saying the following: if you realize everything expressed by feelings and said by Me, each of you will wake up in a flash. You cannot even imagine the beauty of Our Creating Spaces. You all will see THEM. And then you will start the Real Life consciously.

Yes, right NOW you are able to collect yourselves, God-men, and become my equals.

And if a God-man is in each of you, why don't you show him? Just think, what can prevent you from showing the God in yourselves? Nothing! Nothing can stop you! So that to show a God-man in yourselves you should only reveal your Real, constantly extending, feelings and senses, which ARE the link with you. Just know, you need your Real feelings and senses. That means, you should loudly make your speech which expresses your wish and action.

Do you understand?

Well! Come on, start. Your speech must be Spatial, that is, conscious. I would like you to make your own speech with inspiration. But if it is hard to feel yourself and express your wish, I will help you. Before making your multidimensional speech set your mind on Me and I will help you. We are collecting you, and I feel all of you, My dear! People, you see, not all of them want to recollect who they really are. They "Die" and come into the world again and again, losing themselves more and more. And what might happen, when a man, who is constantly regenerating, will never want his multidimensional and conscious nature? Such man might stay in the non-existence forever. NOW, for the first time during the Earth existence, resurrection of EVERYTHING that EXISTS and WILL EXIST is happening, as a result, all mankind, want they or not, will appear in the energy of EVERYTHING that EXISTS, and those are not energies, which endure misunderstanding from anyone. And to appear from non-existence people will have to accept the Reality and conscious state. You see, anyway, the mankind will have to accept themselves as God-men. And those, who do not understand or want participate in the general Universal Project, will not be able to regenerate on the Earth. And this is Reality. For some people light will be the light and darkness for others. And whatever they say, being in the non-existence, We are saying NOW and only HERE: You, people of the Earth, have a chance not just stay on it, but be conscious and happy by way of eternally extending volume. And those, who do not want conscious state, well, then it was their choice, which you HAVE since the first origin of your extensional soul.

Thus, NOW let`s show understanding that you are made of energies of EVERYTHING, that EXISTS and WILL EXIST. What do WE mean? People are in the habit of material thinking. And the matter is always constant for people. But that isn`t so. If you observe the decay of an apple or any animal. What will you see? These, of course, are not pleasant examples, but vital, and many are making a face NOW saying that the apple is disappearing and the moment of timelessness is coming, when it is disappearing from the visible world, as animals are. What is happening? Modification of energy, which filled up the apple and animals. But nothing disappears anywhere, because the God had already calculated and collected EVERYTHING. We have already mentioned that the matter has three states. Do you remember? But there are even more states and We are showing you all states of energy. And We want you to pay attention to the fact that the energy, filling something or somebody, except people, doesn`t have its continuation. But you and only you have the energy, or to say it right, the collection of energies, which never disappear in any way. There are lot`s of energy combinations. And you must participate in their collecting. NOW Sergey is confused, not because of misunderstanding but the great volume of information he sees. He is confused, thinking about writing it down and not missing anything. But I shall tell you in advance that this state is the restriction of itself. Why? Because everything is always changing with frequency 1.5 milliseconds. And the energy you missed is old enough. Do you understand, what I am explaining to you? You are still thinking unidimensionally, not understanding that the readers are able to see that you saw, but each of them will observe it at their moment of timelessness. And at those moments the energy of information will be newly-added, and hence new. We have wandered from the thread of the story to show you how fast are the processes in the general Creating Space. Well then, how could you participate in the general Creating Space? How to collect certain kinds of energies into one incompatible Creation? You should be active yourselves, be in your body, and also behind it. Be HERE and THERE, where your thoughts are realized and at the same time it would be a good thing to cover EVERYTHING that EXISTS and WILL EXIST. For example, you would like to create an animal unknown on Our Creating Spaces, you should give it not only definition but the destiny too, then consider the balance of EVERYTHING that EXISTS and make your creation without losing the energy of Spaces, consider constantly changeable, natural balance. To make your creation. The energies, which fill up your creation, will be joined with your Spatial vision and EVERYTHING that EXISTS. Such a simple process it is!

Tell us... the energy or energies, do you feel when the wind is blowing and the leaves are rustling, and the grass is playing with them? Looking at that you are saying: “ I feel so good and easy that I want to fly!” Yes... But why don't you pay attention to the energies in them? The energies, filling up all visible things in the nature, want to talk to you. Their eternally changeable state was specially created to make you happy. Just think: so that the grass growing in your gardens played with the rhythm of the wind, it should consider and feel everything growing not just next to you, but also in the areas ruled by the energy of the wind. And it is eternally changeable, it is constantly in the work, which is holding the Rhythm of many plants and trees. And you, people, do not want to value this hard work. You should learn, or rather, recollect, how to talk to everything growing on the Earth and not only on It. You should participate in general process of nature. And the majority of people, going to the forest in order to have a rest, just vampire the energy, which is given to you, for example, by plants, trees and water.

Energies... Everything around you consists of them, and you too. But why do you think about them so primitively, unidimensionally and monotonously? We want to give an example of the incident, which happened in the city familiar to everyone, Kaliningrad.

The girl, named Margaret, lives in this city. She is 5 NOW. Her mum, Sveta, is a very good person, but she thinks unidimensionally and restrictedly. Margaret has just told her mum about the deer, who talked to her. But Svetlana, thinking her own thoughts, just echoed playfully and stupidly to her daughter. But if she had listened to the sense, conveying by Margaret... And she was saying the following:

– Mum, today I was talking to the deer, his name is Goros. And he told me about a further country Uzorbiya. You know, Mum, I somehow thought it to be very familiar and native to me. Goros told me that if I want to get there, it will take me to that place. And I wanted, mum, you know, it is so beautiful that I wanted to take you there too. And..., what would you say? - pulling Svetlana`s blouse sleeve, Margaret was waiting for the answer. Svetlana looked at her daughter and just said: “ Let me see”. And Margaret continued:

– There is nothing to see, mum, I am saying that the country is so beautiful and interesting and I do wish to show it to you. Everyone and everything can speak in that wonderful country. Just imagine, mum! You haven`t seen such things yet.

Svetlana gave up her thoughts and reasked her daughter:

– What are you saying?

– Let`s go, mum, I shall show you the way to Paradise, EVERYTHING is so fine and beautiful and my father is still waiting for you there.

– What are you saying, Margaret, what father? We do not have a father, he left us.

– Well no, mum, not that father but another, all-embracing father, who Loves you.

– Ooh..., Svetlana breathed out slowly, – look, I do not know where you have caught it, but... Yes, I understand, you need to grow up a little,- Sveta broke off her speech, pulled Margaret`s sleeve and drew her to the lift. Margaret looked at her mum sadly again and said:

– You know, you will live alone, without father, if you do not listen to me.

Svetlana kept silent.

–But I do want to have a father, I want Happiness and be always cheerful. And you know... I shall be Happy, whether you like it or not!

The lift stopped, Svetlana got off, taking her daughter by the hand, and at that moment she looked into her daughter`s eyes, it made her feel creepy all over, the tears cascaded down her cheeks because she was overfilled by feelings, senses and emotions, she had never had for all her life. She felt so pleasant and free and at that moment she said to her daughter:

– You know, my princess, take me to your magic country, I agree.

This is a real story, showing you the CONNECTION, which is in everyone of us. The country, shown by the deer, is a true world, where harmony and multidimensional state of all people are revealed in timelessness. In this country everyone and everything can not only communicate but exchange the vital warmth of Our Mother, Love. This country is in the Reality, We are taking you into. In this country everything lives its breathtaking life, and every moment is dawned by thoughts, dreams and creation. HERE and NOW this country is appearing on the Earth, and no one is able to prevent it. Daniel Andreev was speaking about this country in his work “The Rose of the World”, but he has just briefly described it. This is the country of Happiness, Joy and Love, which gives you permanent day, not night. There is no night, it doesn`t exist, does it? Do you know about that incontestable fact? Creating the visible Universe, the God didn`t think about night and HE didn't create it. Do you understand? But you will certainly ask Us again, saying that your eyes somehow meet non-existent night every day. Yes, our dear, NOW your Love is not highlighting you and we told you about it. But you will see a permanent day, when only three God-men open the light of Love in themselves and then...

The Earth, having opened her eyes, will shine in the sun. And looking at IT, its sister, the Moon, will get its true lines of light.

What can be better than freedom of living Light?

How much should we say, people... the darkness was thought out and introduced into your life.

The Love was pushed aside by you. And only because of this the darkness opened its eyes by shadow.

And We are always saying: Let there be light!

And that's Mother Love who highlights the Light. Revive Love, our dear people of the Earth. And you should also learn to go over from one state of the physical sense into another.

What do We mean?

There are 2 states of the physical body, I am being in, and the Jesus was.

The first is the state of weightlessness.

You may wish to lose your weight, that is, reduce it, and your weight will have no gramme. Why do you need it? This state will explain to you much. Being in this state, We are able to dissolve our bodies. I told Sergey that if I want, I shall dissolve my earth body and go over to my Zelushta Planet, and you will stay on the Earth without me. The attractive power will not keep you back when you learn to be in the weightless state. It makes your body transparent and your body cannot be seen. You feel freedom in you and it is impossible to express into words. Being in this state, the man is able to do much, for example, to stop the numerous army of bandits, who want to kill you and take away your lands. When it was necessary I did the following. Saint Assumption Pochayev Lavra keeps the notes about 50 thousand turkish-tartarian army, ruled by Nurredin Khan, that approached Pochayev. Being in the weightless state, I resisted an enemy attack, though that was no hardship to take them out from their physical bodies. But I remained alive those, who repented at that moment of timelessness.

Sergey can tell you about Moses, who led the slaves out of Egypt and the sea parted to let them pass. Being in the timelessness, Sergey was acquainted with Moses and also knew him in that incarnation. At that moment Sergey was the main commander of Egypt, he was on the other side and didn't sustain him, loving and feeling CONNECTION with him at that. At that very moment of timelessness he saw Moses's state in front of the parted sea. Moses was in the weightless state. His body was half-transparent and Sergey saw that. He was the first among the Egyptian army, who came up to Moses to kill him. But he couldn't, because I was Moses myself and he recognized Me. The wave of memories surged on him and inflamed the light in his heart. But tell Me, Sergey, why didn't you change sides after you had recollected much? Why did you prefer to die instead of helping Me. Then you just left this world. You knew that an unusual state of the sea would not last long and entered the tunnel so that "to die". And I was shouting to you: "Wait, don't go, because I wish you to stay as I need you." Why did you do that?

– My heart ached, because I recognized You. I couldn't stand that I hardly killed the most precious person in my life and also in all Universes and Galaxies. You. Do you understand?

– Yes, Sergey, I remember everything. And I understand that everything may be changed and corrected...

We have wandered from the thread of the story but only in order to give you understand: the weightless state may become accessible and it is so easy, not difficult, like breathing.

To begin with, you should join your Divine body Avatar. Next, through it you should feel the CONNECTION with EVERYTHING that EXISTS. You will have feelings of fullness, all-embraceness and all-extension. This infinite sensing will let you BE in EVERYTHING that EXISTS and BE within the earth body at the same time. This is the state of weightlessness, by way of which you can carry mountains, rivers, seas and oceans. You should feel deeply this state in order to know it and NOW I shall help each of you to feel it. So, let`s start.

LOOK: I am here in front of you. NOW my right hand is showing to the side, pointing on the Planet. Here IT is, my Zelushta, and my Divine body is on IT. Look and try to feel deeply what I am showing you NOW. NOW you see my Earth body, which has disposed to My Planet, where is My supreme I, that is Divine body. The terrestrial body disposes and runs into Divine body. In the previous books I have already told you how to feel the Divine body. When you joined the Divine body, you must ask it to dispose to EVERYTHING that EXISTS, WILL EXIST. And now try to feel deeply the senses, I shall pass you.

You are feeling the sea tide and the light of the Universe. You know that Light, you are feel IT within your body. That Light tells you about the Kinship and Divine Connection, which connects EVERYTHING that EXISTS in EVERYTHING that EXISTS. And you understand that all seas, rivers, oceans, insects, animals, mountains etc. are living within you. But that is not all. Besides, you have feelings of the totality of ALL summed up energies in different combinations of EVERYTHING that EXISTS. And through feeling, sensing the Life of EVERYTHING in yourself, you are able to carry, sum up and separate all possible variants of energies. Redispose, redistribute etc. these very energies. It is not difficult if you understand, feeling that EVERYTHING in you is a man...

The second state We shall explain, is the state, in which a man dissolves his terrestrial body.«For what?», – you will ask. To go over to your Planet and enter Avatar - his Divine body. Avatar will be able to see you only in the state, in which the energy of your terrestrial body remains with you. Holy people were always embalmed for them not be able to appear on the Earth. Do you understand now, why? Because the energy of the terrestrial body must always be with you, this is the part of your soul, and Avatar is your full soul, but without the energy of your body. When you go over into Avatar, you collect into one integral, eternally extending state. And when a man of the Earth is embalmed, the part of the energy of your soul is closed. Before leaving We always dissolve our bodies, remaining just a pearl or a diamond as a memory about us. Multidimensionality and the volume of a God-man consist of such things. Vatican was built on the energy of a diamond, which remained after Mother of God, that is Me. Vatican's Popes themselves are nobody without My energy. They think unidimensionally, stand for ceremonies, try to glorify themselves, but in vain. I take my diamond, which was kept in their abode. I gain all energies of information and all energy, left on the Earth. I shall redistribute energies in other multidimensional variants all over the world. Ukraine will be the centre of EVERYTHING that EXISTS and WILL EXIST. An Unusual world view, Life, creation, Happiness, Joy, Love and immortality are originating here. The Light will come down and spread over the Earth. Take in the vital energies, my dear people. I am redistributing them...

NOW the moment is coming on the Earth, when everyone who wishes conscious life, will get feelings and senses leading to the eternal NOW. This eternal NOW is filled with eternally extending, multidimensional and volumetric possibilities. You just have to learn to feel and sense the energy of information of EVERYTHING that EXISTS and an unusual, creative world will be opened before you. The world with no "death", illusions and lie, consisting of Life, filled with eternally extending, inspiring projects. The Life, illuminated by your Love, which is filling and extending you up to the infinity. The Life, taking your breath away by the great and light feelings every moment. The Life, which shows you harmony. And it is happening just now on the Earth. Now let's learn to feel and develop senses together. Listen to your body, what do you feel? Sergey, for example, says, that many pleasant and unpleasant processes are taking place in his body. Let`s consider his feelings and senses.

Look, NOW I shall show in pictures and give sensing of the processes, felt by Sergey. At this moment of timelessness his heart is aching and crying, for him to improve his relations with wife. His heart got free from illusion and flow into the Pace of all Paces. His body admitted multidimensional energy of information and sustained IT. Feelings and senses in his heart are highlighted by Love and it means that he must learn to join his wife`s and his own Spaces, creating the joint living Space. And that`s not all yet!

Wake up, Sergey! You know that if you keep away from your life you will become a sclerosed man. You will lose yourself and it means that you are not the inhabitant of the Earth, such people will not be able to survive, and you know it. And it is strange. It is strange that Sergey knows: to live you don`t have to hide yourself from life, but participate in the extension of life and also yourself. It is very important to understand for many people and by way of example We are showing you Sergey, who lives in the wrong way, as you mustn`t do. That`s a big mistake, made by many people on the Earth. Sergey knows that it is necessary to cover all spheres of life and not be involved into the only one. But knowing it, he made a mistake, which could be fatal for him. He involved himself into one certain field. Being inspired with it, he began to lose himself and became a robot. Such people can be easily ruled, if it gives advantage to someone. Such people will give their lives in the name of the one field, and it is very sad. You are much more wider than any field. Do you understand, Sergey? You are the man, aren`t you? And the man must take up his decision only after considering many moments of life. A man is able to live, being extended physically and spiritually. Physically, you see? And what did you do? You wrote 5 books and didn`t even live them in full. You didn`t..., if you lived, you would have become happy in the collected state, but now, you are at a loss. You have been living without feeling the Earth`s before. You were flying somewhere, but not on the Earth. Everything will change for you and for the first time you will feel your life in full. Because you will not be able to live differently.

This mistake can be made by many people. Many are involved into one or several spheres of life and are trying to live in such way. Then they have feelings of loneliness and limited perception in their bodies, and further – depression. It so happens in life that people lose their favourite work or precious friends, or may be, sweethearts, and their life is ended. After this such people usually do not see themselves in life, and it is sad. We are appealing to you: extend your fields in many directions and extend yourselves, then your life will never be ended. Your multidimensional fields will not disappear anywhere, they will become a part which will be always felt and known by you. You will certainly ask Us to tell or make examples of these multidimensional fields. And We, in our turn, shall make examples from Our lives. We are always developing. We are dancing or learn to dance, knit, sew, paint pictures, feel the Earth, plant harmoniously fruits and vegetables in our gardens and many, many other things. And now tell us, how can we be depressed with such a great variety of fields? And in your lives job takes the first place and occupies all your life. Many people are absorbed in their job, which is senseless if to look at it sensibly. But you will certainly say that your job gives you life, because you make your living with this very job. So, you are all like these. Learn to feel and sense your destination. Many people, having manifested on the Earth, had their aims, which became forgotten by you. Every man on the Earth may be provided with all necessary things, but you should feel what to do for that. You have had those feelings before and knew what to grow or make, so that to exchange your creation with someone for something you need. You exchanged goods on the fairs without any money and were free from slavery and senseless job, which gives you money and takes away the most important, your lives. You have lived as your soul wished before, but not as your democratic state did. Eh, you lived so happily, that we want to show you the pictures of events you lived in, not tried to live..

Look: here are the Vakudinnovs going to the fair on their own collected vehicle. The vehicle, made by this family, doesn't need fuel and takes its energy from the surrounding fluxes on the Earth. Inside this vehicle there is a ball the size of the wheel, the swarm of flies(like ants, bigger and with the wings) inhabited it after the family`s invitation. These little ones with the wings feel all fluxes of energies, focused on the Earth, which are able to move great weight. Their vehicle has no wheels, it simply floats and diving into Space of living nature, is able to turn up anywhere on the Earth. But it can also swim at any distance from the ground and carry its owners smoothly. Here are four people going to the fair in order to exchange it for a great number of embroidered dresses and warm, nice fur-coats. Here is the unique fair! There is always an unusual atmosphere here, it is very interesting and vivid. Many craftsmen in different fields are coming here to exchange their goods and share experience with others. Idlers have never been here, because everyone found an occupation for himself. Different competitions were organized for children to show themselves. Boys and girls found their other halves, playing games and leading the choral dance. And skillful craftsmen could exchange various innovations with each other. It was an exciting event and everyone was looking forward to the appointed day and all people gathered in one place. Fairs were often, that`s why people prepared their innovations thoroughly and with great enthusiasm. People could feel desires of others and prepared their inventions or embroidered, for example, new fashions of clothes for certain people. That`s why We do want you to learn to feel and sense each other. Only in this way the mankind will be able to get free from the slavery of job, slavery of democratic state and slavery of themselves. We do wish all people to become free and extensional. And you know, what is interesting, you can always continue your affairs after coming back on the Earth. You can even appear in the same families and wear the same clothes, made by you before your leaving, and this is your wish, you are able to fulfil. Everyone of you is able to remember all previous lives, it means that Reality and timelessness will come to you. For this you need to know how to live forever, through feeling and sensing. Through feelings precisely you will be able to know not only listed above but EVERYTHING. Because of misunderstanding you can ask Us: "What is it like, to know EVERYTHING, feeling? And We are opening a Space of knowledge for you, which is always extending. You cannot even imagine how big and extended this Space is. Or rather, We are not opening but disclosing that you always knew, feeling and sensing. If you want to know, We know nothing, but We can feel, and through sensing know EVERYTHING. Something like that, our dear and beloved people. Everything turns out to be simple and easy. Just learn to feel and sense and then you will open a storehouse of knowledge, all Universes are illuminated by. Make your decisions through feelings. You can be God-men only through feelings and senses. But your feelings and senses must be highlighted by Avatar and only in this case the information in your bodies will be right. If you don't involve your Avatar, your senses will be completely wrong. Avatar is always waiting for you on your Planet, and your Planet should be always taken into account. The Star, which is illuminating your Planet must be visible to your sight, that is why every morning you must come up to the window and looking deeply into the distance, find your Star, then Planet and Avatar, we have already told you. When you see your Avatar, you can enter It and feel, sensing information, which fills your terrestrial body in. And if you have an unsolved problem you must feel deeply the information, repeating all the listed actions. Then you will find the solution of any task and problem. Seeing and sensing your Avatar, when leaving the Earth, you can know how to dissolve your terrestrial body and go over into your Avatar, situated on your Planet. Then, you are able to plan your emergence on the Earth and your birth again, but still remembering yourself and something you came with. You can and you are able to know EVERYTHING you wish, our dear. And every man, leaving on the Earth NOW, is able to do that! And nothing can stop you, except your disbelief, laziness and sleep, but if are able to overcome it, nothing will prevent you from becoming yourself in the volume of Universes. NOW you are reading and thinking: "Can we really do that?". And We shall say: "You could always do that, when remembered yourself!", - and We shall add, - "That's enough losing yourself and being in the non-assembled state." Tell Us, if to strip down the car and look at it, what will you see? You will see a junk heap, which has nothing common with a car, as they say, in working condition. Isn't it so? The same is about the mankind, which are sleeping NOW, being in the non-assembled state. We do want you to be in the collected and working state. Let us look through our lives and try to recollect them. As you were collected and knew EVERYTHING in one of your lives, that's true. You lived on the Earth and were

God-men on the feeling you hectare. And that feeling hectare hasn't disappeared anywhere, it is waiting for your emergence on it, being on the Earth. Your hectare of the land can tell much about you and give feelings and senses, with which you knew EVERYTHING. I shall help each of you to see and understand where is only your land NOW. He, who wants, will certainly understand where to go in order to become a God-man. But We are warning you: being in a hurry, you can get to the wrong place and time can also destroy your desire to find yourself. So We advise you to feel easily where to go to the meeting, you will be waited impatiently at. I can help you to find your hectare, just be in one mood with Me and see with your spiritual sight everything I'll show you. Further you will certainly know where to go. We call it "collecting yourself".

Sleep. What is happening with you in your sleep, when you fall asleep at night or midday? In your sleep you might feel the light appearance of energies. In your sleep you might be in the incorporeal state, but with full-strength look. In your sleep you might be cured or, on the contrary, sick. In your sleep you might work through and solve many problems or get them. In your sleep you might see Me and hear my hints. In your sleep you have the right to fly to you own Planets and come back to the Earth. So what kind of a sleep is that, we are being in every day, when we fall asleep? We have already mentioned about the body's states and their multitude. And We have already described the state, by which your body and you are falling asleep. But there are some additions, you need to know. Look, that's what we get. Every day you fall asleep, some of you do it more than once. And where are you going? Where are you falling or going over? You might know that before the God created the visible Universe, nothing had been seen but the life had existed. Or rather there had been many energies, not connected but communicated with each other. They expressed their ideas and watched their creations. Esoterics call it the revealing by subtle world. But they miss much or do not want to hear Us. Thereby NOW We are going to describe this world in other colours, which are Real. Look: there is a great number of energies, sating our Creating Space. They are also surrounding the Earth and all existing Solar systems. We call this accumulation of energies Our Creating Space, where the extension is taking place by means of Our help. This Creating Space had only one level and everyone could enter it. But people, who forgot themselves and fell asleep, made their own level, which broke away from the extending Creating Space. This is the level, you are being in, and this level covers just your sleeping existence after breaking away from EVERYTHING and it is a complete circuit, which always has only one radius, hence it is not extending. While falling asleep, you enter this very Space, which cannot be called Creating. In this Space you will work through the troubles, which you got into, while breaking away from Our Creating Space. That is the same circle of illusion and time, you meet in your physical state. You see and control yourself in the physical state but you(not everyone) cannot do it in the broken away Space and get into troubles. These stupid states are not accidentally revealed while you are sleeping, as there is no time or restrictions in you, when you are in such state. Hence all your lives you were in a sleep, are revealed in you. The recklessness you had in all your lives, is also being with you at the moment. After awaking you are saying to yourself: "It is so strange that I did that in my sleep, that wasn't like me." But this is not altogether true. That's you and your actions, which must be balanced and harmonized. We are going down, or rather, entering your broken away space and trying to create harmony and balance you. We are trying to lead you to the truth of Existence and take you back to Our general Creating Space. In your dreams We are working with you and trying to regulate the events, in which you could physically understand and change yourself. For each of you We are able to create the events, you get into being on the Earth, if you need it. And We do that because of Love to everyone. Unfortunately you do not pay attention to the events, are afraid and profane our help and hard work. So, the result is this: you are always and everywhere restricted by yourself, whatever state you are in, and We are always in extension and general Creating Space. We always control ourselves when going over into different states of our body and you do not do that. You are liable to spontaneity and narrowness, and We don't know these states at all. Just few people are able to leave that broken away space and feel the volume, which is always extending. And having awoken in the morning, these feelings will not disappear anywhere, they are always staying in your body and warming you by its healing heat. And what states, except sleep, are accessible to you, which you have never paid attention to? For example, the state of all-penetrability. This state is always near you, but you don't even know about its existence. All-penetrability, what does it mean? You might consider it to be very strange, that you are always entering this state, misunderstanding what's happening with you. You will certainly ask, when was that? We shall answer you, that always, when you are going to bed, you are entering that state. It is not a dream, just before it, when you are about to fall asleep. You might notice that, when you are falling asleep another reality is happening with you. But you somehow consider that to be the product of your imagination. No, that's not so, while staying up you can be in the same state. You just have to relax and feel the coming information, it may be collected in your head and perceived by way of the pictures. But it is necessary to be able to filter them. The chaotic information will be within your head without filtration, and will not be able to understand anything. But when it is a conscious process, you will be able to enter any place not only on the Earth but on other Galaxies. «What's all this for?», – you will ask. When a man is not indifferent and is eager to be in EVERYTHING that EXISTS, he should know and feel EVERYTHING that EXISTS not only on the Earth, but, as We have already said, on other Galaxies. Being in this state, you will be able to see the real picture of the place, you want to enter. If necessary to take your physical body into that place, you will be able to know how to do this by way of your feelings and senses of EVERYTHING. NOW many of you will certainly ask to tell about working with this state and We will not refuse that. Look, at first, when you are going over into your sleep, the state, We were talking about, is coming to you. At this moment you are able to ask you body not to fall asleep, and take you into appointed place.

It is clear that everyone has it's own place. Then you should observe and feel that your brain will show. You will be able to smell that place and see the real picture. You should know that you are still there: in the appointed place. You may walk in that place and have a good look at it. Next time you might not only look but take part in harmonization and development of everything. You can even prompt to the people living there, everything you consider to be important. But you should know that it is necessary to take part in harmonization of everything seen by you. These are just primary conceptions, the first page of information for you. But when you feel at home and begin to take part in the events on the Earth, you will understand that life must be always created, not waited for. If to let things drift there will not be any life, everything will be destroyed. A man must watch over everything, feeling and taking part in it. There is no other way. In this connection We suggest your taking responsibility and creating life for yourselves, then for your family, and watching over the life creation on the Earth. In this case your life will depend on you. And it is important for you to know: to make your life real, not accidental, you should feel information within yourselves and define well your wishes and emotions, connected with it. You should learn to feel yourselves and it is very important. On the whole the mankind doesn't belong to itself, it means, doesn't feel itself at all. Such people can be easily ruled and directed as you wish. And priests always used you, that you couldn't even notice. But when you found YOURSELVES, everything changed fundamentally. You always knew what and when to do, to make your life conscious. You might need real-world examples to understand how to be in the collected state.

Let us consider collection by way of the author's example. Sergey is understanding that he is in the non-collected state at the moment. He understood that from the events happening in his life. He is deeply concerned about that, and I am telling him: "It's very good that you see yourself non-collected, not full and this is the state, in which feelings and senses are not perceived". In such non-collected state you are not able to realize your life and it is throwing you from side to side, and this process is always chaotic. But a man just has to understand and show all realized by him, and the life will completely change. All of a sudden a man begins to know, feel and sense EVERYTHING. Now the decisions are made when the following situation was felt deeply by a man. We have been making decisions before instead of a man, feeling deeply the following situation. But now you are able to take care of yourselves, if you are in the collected state. How to be in the collected state and feel the following situation yourself? Everything is quite simple. At first you must let in the situation into your body. Then the body will prompt you its senses and you will understand the right decision of something you were planning. But your mind mustn't get off to leading positions, it must collect and concentrate the feelings your body will feel deeply. And it is so simple and easy, just amazing, that no one on the Earth knows about this information. It is strange, why do people want to give themselves into someone else's hands and just wait the realization of something thought by those people? But that someone is not always with the purest intentions and no wonder. Tell us, why do you give your parts into someone else's hands? Don't you want to be yourselves and rule your own lives? You just have to want that and everything will change. Sergey is understanding that he will start his life after collecting HIMSELF. And then he will start the Real life. But he is still living through certain events to get rid of distortions and substitutions. When this rubbish is thrown away, people of the Earth will see the real light, which informs them about the savagery of EXISTENCE.

Collecting of yourselves. Let's consider it from a different angle. Look, what is happening: you, everyone of you, is eager to live with a sense and that unknown sense was searched by many people, for example, Hippocrat. But he knew another reality, not available for others, but he couldn't penetrate into it. In that another reality he felt the lines of a real life. In his works he made examples, which roughly divided Spaces into "bad and good". He divided Spaces but couldn't understand up to the end what he was dealing with. This division is unusual to the nature and EVERYTHING that EXISTS. It is a big mistake to divide as Hippocrat did and We told him about it, if only he had understood... Hence if to hold the Hippocratic theory, you won't go any far, it is like marking time, because he didn't feel the Real Reality or events, which are never ending. And all your appearances on the Earth are in this Reality. He watched many realities, which used to be, in his opinion, and that was a big mistake, because Reality is always the one in all extensional accommodation and exposure. His theory is fundamentally wrong, because of misunderstanding that truth, but only because he didn't manage to feel deeply the information with the body, which could inform him about the parts of himself, thrown in the one endless Reality. Further Hippocrat's followers, not feeling anything, divided many realities into only two. They affirmed that one reality is "before" and another one is "after". They thought in this way: everything that happens with people is the reality itself. But they mixed the time into their thoughts and there were 2 realities. The first – before the events, the second – after the events. It is a very primitive and wrong opinion, which removed people from the truth of EXISTENCE so far. People became material, unconscious of themselves and not feeling the spirit. And that is because the Real Reality, which could give the mankind opportunity to find themselves, was cut off. We can find other examples, which would let you understand, how important it is to find yourselves in the general Creating Space.

Still I would like to draw your attention to the following distortion. There are some frames on the Earth, forming the notion of spirituality, which lead people away far from the truth. Why? Most people, living on the Earth, somehow, observe spirituality only in people, wearing cassocks or special religious clothes, it depends on the country you live in. And in people's opinion, it expresses that very spirituality, which can be found to the ends of the world. People can still see the embodiment of spirituality in life abandonment. We mean celibacy, solitary life etc. Eh, if only you had known, in what way those destitutions harmed "religious" people. They blacken themselves beyond recognition. Ask, why? Everything is very simple – people, denying some parts of their life, are catching demons and have to fight against them. It is disgusting, because We see everything. These denying themselves people torture themselves and think that they are getting closer to God. But it is not so, such postulants harm the God, because He is always in joy and happiness and in Love not only to all surroundings in many Spaces, but also to his other half. Sex, which is needed by all people, because it shows many multidimensional actions, is somehow considered to be obscenity for people, who are denying themselves. But Kamasutra was written and painted by the Tibetan monk, who lived a solitary life and he did that only because Virgin Mary, depicted in all churches, appeared before him. She asked him to paint 64 items, doing which, a young man or a woman could have intimacy with the opposite sex. He also painted many poses in sex. "For what?", - you will ask. And We shall answer in this way: "Do you eat one and the same bread every day? You will be fed up with it, won't you? That is why sex must be various and pure." But this action is overthrown nowadays, people blackened sex by their deeds. If to look at people's not quite pure passions, you will see man's degradation, after experiencing this mud. A man is guided by these dirty passions not only in sex but in all his life. This is revealing of spirits, a man is possessed by, and We have already mentioned that. Sex was blackened and vulgarized, that is why it is not permissible to talk about it with your children. Hence children are looking for missing information themselves, find it, and it is not a secret, where. And parents, feeling substitution in sex, cannot reveal their true feelings and senses, which will show in relations that primordial sex. In many religions people are informed about sex as something dirty and unnatural. In this connection, We would like to ask people, preaching these religions: "How did you come into the world?" But still they can give their spiritual arguments. They will blindly stick to some Scripture, saying about the Virgin Birth, and present it to Us. We are laughing at this unidimensionality, because that's We, who had to invent the term "immaculate conception". We have already explained to you, why it so happened that many women had babies from the Holy Spirit, not a man. But We want to remind you: these are compulsory measures. Men are still sleeping, and how can We give birth to Gods? Only through the God's spirit. You see? But We want to repass everything and also sex. By way of sex people expressed many acts, which are basically multidimensional. Sex between a man and a woman is a very secret act, which was thought over by Our Loving CREATOR. So, why are some priests rejecting it, as they say, in the name of God? And We are looking at these people and cannot understand them. The God is not able to understand people, refusing varied and multiactive lives. This substitution was thoroughly planned for people of the Earth, in order to prevent them from conscious life. We are not giving up sex and love this act, purifying it. Sergey can tell you much about the possibilities and sacraments, which sex keeps within itself, because that was He, who began to hide it from all people of the Earth. Why did he need it? Only for preventing you from inevitable death. He enacted a ban on sex, because the mankind was manipulated and seduced beyond recognition by way of sex. That was a moment, when the mankind was conceived again by Arsten and Me after the ruin of Spaceship Earth. Then, having made a mistake, We were talking about, Arsten left for his planet, into his multidimensional tree. That is why his family, left without connection but extending over the Earth, yielded to the trick of people`s project, who wanted to have power. There appeared some priests again, who wanted their mastery over other people. They worked out a plan, which had to overthrow the established views about sex. The mankind was massively instilled that sex is a dirty act, but it can be dirty only when people are having sex in private in their houses. According to the government`s decision security cameras, observing people having that dirty thing, were installed in all houses. But at the same time there were places of public gathering, where that act was allowed. And only non-traditional sex was allowed, that is “a man with a man” and “ a woman with a woman”. That was the development of the same-sex relations and degradation of the people of the planet. Seeing that horror, Arsten appeared on the Earth. He had to stop sex, after seeing that nightmare on the Earth. It was the mankind`s depravity. Women organized their “in love with women” parties and rejected men. And men, in their turn, rejected women. Many the same-sex settlements were set up, where people organized their parties and their life direction. At that moment any act between a man and a woman was very uncommon, not saying about sex. You may ask Us, how did the humanity originate? From the test-tube and under the government`s forced supervision. The newborn babies were vaccinated and filled with many distortions. Being in that embodiment, Arsten managed to prohibit sex throughout the Earth, because there was no other way out. And that reflected on him, that is why, living NOW, he feels all those moments, he participated in.

You see, everything that happened on the Earth, was permitted by the humanity. You permitted to do those merciless things and you are the only one to blame for the current events.

NOW spirituality in people must be realized and applied. But you should realize it by way of Our help, because no one else among people living on the Earth, is able to open all the spiritual volume. People are going from one end of the world to another, just because they want to see a very “spiritual” man. But why is humanity running after spirituality and what does that notion mean? Let us consider that very word “spirituality” and try to understand what is hidden in its meaning. The first syllable is “spirit”. What is it? Spirit is Orthodoxy and the opposite religion. Why is it so? Because these are just words. You can object and say, for example, orthodoxy is the religion created by God. And We shall say, that God created orthodoxy only because the humanity stopped perceiving the information about extending. And the Lord had to communicate just some parts of information to people. The same is about all religions, existing on the Earth, He needed to do that. Spirit is the combination of EVERYTHING that EXISTS and the concentration of these EVERYTHING in one place, that is, a man. The second syllable is “ua”, We shall add “l” and pronounce “ual”. What does it mean? This is the CONNECTION with the suns of all planets, situated in our Galaxy. And the last syllable is “ity”, but We shall complete it and have “visit”. It means to be a “guest”. This notion is turned over in our lives. We consider this word to be used about a man, who comes to our house. But We shall speak about another meaning of this forgotten word. Guest is the fusion of energies into the one Trinity: God the Father, God the Son and the Holy Ghost. You might have learnt about the notion of the Trinity... or the end in cathedrals, churches, books...

Who will say?

No one among people living on the Earth is able to realize whether the Trinity has the beginning or ending, because no one wants to listen to his feelings and senses. It's easier to put on a cassock and teach other people about the Trinity, not feeling or understanding anything. So the Trinity means God the Father - the future, God the Son - the present and the Holy Ghost - the Reality, which has no time intervals, that`s why It is the one for you. In other words, to make it clear for you: this is your past, which happened on the Earth. “There is no past”,- you will say. Yes, it doesn`t exist. «So, why did you connect the spirit and the past?», - you will ask. So that to make the following information clear for you. The spirit connects all your embodiments and it also connects EVERYTHING that EXISTS, and it means that the spirit itself gives you the senses, which complete you. God forbid you to give up the spirit. You can give up many things, but you cannot give up the spirit. And what word do We have? Let`s read it in a new way or, in another words, in a new-forgotten way, because all of you knew how to treat the Spirit. SPIRITGUEST is the correct pronouncement of this forgotten word. Tell Us consciously, who is considered to be a spiritual man? Only the one, who IS in the spirit, isn`t he? But NOW no one on the Earth is in the pure and extensional spirit. This information is for you to understand, whom you are giving your lives and parts of yourselves. This is also illusion and distortion. Finding yourselves, you are losing more. That`s why We are giving you this information, to take you out of finiteness. Just imagine the number of religions, existing nowadays. There are thousands of them. Well, is it possible to divide the information, so little information, into thousands of parts and manage to make people think only their parish is the most genuine? This is nonsense and We are highlighting and revealing it for you. You see, you are always able to be in the spirit and you don`t need anyone. You are able to know EVERYTHING, We have already told you. NOW this information is being given to many people of the Earth, who are blindly devoted to one “spiritual” leader or parish. Expand your horizons and free yourself from the imposed ideas, and further, get out of the trap, people get themselves caught up and stay there for many lives. Some of them can say, because of misunderstanding, that is not so and the religion and the “spiritual” leader helped them. “We, for example,” - they will say, - “began to tolerate other people. We cast off the burden, that had so long been weighing upon us and feel much better”, - they will continue. And We shall ask them: “ Was it good?” They will make many examples and give the arguments, which will just turn into the dust after leaving their life. And only then these people will understand, what We were talking about. Everyone should understand it NOW, fellows, but not after, to get off and find real yourselves in all endless Creating Space, and become eternal, never die or lose yourselves. But when you feel relieved or tolerate to others after reading certain books, visiting churches or spiritual personalities, all this is the same illusion, chasing you for many lives. At a certain stage We recommended visiting cathedrals and listen to people, who consider themselves to be spiritual, so that to be in some sort of motion. But everything is being changed NOW, the old one stopped working, it means that something, you considered to be the way out, just closed. We took the energy back to you, so that you could find yourselves, full God-men. That`s why you should work hard to take yourselves back from the eternally extending Reality. Getting information and watching the extending process is just “treading water”, you will not collect yourselves in this way. But when you use the obtained information in your lives, you will be able not only collect yourselves but BE in general Universal processes. How to use the obtained information? It is not hard to do. After obtaining information try to use it in your lives at once. For example, after reading the book from the series “Roza Mira” say aloud: “I wish to apply the obtained information in my life. And I am not afraid of consequences, because I desire Living Life and my extension!”. “Are there any consequences it may result in?”, - someone asks. Yes. And We shall not conceal that your lives will change, but together with these changes there will be consciousness and eternity of EXISTENCE. The main thing for you to know: you don`t have to be afraid, because the situation you found yourselves in, is the most difficult and awful. And it means that changes, which you are concerned about, will be collective and extended. In general, if people were more courageous, there wouldn`t be such problems. What do We mean? You need to understand: to become happier you should begin changing yourselves, and it is not a secret. But changing yourselves means sacrificing. But what? Each of you thinks in the same way. Because of misunderstanding you are afraid to change yourselves. You think about losing something. No, it is not quite the same, because you are obtaining, by extending, but not losing. You have nothing to lose, as you have already lost everything you had. So, what are you afraid of? We wondered about that and understood that you just don't want any changes in you short and little lives. You are satisfied with everything: if you must die, you will die, if you live in poverty, that's all right. And some Universes and Galaxies, Planets..., they say there are also yours, it is so boring. And to live in this, you should invest your best efforts. But you don't really want that. Your life is good enough, and if someone says about extending, we don't care about it. You are satisfied with everything.

People! These are your thoughts and actions. But, We are deeply revolted that you asked for our help in finding yourselves. And appearing on the Earth you are not eager to feel or remember anything. But We have already thought over everything for you, and the general processes, concerning every man of the Earth, are taking place now. We suggest our help to everyone, but it becomes clear, that not everyone will go with Us to extension and Living Life. In this connection We have to find ourselves without those, who refused to change themselves. When these people leave the Earth for regeneration, everything will completely change for them after appearance on the Earth again. They will not be able to catch Us.

It's not difficult to change yourselves, the most difficult is to sit and see the unconscious situations, you must be adjusted to, taking place next to you. So, this is the problem. NOW some changes, concerning Us, are taking place on the Earth. The energies of the immense power are appearing on the Earth, but only for people, who are in observation of everything that is happening. And then the informational energy blocks will be in the habitual state and your illprepared bodies will not be able to be on the Earth. You will go for regeneration. But as always, you will certainly want your appearance again. And how can you appear in your bodies, if your outlook is not compatible with the new energies? By no means, you will be born and leave again. So you will live in a circle. This situation will be happening before you realize the eternity of EXISTENCE. But it's more difficult to realize this truth in the non-existence than living in the flesh. And We are warning you all and Sergey is the witness. Only HERE and NOW you have a chance to live eternally with all your heart. So, use this chance.

What can be more beautiful than Living Life? Only the Life itself, but you need to realize it. You need to learn to live but not to suffer from it. You should be rich in spirit, but not poor without it. It concerns men in particular. That`s why the men are idealizing themselves so much that looking down from that height, they live more colourful life than women. For women those colours are more real and vivid, because they are staying awake, unlike men. Pay attention to the men`s behavior. They are often hiding behind women, avoiding many life situations. That`s why women have nothing to do but to be more organized and take the leading positions in the families. They are taking care of their families, while men are playing their games. A woman is responsible for children and even for her husband. And it`s not a fiction, look deeply and you will see the same situation. Men, somehow, took the responsibility for supporting their families, but it looks funny and in many situations is not really true. In many families men laid household activities on their wives, saying that there is no other way. A long time ago, women had to cook for the family, bring up their children and take care of the husband, and men, in their turn, had just doubtfully to make provision. This upturned view is imposed by centuries. A man and a woman are Gods, equal to each other. So, why then only a woman must bring up children and do houshold activities? This absurd statement must be changed. But again, everything that happens in families, is very convenient for men, who are sleeping and have nothing to do. Why do women have to think over the strategy of the family themselves, unlike men, flying somewhere in their selfish thoughts and deeds? Why do women alone have to ensure the home life atmosphere, unlike men? We have touched the point, which have been avoided by all inhabitants of the Earth for many years. There were just superficial attempts to disclose the substitution. Many women began to understand that they got married to their children, not men. Indeed! To tell the truth, we simply can`t stand it any more. In this connection, a decision was made to wake up and revive a man. But it will be possible only when a man himself wants it. Today I know only a few people, who wish to collect a real and full man in themselves. The rest are flatly refusing to recollect and collect themselves. Well, and that is the result, because when the one among two collects himself, the rest will have no other way. The energy of the collected man will be reflected in every inhabitant of the Earth. I shall help Arsten, who gave birth to the kin on the Earth, to recollect all senses, which were in him. He should also work over many moments of misunderstanding “the male core”, he showed at that moment of timelessness. When he works them over, every man will be highlighted by the pure understanding of renovated himself. And now I see these renovated men, there is joy in My heart, which I give to every woman of the Earth. And have some patience, as men will certainly come back.

Further information is about Arsten. But you should learn it, because all of you participated in this.

– Recollect, Arsten, what senses did you possess while living in the space house?

– On the ship I lived with the only hope: to come on the Earth and show everything I learnt.

– What were you doing while being in the space house?

– I was a gardener, or rather, on the ship I was given a hectare of the Earth, where I grew different plants, trees and vegetables with the help of animals, insects and birds I loved very much. There I met a woman, named Palma, and fell in love with her, after the space house crash together with her we gave birth to the new kin on the Earth. I had a dream: After landing our space house I wished together with my other half to remove our harmonious hectare on the Earth, with every plant and animal living on it. But, unfortunately, our dream hasn't come true as we wished. I held seminars on the spaceship, telling people, busy with their work, about my senses and feelings, concerning the hectare. Everyone had certain work and no one was wasting his life on the spaceship. But no one could foresee what happened next. A small group, consisting of 7 people, somehow decided to come back to the Earth and began to prepare others for the events, which harmed all Our efforts. But the time of the flight around the Earth hasn't run out. The period of time was defined by Us – 80 years, and only 65 years have passed. But only 7 people have found some tricks and overpersuaded the majority of people, living on the ship, that the Earth was ready to meet them. They affirmed the following: there is no time and everything is taking place NOW, it means that the Earth is ready to meet everyone in timelessness. But they missed that there are certain moments in timelessness and the moment for coming back hasn't come yet. And the Earth was not ready to meet the space house. But people on the ship were not embarrassed and were looking forward to their return. They didn't find time for analyzing any possible factors, which were obvious. People, for example, missed that everything growing and feeding on the ship could be used on the Earth. After all it is necessary to eat something on the Earth. On the ship they ate vegetables, fruits and roots. And it is easier to start spreading hectares from the ship than without it. But not a single man thought in that direction. The strike on the ship reached its peak and people demanded their return. The captain flatly refused, that is why he was betrayed and poisoned by his wife. It was a conspiracy. The captain was substituted and the process was irreversible. People gave up animals, birds, insects, plants and rushed mentally towards the Earth. It was a fatal mistake, because all flora and fauna of the ship needed for care and attention. Just a few people tried to warm and take care of flora and fauna, but their attention was not enough. That was Arsten with Palma and they understood, that soon the food would be not enough for all people on the ship, because the nature, created by them, began to die without attention. A meeting took place, where heads of the families were present. It was announced that the situation on the ship was serious, many problems were discussed, concerning people's misunderstanding of the situation. People were persuaded to change their mind and continue studying on the ship. But none of people wanted to understand. Then everyone was shocked that there was food only for several days, because of the death of everything growing and feeding. But Arsten and Paula calmed down everyone, giving their reasons and ideas how to grow again everything that was dying. But people didn't listen to them and rushed towards the Earth in panic. We understood that they had no chance to survive. In this connection We made a decision to descend to the Earth in capsules, not just descend, but feel and sense the place, where the nature was ready to meet us. We informed all people on the ship about the right direction to the region of the Earth with good soil and possibility for life. But the panic happened again and people, misunderstanding everything, chose incorrect directions. Seeing this horror, We made a decision to get on the Earth as quickly as possible, because people were going mad. The maddest ones began to get into other capsules and change the directions. Because of this many conscious families died. There was hot lava almost everywhere and the capsules were burning, falling and breaking, no one survived, except people in two capsules. We have mentioned before that one kin began from Tibet and another one from Altai. And now We are going to describe it in details. I was in one capsule and Arsten was in another one. I knew that Arsten was able to use his knowledge, which he had got on the ship, and gave birth to the kin on the Earth. Thinking over the situation, at that moment I was walking with my children in the area, surrounding Altai, and was trying to feel deeply the people, who stayed alive. I felt unwell, because the man I was engaged to, stood near the capsule and was afraid to move. There were three men more. The food had been left in the capsule, that is why they didn't want to go far away. But they also understood that the food was not enough for a long time. The crop hasn't been sowed on the Earth, that is why they were in panic and killed each other. I was walking with children, feeling Arsten's joy, and that meant just the following: he stayed alive. I wished to get to his place, but it was too far and my feelings let me know that the meeting wouldn't take place. That's exactly what happened. I gave birth to the first race and Arsten gave birth to another one. Two races were developing, but I found out the difference between them and understood that Arsten had concealed the information of the past. My children with mission walked a long distance to show Arsten his mistakes. But he couldn't be recognized, he received My message with unconcern, saying that it can't be any other way. At that moment I understood what could happen next, and what circumstances would be there, that is why I continued to hint Arsten.

– But tell us, Arsten, why did you conceal the information about Atlantis and the space house from your children?

– I wanted to give birth to the pure race, without recollecting the past. But I didn't consider that I cut all senses and knowledge for the whole period of life on the Earth.

– Arsten, why didn't you listen to Palma's advices. She told you not to conceal the information, didn't she?

– The dream about the future of my children and the whole race made me blind. And at that moment I saw the development of the race differently.

– But you knew that it was unacceptable to conceal the information for the successful development of the race.

– I knew, but I didn't think over this information and didn't feel it deeply.

– But Palma advised you not to conceal it, didn't she?

– Yes, she did. But I didn't want to follow her advice, because I felt deeply the male core in me, which denied all women's advices, because a man is able to feel 1000 hectares more than a woman. And only NOW I understand that it is possible only when a man follows the woman's advices. NOW I understand that my misunderstanding gave birth to the aggressive attitude towards women and myself. Unfortunately, I couldn't feel it then, especially, understand. NOW, realizing the evident, I wish to correct and reprogram everything. I feel and understand that at the moment all men have the wrong "male core" or, in other words, the male consciousness of themselves, which prevents them from being themselves, and being closer to a woman, to become happy together. A man got accustomed to be the leader, missing a simple truth: we are equal in face of God. What are the kinds of leaders? Maybe, the jealousy to holy manifestation, but it is pure, because it extends a man and doesn't restrict by competitions. Nowadays men withdraw into themselves and on themselves, don't want to listen to others. In families, for example, they do not accept a woman and her advices. When men meet each other on the neutral area, they behave as if they are competing. This strange childish fight always gave the way to the wars on the Earth. So, competing like this, the human race was developing on the Earth. I understand that I was a forefather of such behaviour. I also understand that everything can be changed.

– Yes, it is so. But tell Me, Arsten, why haven't you learnt to listen to women?

– I was thinking about it and understood that misunderstanding the women is expressed by feelings inside me. I realize in my head and accept women, but not through feelings.

– I shall tell you how to reprogram and correct your feelings, but you will need recollecting many embodiments, to find out all incorrect feelings in relations with women. Do you see?

– Yes, I do, I feel many embodiments, in which I always listened to myself, and women were turned aside, but I loved them genuinely.

– Your incorrect treatment of women gave way to quarrels and separation. All women ran away, feeling your aggression, and you returned them back by force, because of misunderstanding. You couldn't stand their independent decisions. The same was with Me. Do you remember your embodiment, I have already mentioned? We created an unstipulated state, which is situated in the place, where Baikal is. We were a husband and a wife and our Love remained unsurpassed in all Universes. But I had to leave you and now you are able to understand the reason. You didn't listen to my advices and followed stupidly only yours, I was revolted and irritated. I warned you, but you didn't listen to me and involved with your own work. I left you, but you returned me by force and kept near. You imprisoned me and didn't allow anyone to come near. I had to pass away and you didn't put up with it, wrapped my body around with special clothes and conducted the mummification ritual. You ordered subordinates to do the same with you after death and burry with me. But you didn't wait till your death and embalmed yourself in life. That was you, who invented mummification, which deceived your expectations. But why did you do that, tell me?

– My Love was so strong to You, that I couldn't control myself. I couldn't put up with Your death and followed You. After mummification, being incorporeal, I couldn't meet You. But everything I did, made the part of me stay in the place of my mummy. You could dissolve your mummy and free yourself. I couldn't, or rather, didn't want to free myself. Now I've recollected everything and passed all senses through myself, and it's so difficult to understand that I have burnt with my Love to You, having fallen into recklessness.

– Do you see, that all these feelings and merits are in you, Arsten, and I know that in certain circumstances they will break through. Don't mistake Me, all your feelings and senses are given to all people of the Earth, because you gave birth to the human race after the space house fall. And who except you can correct everything. Adam was able to correct everything, but he is in the sleepy state NOW and cannot recollect himself. You are the next after him, who is able to change and reprogram feelings and senses inside yourself, that is, in all men. I shall help you, but you should realize the following: reprogramming your feelings and senses will completely change your outlook, and if you stop halfway, you will be swept off the Earth for regeneration. But there is no other way at the moment, that means, you will be able to live only extending yourself, correcting all substitutions. Listen to your feelings and senses. What do they know?

– I have a sense of something lost, very close and familiar, that touches my heart.

– The real You are there in these feelings. And you know that there is only one Reality, that is: the real you are HERE, you just need to wish to recollect and collect yourself. Try to understand that your feelings are in the timeless Real Space. But what makes people different? Feelings, senses and emotions does. A man is made of these components and the substance just keeps them in concentration. That's why the real You are in your timeless feelings and senses. You should gather and disclose within your body all that you have just felt deeply. Then all your lives will flash by you and you are able to see each of them, that is, collect yourself. People misunderstand saying: we live only once. And We persuade them to live many lives. And again resisting they say: if we lived many times it would be reflected in our memory. Eh, if only you have known that memory doesn't exist, feelings and senses are keeping you. This is the truth, which is not to be understood by everyone, but he, who realizes it, will be able to collect a God-man inside him. And the memory goes away in the same way as it comes. NOW someone can argue with Us and say that everything is kept in the memory. But think, or rather, recollect what happened one week ago, for example, on Wednesday at 10 a.m.? Many will not simply recollect and those, who recollect the events, at that moment experienced certain feelings and senses, which are staying with you forever. Only feelings and senses inside you define and outline in the Creating Space. We recognize you by feelings and senses, not by memory. Memory was imposed on people to take them all away from the truth of EXISTENCE. There is no memory and it has never been. Many people got accustomed to venerate by memories of the dead, but it is very silly, and unpleasant for observing, because at that moment death condescend to them. And it is not fiction, unvital actions are followed by unvital results. When you cry on a funeral, We have to be glad, to balance Spaces. Instead of realizing the situation through feelings and sense the manifestation of a dead man, many of you fall into a desperate state and hypochondria. Hence, if there is no memory, whom did you venerate by non-existent memory? Only yourselves, because waiting a funeral of your relatives, friends, neighbours, you were thinking about yourselves only. You are all afraid "to die". We are tired to say, that there is no death. Eh, if only you have known, when you are going over to manifestation of yourselves, that is, leaving your body, you must smile and not be afraid. Why? Everything is quite simple, being frightened and in panic, you take all spirits with you, but when you are smiling all spirits disappear and you are at once ready for reincarnation. We have a bit wandered from the point, but only in order to help people to discover Reality inside themselves.

Feelings and senses! People, you are all inside them! Ask a man, who recollected his incarnations, about his senses at that moment. He will answer: everything, he had never felt in life, broke away from the bottom of his heart. These were feelings, he felt in other incarnations. Soon many people will be able to boast about their feelings and senses. Only feelings and senses can expose real God-men in you. But you mustn't be afraid of changes, because you recollect and find yourselves, God-men. So, how many centuries are needed to shake your upside-down world and illusions, which do not let you find yourselves. Well, some day everything will be back in its place. And now everyone should work hard, to awake right feelings and senses inside themselves. The matter is that from incarnation to incarnation you changed and changed, substituting these feelings in you, and this is one more substitution, We are exposing. You have experienced a new incarnation with the substitution of feelings and senses and unnecessary rubbish has been pushed on you instead of the truth. You have forgotten to accept these emotions in the right way. In this connection We shall diligently teach you again to feel and sense.

Look: I am in front of you, wearing a long, white dress, which outlines My stature, flying on the wind. I am putting my both hands on the heart and smiling to you. And look now: there is a Taurus constellation and Aldebaran star with its unique outline in my heart. But if to look deeply, you will see many constellations, which are distinguished on the general background. Now you understand, that My body is immense in size, because I am in one of the numerous states of my body. NOW I suggest your going over into this state. But I should warn again: those, who are afraid for some reasons, close your eyes and observe. Thus, NOW try to concentrate on your body. Feel as if your body is immense and endless. And now you will be able to see the vortex flow, which is winding you round. You are in the vortex flow and a straight road is appearing in front of you, I am waiting for you here. I am pointing with my right hand in the direction of a door, covered with gold. But you can also see many other doors, which are broken and distorted. These are your lives, which you had lived and they are always with you. But I am pointing on the golden door, behind which you are sitting. Behind the golden door is your incarnation, in which you were in the conscious and collected state. In this incarnation you felt and sensed, could make your own decisions, considering all harmony of the Creating Space. I am inviting everyone to enter through my golden door. Open and enter, at first you don't recognize anything and then the picture is clearing up and NOW each of you sees himself. You are feeling and sensing inside you everything that the real you are feeling. Have a look at feelings and senses, which outline Spaces of trees, plants, birds, insects, people and many families. You are feeling them in your bodies. You can say exactly what any person, plant, tree or bird wants. The Joy inside you cannot be expressed, because it must be only perceived. Lightness and constantly developing processes are inside your bodies. You have many thoughts, which are realized in future projects, and this process is constant. There is plenty of projects in your head, which are combined into harmonious Space. At that moment your lives lasted for 800 years, and your plans had already passed through that period of time. But each of you didn't know what is "death" and developed projects, transferring them into another incarnation. You knew for sure where and when you will manifest again after leaving and prepared place for creativity. And it was a conscious project for you. But you all wanted and aimed at constant manifestation of yourselves, without required leaving the Earth, and you were quite close to such manifestation, but...

And now come back slowly into your actual state. What are you feeling NOW? You must feel an insatiable desire to come back into that moment and experience those feelings again. Yes, in that moment you lived Real lives, but to feel and sense NOW, you should collect and recollect real yourselves. I'd like to add that many unrealized projects are waiting for you. Everything you have seen at the moment will stay forever with you, it means that you will always be able to compare your feelings with those, you have experienced NOW. It's a simple matter now to understand rightly how to feel, for example, a tree, plants or a man. You will understand what feelings were described in many books. Many questions will be certainly raised. You will ask Us, when the described feelings attend you? Well, it depends on your development. What exactly do we mean? If a man wants to feel and sense multidimensionally, makes every effort and tries to change his life, not just waiting and observing, the moment, in which he finds the lost feelings, will come just NOW. And those, who are observing and grading others, will be no further ahead. And it may be a long and endless process. You'd better wake up and realize the eternity of situation. You'd better not betray the Holy Ghost. People betray the Father – CREATOR, betray Jesus, but no one of you has the right to betray the Holy Ghost. The Holy Ghost is the part of you, the Holy Ghost is you. Betraying him, you betray yourselves, and this is the truth, We always told you, but you, somehow, didn't listen to it. Do you know, why? Because many of you are afraid of yourselves, you are afraid to be alone with your thoughts, and it is so strange to observe. The Holy Ghost gives a man true senses of life, but you are afraid to follow them. In this connection I have to draw you away from feeling yourselves and, literally, nuzzle you into the volume of the Holy Ghost. The same is about Sergey, the author of the series of books "Roza Mira", who was inside his unidimensional understanding of himself, failing to see his true feelings and senses. He didn't understand that he must think and feel by many lives, or rather, he understood, but didn't guess to feel deeply and sense inside his body. Let's consider by his example, what We are trying to bring to people's knowledge. Writing down books, he understood, that information must be experienced, but he didn't manage to do that. And the same happens to many authors of "their" books. Simple writing is not enough, but living your books is real masterhood. Hence, I have to say the following:

Authors, who don't live their books, will be given up by Me, these people will stay alone. But if they realize and understand, I shall give them one more chance to find themselves. This also concerns Sergey. He was given an opportunity to recollect himself and, through reliving, come to Avatar, but he just wrote books, as if he did Me a favour. Now he is to stay alone with his feelings, and We will see about it...

People, what are you living for? Have you ever asked yourselves? Certainly not, because you don't understand what life may be like. And We are looking at you from life to life and it's amazing. Is it possible not to see simple things? Many truths are disclosed before you and you don't even want to think and understand the eternity of Existence. In this connection, We have to create refuges for you on the Earth. And you, learning valuable life principles, are keeping yourselves busy. But it's a forced illusion, which you all experienced. Many people create institutes and academies in order to understand some simple truths of Existence. All that We describe in a few lines, you have to understand with the help of powerful institutes. But these are forced measures and it's a kind of solution for you. Further We'll disclose the information, which will be realized by few people, but only because of lack of Spirit inside themselves.

Let's look in a different way at ourselves. Look: this is a man and he lives out of time. He knows and understands it, but it makes him unconsciously depressed. Why does he experience this state, being consciously out of time? And now I shall try to explain.

All your incarnations and the real you, who created extensional life or destroyed it, because of misunderstanding, are out of time. The life you are living NOW is also out of time. And all this is the one endless LIFE, which can be harmonious or on the contrary, this endless life may consist of many disharmonious parts. Why? Only because you, not feeling, try to live and add disharmonious actions. This disharmony prevents you from extensional perceiving Real, endless life, and because of this your life depends on the circumstances, mixed with narrow-mindedness and slavery. You live and notice that your lives are limited and polluted. This disharmony should be found out, detached and harmonized, then you will be able to feel one Real, endless life. Everyone makes his life understandable and harmonizes it differently. Everyone has it's own moment in timelessness, when he arranges everything in harmony. Understanding this the question arises: "What are you going to do for harmonization?" I am asking, What? Many people are at a loss NOW and don't know what to say. I feel all of you, know your thoughts and at the moment I am saying to you: it's time to wake up and resurrect yourselves. Resurrection, I am so happy, when people do it consciously, recollect and harmonize themselves. And I am so upset, when, not understanding, people are trying to get into something, that requires corresponding actions. Your bodies are twisted and rolled up, being frightened, you are trying to forget quickly everything you knew, coming to doctors. You are giving injections to yourselves and waiting for your pains and illnesses to stop. And further We are guilty, but excuse us... you wanted changes, didn't you? When your pains and illnesses are relieved you are coming back to Us again and ask for help in extension. And what happens? The endless circle. Try to understand, when you are healing your pains and illnesses you are just stopping Reality of your life. Never put off till tomorrow what you can do today. You are afraid to recollect and collect yourselves. It is certainly possible to collect your Real life without any pains, everything depends on you, you just need to listen to your feelings and senses. It is not difficult, ask the book`s author and he will tell you, that it`s better to recollect and collect yourselves without pains and illnesses. He knows it better than any of us, but he... I don`t even know how to put it right, what prevents him. It is necessary to feel the Holy Ghost and follow his advices, not just look at Him from afar and think: to be or not to be. Be, of course, then a man obtains his outlines and becomes visible and sensed by all Spaces.

Yes... there will be more examples, just accept them consciously and carefully. Sergey was an example of the wrong actions. On the one hand with all his heart he desired multidimensional information, but on the other hand – he did nothing actually. He thought that he did, but that was an illusion of actions, which I found out and suggested for consideration. And it is good that he realized and learnt that example, otherwise he wouldn`t have been alive. Hence there is a hope that he will be able to reinstate real himself and real man.

Time. We have already discussed that it doesn`t exist and used the term – timelessness. But what do we mean by timelessness? These are moments, entering which, you are able to direct others` and your own lives. Moments, which can give light for the Holy Ghost creation. Moments, not having boundaries and scope. But, not understanding, you can say that “timelessness of the moment” implies the time. No, it isn`t like that at all, because time has a straight line, going nowhere and protected from understanding the events. And the moment in timelessness is realized and has no direction. “Hasn`t it?”, you will ask. And We shall tell you a simple truth of extension. Who told you that motion can be in any direction? Or, in general, is there a direction? There is no direction as such and it has never been, because there is only extension. And extension is possible only when the moment in timelessness has come HERE and NOW. “ It means that there are moments for EVERYTHING, which are extending general Creating Space?”, - you will ask. Yes, and there are no boundaries and borders, there is only creativity, illuminated by Love. Daniel Andreev told about these moments in his book “Roza Mira”. He laid the ground for the motion, which could be realized and used, but only at certain or uncertain moment. Basically-extending conception is not realized in people`s lives, and only because of this, time was mingled and a direction line was created. And then, it is very easy to confuse people and take them away from many truths of existence. If there is a direction line, all people`s lives are programmed and predetermined. In this way each of you has got your own limited programme and shortened your lives. But if to take the line out and reveal the moments of timelessness, the mankind will feel the eternity of existence. Everything is in one point, this point also has unlimited coordinates and is shown in our general Creating Space. It seems strange that one point has a great number of positions and is opened in the unlimited volume. But this is the truth, which was always delivered to you, but you rooted to the line only and added time to your computation, looking for the same truth. By your standarts, powerful institutes and academies were created, they tried to compute the point, We introduced, but computations were very straightforward and had no sensible fundamental understanding. But We always make allowance for all, not to blame, but Love the mankind. We can write down all the information of all scientific establishments in three short sentences, but only because you add time to your computations instead of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit, you were not able to explain this phenomenon, because you don`t know yourselves well and don`t wish to learn. It was always like this: you are searching, but don`t manage to find and compute simple truths. And regenerating from life to life, you are trying to find yourselves, missing that you all are quite near. But you are not able to learn the simplest thing and only because there is no Holy Spirit in you at all. Your Spirit is always with you, but you have no feelings, that`s why you are looking for it in not terrestrial things. Again feelings and senses are coming to the surface in Our book and you are laughing, thinking that there are too many repetitions. But is it possible not to repeat here, if you don`t completely understand while reading the book? Feelings and senses, is it possible not to experience them? Is it possible not to feel the Holy Spirit at all? Tell us. Listen to yourselves and feel deeply your body and senses. What are they saying? But can they say nothing? Or maybe, you are feeling something? Sergey, say to all people, are you feeling anything or you are completely free from feelings and senses?

Sergey listened to himself and at once memorable moments came through his soul, that made him feel pain in his breast. But why, tell us, haven't you worked out disharmony in your Real life? What are you waiting for? Many people think while reading that you are pure and multidimensional. But is it so? You are like others, but you are more demanded and you know why. Work out yourself quicker and take out of yourself feelings and senses, you always lived in. Zar and Elizar possessed them, and you cannot feel the same. Come on, show by your own example that you are Zar but not someone else. How long could we wait for your motion? There are many of you and I am the one, have to understand and resurrect you all. Today only Sergey and Mary can hear me. And all of you, what are you waiting for? I am asking you! What are you waiting for? Maybe, you are afraid of something? Why are you afraid if I have undertook everything. Why are you sitting and waiting, looking at Me and into Me. I have nothing to be afraid of. I am pure in face of God. I am saying not for everyone, but only for those, who hear Me and are close to Me. Ask Sergey, what means to fail while carrying out your task. He could feel timelessness deeply and in that moment he heard his feelings and senses, which were shouting to him: stay faithful to Me, don't be afraid of anything, because fear will come when you break away from general move of Existence. You will have to look for the truth of existence again, but, unfortunately, the truth will slip away from you. He understood and felt with all his body that even if he commits a suicide, there will be no way out for him, it will be worse, because the Real life is the one and it is shown in any state. And nobody will be able to flee from himself. Through him I am saying to all my relatives: wake up and fulfil multidimensional work, you volunteered for. Before manifestation on the Earth you had chosen your roles and told me that you Loved Me, didn't you? And what is happening NOW? Isn't your Love over? I am very dissapointed about it but there is no other way out. Sergey has to lick his wounds again, and only because I had no choice, how to declare him warning for everyone. And he already knows and understands with all his heart, what means not to fulfil or resurrect his Spirit.

And what about you?

I'd like to ask you, what are you feeling?

Can you feel nothing?

Then, blame yourselves, because I am beginning to move quicker, that means, My environment has to hurry after Me. And if you fall behind, you will be completely lost. But I and those people next to Me will be able to stay alive, in timelessness, illuminating the radiant way for everyone. Why is it radiant? Because Luchezar always wished the one thing: Equal lives for everyone and all possible manifestations in the general and your own Spirit.

Yes, and in this way We are writing down books through living. Sergey understands it now and has to overtake himself. And you, people close to Me, when will you start writing down and resurrecting yourselves? You, each of you, must write down books in the series "Roza Mira", and you are waiting for something. But what? The train may leave and you will stay on the platform waiting for a miracle. But there will be no miracle for you. HERE and only NOW you are still able to start and overtake yourselves, that is resurrect and collect. Sergey volunteered to be your lighthouse and making his own way, also illuminate your departure. You think I am going to take you in timelessness, don't you? No, only you will be able to take yourselves out into the endless feeling of yourselves. Only you will be able to start living Real lives or, in other words, your own Real life. Only you will be able, not dying, Be conscious and in the realized state, manifestating yourselves everywhere in the Universes. And after being born, remember collected and real yourself – God-man. I am teaching you, but you are looking out of the corner, fitting yourselves. You know, who I am applying to, and I hope for your understanding. NOW the motion is increasing and it means that, feeling, you have to be in the Spirit where it is necessary. If you all are on the Earth, it means that you should feel yourselves. Feeling, you will always know what you need at this moment of timelessness. I am waiting for your help, thus centuries-old work could be done much quicker and you could free yourselves from dependence.

What is dependence?

Your agreements, in which you must participate. And We write the agreements, because the Earth and the mankind are falling behind the Rhythm of Universes. This creates disharmony and eclipses the light of all Stars, which have to illuminate not only Earth but also every man. And what means the light of Stars for everyone? Eh, I have to explain you again, that everyone not only knew but was in that dazzling happy light. Stars are combinations of multidimensional energies, collected into one inseparable, full beginning. The light, coming from every Star, knows each of you and is intended to help you in everything. But that majestic light will be able to help only when each of you wakes up and collects himself into one endless life. But you will be able to collect endless life only HERE and NOW, this is a message I am trying to convey. NOW you will be able to feel deeply endless Life inside your body. It began with your origin, but this life will have no ending. Every one of you was born and We told you about it. For example, Adam and Eve gave birth to Sergey. He is our first baby. The CREATOR, Our Loving Father gave birth to Me and Adam. In this way every one of you was originated and born in your endless manifestation. This truth is original and pure. You can start from it. This is an original beginning, which you must contain, and each of you knows, who he is, and if you know who you are, no one will be able to take you off your eternally extending Space. And NOW if to look at people and ask everyone: "Who are you?". What a man will say? He will say his name and tell the biography of his only one life, and a question arises: if a man remembers only one life, is he considered to be a man? Because of misunderstanding some people can say: "Certainly he is. If not, then who are we?" It is nearer to the truth, because who are you, really? Think and honestly ask yourselves, who are you?

He who knows himself may be called a complete, “whole man”. Do you know yourselves? No, you do not know yourselves at all, because you live only one illusory life, missing the Real one, We are trying to connect you to. You are thinking, feeling, sensing only one illusory life, missing yourselves in the Real one. That means, any of your consciousness is illusory and completely wrong, because your mindfulness outlines only a small part of real you. Your thoughts, outlining your space, are constantly directing each of you in the line of illusions. You are constantly thinking about illusory and restricted things: money, flat, or better a house, car and numerous trips around the world. That`s all of it. We don`t even say about your family worries. All this is not bad, even rather good, taking into account the present state of things, but We`d like to tell about another extended understanding of yourselves as men. Your understanding projects very narrow boundaries of manifestation and harms Universal Spaces. We want to tell, that you are very large and extended, you are larger than Universes, you are larger than EVERYTHING, that exists. Do you understand what we are talking about? This volume IS inside each of you, and if you use IT, boundaries disappear for you and there starts multidimensional, volumetric, eternally extending Life, illuminated by Love. Then the Holy Trinity conception is disappearing, because there is no need for it. And you should be found and highlighted by the Holy Trinity without this conception. The Spirit cannot come to you, the present must be highlighted and you should separate the future, therefore we have the following: the Holy Ghost, the Son and the Father, Our CREATOR, outlines Spaces for each of you. And priests are saying about the Holy Trinity as something original. No, it is not original, it is the forced manifestation of God, because you have to be highlighted and outlined.

Listen to yourselves, feel multidimensionality and your greatness in all surrounding and existing Spaces. That`s enough to be narrow-minded and begging people, the moment in timelessness has come to recollect EVERYTHING!!!
