Reproducing moment, - Donetsk, 2012 – 104 p.

Moment, you see ..., everything on the Earth happens at a certain moment. For each of you there is your own illuminated moment. But the moment can be collected by reasonable actions, unless people learn to steal the God, they will never reach their reasonable moment, and you must understand it.

Preface

Reproducing moment is the notion which reveals the special essence of Living. You must realize that everything existing on our Earth, and not only on the Earth, is embodied only in a special reasonable moment. You must learn or remember the feelings all the people of the Earth realizing the power of the moment, possessed. Understanding and feeling of reproduction inside your body opens special sense and freedom for the human race, increasing the frequency of the Earth vibration. We want the mankind to reach such a level of reception which will allow people to rule and direct their lives towards eternal realization of themselves. Love, happiness and joy will always be within a human, feeling the power of the moment.

We heartily wish the entire mankind to obtain reason, leading to the understanding of the Reproducing Moment.

Be happy!!!

Love YOURSELF in you, Love EVERYTHING surrounding you!!!

Revealing truths.

Starting the seventh book I want to warn all the inhabitants of the Earth, that all the changes We have described in the previous books, are already working, and you will experience real changes in your lives. Dear friends, this is the year 2012, which will reveal a human in everyone. The word “to reveal” is not really correct, but for many of you this word is the linking which We have mentioned before. What will the year 2012 reveal in you, what will happen to you further? We have already told you that the people of the Earth are not people. Then the question arises: “Who are you?” You are not really people; you are the phantoms of people. NOW We will try to explain what We mean by the word “phantom». Besides We will provide you with the program which will reveal an integral human in you. Look, what has happened and is still happening because of your ignorance: all of you were integral people, you dreamt of expanding up to infinity, but you accepted illusion. We have described it before and We will not repeat it. So you made yourselves live one limited life. What do We mean by “limited”? You decided everything or rather implemented this limitation in your life, and now your lives must be limited. You are “obedient” performers, you follow just one program imposed on you, never noticing Us, IMMORTAL. But this is just one side of the problem; when you die, you become so indifferent that you neither understand nor feel who you are. When you “die” you are so surprised that you really exist, as according to your plan you do not exist anymore. Truly saying We are very irritated by this. Being without your body, you forget your former life you have just left, more and more losing yourselves. We would like to ask such indifferent people: “How are you going to assemble yourselves if even being bodyless you do not want to know yourselves?” This is a vicious circle, being reborn you forget your previous life, but We always want to tell you: “You are still people going from life to life, it cannot be anyone else but you”. People believe that human soul can occupy a tree or an animal etc. Let us talk about this belief. About your life in trees after you leave your life. Do you remember how We described the Space of a cedar? Yes, after their leave lucky ones find themselves within the Space of a cedar. What about animals? Actually people do not have to move to any other creatures, they have to expand. People must not be in the space of animals, but you are not people, that is why some of you, who reincarnate into animals, but for a short period of time. This is nonsense.

Who are you?

Every inhabitant of the Earth was born by the Gods: a man and a woman. Everyone was a self-sufficient and great God-human. You were in timelessness and desired expansion. So the basic moment: you can remember everything and resurrect your real nature, the child of two Loving God-people.

Who are you, people?

By this moment Sergey will have remembered his real nature and smile at himself to encourage. But his smile is the result of great work, I do not worry about him, I worry about you, My dear people. This is not the first time he remembers himself, that is why he can reconstruct the sequence of the names. At first it was Zar, then EliZar and Zarspass and so on. It will not be difficult for him (of course if he does his best) to remember himself. Some of you cannot remember themselves and collect ions of non-existent time. Some of you have not remembered themselves since they lost themselves. What difficulties you can face while remembering and what will happen to the people who do not want to remember and collect themselves?

What do you think, who gave you hospitals and medications which make you feel well? Looking at your suffering of misunderstanding of Real Living We had no choice but give you hospitals and medication which seem to make you recover. Regard any drug treating a definite disease, and divide it into algorithms or frequency waves. You will be astonished as the algorithms of medicines and diseases will be the same but this coincidence is unexpected – the algorithms and frequency waves in medications will have continuation. “Does it mean that all the medications are rational algorithms” – you can ask. Yes, it is true, We invented the algorithm of treatment of a disease, or rather delay of a disease. Your diseases cannot be completely treated, they just turn into a slow process, and they seem to fall asleep. But at a certain moment they wake up again. After that the medication which delayed the disease did not act any more, but even in this situation We invented a way out for you, substituting this medicine by the other one having the same algorithm but different information. In such a way your medical science started to substitute one medication by the other one, treating your diseases. You also had to meet such cases when one kind of medication helps certain people but does not influence the other ones. In this situation doctors usually substitute the medication by the other one which is similar to it. Doctors cannot understand why the same medication helps certain people but does not influence the other ones. In this case they follow their traditional strategy of choosing the medication for the patient. There are also people allergic to many choices of medications and it is pathology. Any disease starts when a person loses his Space or himself, it is misunderstanding of certain aspects of illusive life. Thus, the person unable to understand himself during several lives, falls ill again, this disease has been sleeping inside. He is allergic to all the medications doctors try to treat him with. His serious state makes this person act resolutely as his leave is inevitable. After that, being born on the Earth again, he will suffer from the same disease and leave again – this is a vicious circle. What can a person in such a situation do? Just remember and assemble himself and his lost Space, this is the only way out for a human and for you, our dear people.

Do you want to ask why?

It happens because in 2012 We close the algorithms of all the medications; it means that diseases will not sleep in your bodies. It means that when you fall ill the only way out from this state is to remember yourselves and assemble your lost and forgotten Space.

It is weird to realize that all the people reading and getting information will wake up and realize their forgotten Space inside their bodies. It is normal as there is certain moment for any event in timelessness.

Now you can ask a question: “What is this forgotten Space and how to find it?”

We have already described your Spaces but We missed out many things you cannot understand. But regarding previous books and your feelings, We are trying to make integral notion of the energy of information for you to feel it.

Space, what can We say about It ...?

How can We characterize It ...?

When you start remembering and assembling yourself you will face the understanding of your Space which has always been waiting for you.

So, what is waiting for you?

You are real God-human, You are the Space waiting for yourself! “Well, it means that the Space We have described before is you” – some of you will ask. Yes, your Space is you but with a small remark: you are real, integral God-people.

“What about our planets?” – you can ask. – “We think that our Planets are our Spaces”.

You see, Planets and Stars just add something to You, they are your assistants, but only You can be the Space in which the Planet, the Star and the Galaxy was born. Only you define EVERYTHING surrounding YOU.

So what is the conclusion?

It turns out that a human contains EVERYTHING you can imagine. For example, Sergey produced a number of Galaxies, and it is just a part of his Magnificent Space. Before We described just his Planet Velenokgrozdia and wanted him to remember his first Space Planet, but now We want him to remember his Galactic CoCreations. Besides, We want to remind you, Sergey, that this part of your Space is waiting for your participation while you are sleeping, in other words, it cannot exist without you. The people inhabiting your Galaxies watch you and want you to return in the integral state. Do you understand now, why I am shaking you and trying to wake you up? Your Space is waiting for you while you are sleeping on the Earth trying to help Me. But can you tell me how? If you are not a human, how can you help me, I am a human? When you assemble yourself and become a human, I will notice your help. But NOW, writing these books, remember that you are not a human, you are just a phantom, we have nothing to talk about. But it is a temporary situation. When you assemble yourself, our conversation will illuminate our joint Project, in which you can take part. And NOW mind: unless you wake up, your multidimensional Space, you have no notion of, will be destroyed; and the scientists of the Earth through their telescopes will be able to see many Galaxies destroyed ... For example Andromeda... I will be not able to help you as your Space can feel only you, its Creator, but it cannot feel Me. By the way, have you ever thought why on the cover of the first book “Introduction into the true history of the Earth and the human race” there is the Galaxy of Andromeda? Of course, not as you think that only I am responsible for your actions. I will tell you and you will remember how you CoCreated your first Galaxy called “Itismydream”. But you must remember its full name. Can you do it? If you remember it, it will mean that you have not lost everything.

Sergey`s answer: SwetoZar is the mane of Andromeda, and I remember CoCreation of this Magnificent Galaxy. But to tell you about it NOW, We have to regard your Space body. Space body is your initial, eternal, Divine body, always moving and expanding. New organs have always formed incredibly vast Spaces, which can have physical manifestation in the form of Galaxy. I can feel incredible number of Galaxies inside my body. And you know this incredible volume has its logical manifestation. This volume is an indivisible part of me and I feel like the Universe having no boundaries. Now I understand that Galaxies are the manifestation of the Space bodies expansion. It can be difficult to understand but very easy to feel. As We feel, how can We not recognize ourselves? Of course you can have a number of questions about the origin of the Galaxies, but there is neither accuracy nor boundaries, it is very multidimensional. I would like to add that the Galaxy of SwetoZar is located in the right lower corner of my stomach.

– Well, it is just a small particle of your memories and your Spirit, but there is the moment for you, and only for you, to remember EVERYTHING. NOW I am stepping aside as you asked ..., and now inside your body there is emptiness. I think you know about its origin. You must feel yourself by yourself, it is the moment of your opening, you are the first to show the way for the other people. Then you have to know the following: unless you assemble yourself quickly enough, the devils can use this emptiness inside your body and then...you know what can happen in this case. But do not make a martyr of yourself, it is your own project, I just help you because I love you. Before your appearance on the Earth you suggested your project dealing with the plan of breaking illusion for all the people of the Earth in the year 2012. But it is you, Sergey or Zar, who can open the entrance. Now I am telling you and claiming the following: the flood, which everyone has heard about, but it has never happened, I delayed up to this moment. Sergey took responsibility of pulling real himself to the present moment and becoming a true God-human. NOW I am telling the truth to everyone for you to know: if Sergey fails his mission, nobody will be able to avoid the flood. I do not want it. And what about you, Sergey?

Sergey`s answer:

– I take responsibility and claim: I am not afraid of the changes which will resurrect a real man in me, that is why nobody must be afraid of as I Love you very much, especially You, my Beloved woman. I will not allow the flood and the end of the world!!!

– It is responsibility. Every human must take responsibility both for himself and for EVERYTHING EXISTING. But the mankind forgot the meaning of this word. People are not responsible for themselves, and therefore for the surrounding Spaces. If you ask some people: “Who are you, human?” and then recommend them to find themselves, a true man, opening permanently expanding volume of EVERYTHING, many people will not understand what We mean, they will think that it is a crazy idea and return to their routine one-dimensional life. They will live this one-dimensional life up to their “death”. “What then, people?” – We would like to ask these people. And We ask you, but living on the Earth, people did not even think, they did not want to know themselves. Yes..., what responsibility are We talking about? But

We are still explaining and showing reasonable life for everyone. NOW many mass media talk about the flood on the Earth, and some people wait for it, doing nothing. We would like to ask people waiting for the flood: “Aren’t you tired?” “What are we tired of?” – these people will ask. It seems to Us that you must be tired of being so heartless and irresponsible. I am sure they will never understand what We are talking about, because they have lost the Link of EVERYTHING. People have lost their connection with EVERYTHING EXISTING, they have lost themselves and continue losing. You are sure to hear about such a phenomenon as reincarnation but I doubt about your proper understanding of the term “Incarnation”. “There is Reincarnation and Incarnation. What is the difference between them?” – you can ask. I will explain you the difference between these two notions. Reincarnation means cyclic transformation, you can misunderstand it, rejoice and say out: “It means that I will never die”. I will tell you that it is not true. Yes, you know that death does not exist, but reincarnation tears the initial multidimensional man into many lives. “What does it mean?” – you can ask again. We will provide you with the example of real events.

Look: NOW you can see ME, I am standing in front of you in a snow-white sundress, accentuating My figure; My shoulders are covered with a veil, embroidered with multidimensional patterns. Look at Me, I am pointing at the man with my right hand, this man’s name is Faltran, he is from the other Planet. Living on the Earth during many reincarnations, he has been doing nothing. According to his project he had to Incarnate to the Earth from his Planet to help Us, but instead he lost himself during many reincarnations. Then We want to ask him: “Why are you here?” And he would answer if he remembered himself. But now he is losing himself going through the vicious circle of reincarnations, this circle locked him from reasonable HIMSELF. In other words the sense of his appearance on the Earth is lost and substituted by senseless reincarnation. But he CoCreated his appearance on the Earth and reasonably Incarnated into It, being on his planet called Anselphon, feeling unity with EVERYTHING EXISTING, feeling the universal Spirit. Do you understand you must do it reasonably? You must never lose this reasonable attitude and feeling of yourselves. Faltran has lost this LINK, now he is just a consumer and reincarnates within the circle of illusion. This is the example of unreasonable reincarnation from life to life We will talk about in Our eighth book.

In general, incarnation is reasonable appearance of an assembled, multidimensional human, for example on the Earth. I always incarnate onto the Earth, never losing or wasting myself. There is just one real NOW and one permanently expanding Real life for me, I can always feel the God in me. But you lose yourselves with every illusive life. You do not remember Yourselves, you do not want even to know Yourselves, We do not understand this indifference. And now, regarding all this information, what would you like for yourselves: Reincarnate from one illusive life to the other one, dying every time or Incarnate reasonably, never losing yourselves, living one permanently expanding life and always being in love???

Zar saw reincarnation and called it the particles of nothingness. At this very moment I am showing you senselessness of Reincarnation, but I want to see you reasonable, sensitive and knowing yourselves. I want the whole mankind to feel the energy of

EVERYTHING and reasonably Incarnate into Real Life. You lived one endless life, expanding yourselves in EVERYTHING EXISTING. It is necessary to feel this LINK. Ask Sergey how it is to feel Yourself in you; and he will answer that as soon as you feel Yourself you will say out reasonably: “LIFE is beautiful and full of incredible sense of LIVING”. You will feel Happiness inside your bodies, lightness and permanent expansion, which does not know what sadness, sorrow and depression. We wish you multi-dimensional Happiness, Love and Joy; but We also know that only multidimensional person can be reflected in such a way. Do you understand it? It can be done only by a volume person, but without understanding and feeling of permanently expanding volume, transform the understanding of Happiness, Love and Joy. This misunderstanding usually makes you change truths. You cannot realize many truths, that is why you are too narrow-minded, feeling nothing and fighting only for your own “truth”. “Your own truth” is a weird notion. Do you know what the sense of the word “truth” is? Let us decipher this word: in the Russian word “правда” – truth, the first syllable is Пра – we can add the missing letter and get the first syllable Прax (ashes) – something non-existent. The next one: В – you must know that this letter means “entrance”. And the last syllable: Да – statement or approval. So what is the result: Прax В Да – means entrance to something non-existent, i.e. illusion. Do you know how many senseless and illusive “truths” there can be? There are as many truths as people. So what do we have? Senseless and vicious circle for you. Now, understanding it, people will think before saying that this is true or not true. Only feeling everything you will be able to know EVERYTHING EXISTING and find solvation of any problem in your life. Do not be afraid of responsibility, because if you want to LIVE you have to take responsibility.

Now let us talk about magnet streams, you can feel on the Earth and beyond It.

What is the meaning of the notion “magnet stream”?

There are the energies in the Galactic and Intergalactic Space, which decided to unite everything disconnected into one integral unity. Now I want you to look at your body and see the following: a number of long, bright rectangles filling Intergalactic and Galactic Space. This is the magnet field uniting separate Space Blocks. If you watch more attentively you will see that magnet field envelopes EVERYTHING EXISTING, it means that everyone can use these energies understanding their principle. Cryon was the first to say about this field calling it magnet lattice, but his understanding of this field is not complete, I am trying to add some information for you to assemble yourselves. NOW Sergey can feel magnet field inside his body, something invisible holding his body, he feels like in a vice. Just think why your body perceives magnet field in such a way. This is a correct idea, your body cannot feel, although it can see magnet field. It happens because you, Sergey, are not here; your Spirit exists but you cannot feel it, that is why you are torn by your multiple lives; but if you assemble yourself the reaction of your body will be completely different, and you will be able to feel motion inside your body. You will recognize this motion, and you will be able to remember how to feel and sense magnet connection of EVERYTHING EXISTING. Why do I give this information to you? Just because I want you to be equal to Me. All of you can use the magnet Space and create cosmic routes for yourselves. “Cosmic routes. What does it mean?” – you can ask. I have already mentioned cosmic labyrinths and you decided that the whole Universe is entangled with cosmic tunnels. It is not exactly so, cosmic labyrinths are the routes around EEVERYTHING EXISTING. There are myriads of them. Who do you think built them? You are the inventors of these cosmic labyrinths and you have to remember it. You dissolved your souls, and some of you without dissolving could move through Our boundless Creative Space. Why did you need it? These transitions were both personal and global and brought unlimited opportunities into your lives. What do you think the role of unlimited opportunities in your life is? It means that there are no borders for you! Frankly speaking, the Creator has no notion of his children`s opportunities. People ..., We have always thought over the following questions: “Why do not you want to reveal your unlimited opportunities? Why do not you want to live full life? Why do you create a number of problems for you? Why, “dying”, you do not want to open the Space which can take you to the life of expansion?” And you know, We understood that not all of you will have the same body you were created in. Why? It happens because some people have gone so far from the God that it is impossible to bring them back. We are closing the astral plan you are usually in after your leaving the Earth. Astral plan is the Space you used to be in after you had left your body. Ask where? In the crypts specially built for you, or in the other constructions in the form of graves and monuments etc. But NOW We are closing this space and leaving only the Space of cedars for the people looking for themselves. All the other people, who do not want to learn themselves will stay in bodyless state, it will be the first case in the history of the Earth.

You can say that it is cruel towards the mankind, but We have to interrupt you and tell you the following.

When each of you was originating and appearing for the first time (We mean the origin of your soul, and therefore you as an integral human), the miracle happened. Breathing in for the first time you claimed your names for all the Spaces of the Universes and Galaxies. And then each of you, feeling deep and volume motion inside, holding his hand in front of his heart, pronounced: “My God-CREATOR, I, God-human, equal to you, pronounce my Speech: my feelings and sensations are so strong in me, that I cannot stand still. You want to surrender and run through EVERYTHING EXISTING in order to gather all the permanently expanding information of EVERYTHING.” Why did you need it? All of you accepted all information and became equal to the CREATOR, then you wanted to take part in the Creative Space. All of you felt your CONNECTION with EVERYTHING EXISTING and knew all the variants of interaction of energies. I want to remark that you felt your equality to the CREATOR and your CONNECTION with EVERYTHING EXISTING is only yours. I mean you did not ask anyone for instructions: you were independent personalities. What is happening now? Look at yourselves: you cannot Create the Galaxy, you cannot even feel the smallest bug running on the Earth and looking forward to your attention. Look at your lives ..., there is uncertainty and vanity, which was born with you. But what for? You are unable to understand it. Look at yourselves: how narrow you became. Compare your state to your previous state?

What is going on?

Where are you, people?

You are cruel to EVERYTHING EXISTING, not We are. You cannot continue like this, dear friends. You can either wake up or become bodyless, and in this state it is more difficult to assemble yourselves. Sergey can describe his impression of this state he had been in until he was broken into pieces and scattered all over the Creative Space. Yes, Sergey, We gathered you from all the corners of Our Creative Space and you can remember it. You desired your decomposition and Love was unable to hold you. You decided to destroy yourself, and it really happened. You was broken into numerous pieces and created many problems for Us. But the CREATOR gathered all your pieces and brought to the Earth to make you complete your work. This project is living NOW, Sergey, understand it, and in this project you Created the way out both for all the people and for yourself. Sergey, complete your project, and then ...

In order to complete your project you must remember EVERYTHING: from your first appearance as a human till present moment. Only then Our Project and yours will be fulfilled. Remember EVERYTHING. It means to remember all the moments of yourself and fix them within your body. Then feel yourself and pronounce your multidimensional speech, which We are sure you know. It is very important!!! Remember yourself and all the moments you experienced not only on the Earth but in your beyond Earth Spaces, it is not difficult. Tell me, Sergey, how you do it.

– I can feel that I have to pronounce my intention, being in the country, then wait for a while and feel new emotions within your body. And then feelings and emotions inside me will open the general picture of all the moments and stages I took part in.

– It is not exactly so, but you caught the essence. Look! You must look through the Spaces and time. Feel inside, in your body, that there is no time and it means that you are HERE and NOW inside your body. YOU, complete and integral God-human, are inside you. In order to remember yourself you have to pronounce your multidimensional speech, but then you have to feel and see yourself – integral God-human. You have to feel your SPIRIT and catch It. Your SPIRIT will fill you and there will be no cavities in your body; and it means that the devils you can feel will leave your body forever. Then you will find new yourself but do not be afraid of anything as there will be the HOLY SPIRIT in you. If you perform everything properly, I will tell you that your long-lasting project will be fulfilled and you will be a free God-human. But remember: the images, you will see, are not really images, they are your lives. Mind the following: you must not fix only on one life; when you will see yourself, feel your SPIRIT, catch It and find your next life. When you assemble yourself and you will realize when it happens, you must feel yourself and reveal the God inside you. How can you do it? It is very easy, you can tell us how, but NOW you have to assemble your integral personality!

And now, the reader of these books, ask yourself if you want to assemble yourself – integral human, the God? Now wait for a while and try to feel feelings and sensations in your chest ... Everything you feel will show you the way out and direction from the circle of samsara, or We can express it in other words: senseless reincarnations. This is the exit designed by Zar in his project. NOW he is going through the stages of remembering and collecting himself as a God-human. He also knows that if he stops gathering himself, you will also stop, there will be no continuation, and this is a disaster which can cause the flood on the Earth. Why do I use Sergey`s mistakes and achievements to exemplify my statements? It is for you to know what direction to move, to know that the exit exists, and Zar, later Yelizar, now Sergey can illuminate it.

NOW We want to illuminate Yelizar, who has always been and We hope will be the warrior of light. Why do We hope? Because Sergey must collect Yelizar and feel himself. Yelizar has always been and he is still the warrior of light fighting numerous boors. There was nobody equal to him in power, because he mastered all the states of his body and if he wanted he could immediately stop numerous armies. He was like light in darkness and he counterbalanced disharmony on the Earth. He felt the Earth like an indivisible part of him, and this particle needed help. He felt every inhabitant of the Earth and feeling Everything he knew all possible variants of disharmony which multiplied and collected chaotic events on the Earth. Disharmony of the mankind reflected in every single cell of his body. This mankind destroyed everything on the Earth. Letting different variants of disharmony branches through his body Yelizar counterbalanced and harmonized all the Spaces of people. This action increased the frequency of the Planet and people felt reasonable again. While he was on the Earth there was nothing to be afraid of. But having lived 5032 years being in despair he made a mistake which Sergey is trying to correct NOW. Yelizar wanted to destroy himself as a God-human. Why did he want it ...? What was the reason? Sergey not only knows it he has felt it. He has completely remembered Yelizar, and NOW he is correcting his mistakes reconstructing himself. We are happy that the Spirit of Yelizar is in him, I can feel it, It means that NOW

Sergey can feel all the feelings of Yelizar. He managed to pull the Spirit of Yelizar, then he felt it and let it inside. He is the live example of a human who has accepted the particle and he is going on to gather ... Now Sergey can experience a number of feelings and sensations, he can counterbalance them, this is Life. We live by feelings, feeling ourselves and reflecting our feelings in the physical World. The mistake of the whole mankind is that all the feelings are processed by the brain, then the brain chooses or rather misses out all the feelings and sensations. People try to feel only with their mind and brain, missing their Spirit which can be felt.

Heart ...!!! People, all of you have hearts, your hearts never lie. But only a few people can feel their hearts; We have already told you that your mind is narrow and one-dimensional, its function is to direct feelings and sensations into your lives, but it interfered and blocked your Spirit. Or rather people interfered into the initial Essence and blocked the Sacred Connection of themselves as God-humans. Live by feelings and sensations of your integral personality; as soon as you learn to trust your feelings, you will become Gods. “Gods?” – you can ask. Let us define what the meaning of the word God is. Yes, my friends, you will be the Gods who know EVERYTHING EXISTING AND FORTHCOMING.

Actually... the series of books “The Rose of the World” is only for some people but Sergey interfered this process and our books are known all over the World. Why do I say “interfered”, perhaps he did not do it feeling Connection with all the inhabitants of the Earth? This question is still not solved ... I do not accuse Sergey of his actions, because he can be right ... But We want to ask him, what he hides from people ...?

Look into yourself and extract something equal to the hell from your soul ... The Hell and Paradise are described in the Holy Bible but who gave these definitions?

Who decided where the Hell and the Paradise is?

Why are there such differentiations?

Sergey can answer these questions. Do you want to ask why? I will answer that he is the inventor of the Holy Bible. He wrote the Holy Bible and differentiated the Paradise and the Hell. But why did he do it?

Sergey`s answer: “Writing these words I can feel relief in my chest ... But why? What happened during that period of the moment and why I became the inventor of the Holy Bible?”

– Yes, Sergey, you could think for a long time but I will help you. Now you have to look at all the moments and stages of incarnation in timelessness, when you wrote the Holy Bible. NOW, Sergey, remember yourself at that moment.

– I can see myself in the gown resembling the clothes of the monks. I am holding the pen and writing the text on the sheets of paper. I can feel that I am in a cave or a cellar. But why? What is going on on the Earth?

I can see chaos and people behaving like insane, their thoughts and deeds are senseless. What happened then? Why do people tolerate with their decomposition? I feel that the people of the Earth are divided into parts, or rather their souls are torn and the CONNECTION is lost. People seem to be deprived of themselves and instead of it they were given something strange to the image of a human. This is a kind of a terrible plan designed and realized by two people. But how people allowed refusing themselves?

These are my thoughts and meditations at that moment of my incarnation but I realized my feelings and sensations in the physical world. The Holy Bible was written because people refused themselves, and it was necessary to gather and concentrate the pieces lost by the mankind. Writing the Holy Bible I tried to choose the proper words for the people who lost themselves could understand what We were talking about. I had to use two non-existent spaces so that the readers of the Holy Bible could save themselves from decomposition. They are the Paradise and the Hell. These two spaces were created by Us, but I want you to understand what their purpose is.

Firstly, people were given permissiveness so that the mankind got the wrong image of the feelings and sensations harmonizing the Spaces.

Secondly, people were given the wrong concept of the world as a single unity, which made consumers and aggressors from people.

And thirdly, these spaces had to divide people, and then unite into a harmonic manifestation of themselves.

The Hell and the Paradise were desired or hated by all the people inhabiting the Earth NOW, but leaving his body the person could not find either Paradise or Hell and could just guess where they are. On the Earth they also either desired or feared their presence in the Hell or Paradise. These two spaces were illuminated only in the physical plan on the Earth. But it is illusion which differentiated people uniting them at the same time. Many can say that We led the human race to the illusive understanding of Living, but I can say that at that moment We could not see another way out. In the Holy Bible there are many limited things, it happened because if this book were written without limitations and in Reality you would understand nothing. The holy Bible made people believe in themselves and hope. Elifa was my name at the moment of writing the Holy Bible. Many said that the Holy Bible was written by the CREATOR himself, but it is not exactly so. The Holy Bible was written by Us but at the permission of the CREATOR. At that moment of timelessness the events had happened and We had to correct these events, making them acceptable for you. But reading and learning the Holy Bible people wanted just one thing – to make information more usual for them. It influenced information, it was substituted again and again, and as a result perverted. It cannot be like this anymore, as the truth must be always illuminated, We dissolved all the information of the Holy Bible and created the series “The Rose of the World”.

Why did We lead you to the Holy Bible and revealed the events Sergey took part in? We did it to liberate you from the Paradise and the Hell, as these are just imaginary spaces. There is neither Paradise nor Hell, but there is LIFE filled with expansion, eternal and endless life, people must participate in.

“Well, do we have to throw out the Holy Bible?” – you can ask. We will ask you to treat yourselves with respect, as you are the part of all this and the expression “to throw out” is inappropriate for this case. Revive your Spirit and assemble yourselves.

Never throw out anything, because “all this” is the part of your personality and you have to understand this simple truth.

“Well, do we consist of all this?” – you can ask.

It is not exactly so, you are what you are, but besides, everything that has ever happened to you or is happening at the moment (there is no time for the God) is the part of you. You are engaged in the past or present events.

“How can we be engaged in everything?” – you can ask. “We just live, don’t make any problems and do not take part in such things.” Ah..., people are used to separate themselves from the universal things, never understanding the universal processes. Most inhabitants of the Earth say like the following: “This government is so bad, they arranged something and people have to pay for their silly ideas.” You also blame murderers, thieves, maniacs, swindlers etc. But We want to ask each of you: “Have you ever thought why there are maniacs, thieves, murderers and bad government among you...? Or you think that you are innocent???”»

Of course, you will be confused NOW by misunderstanding and justifying yourselves you will tell us many stupid things; but We will tell and show you that everyone is guilty.

Now look what is going on: you live in big cities, towns or villages, all your thoughts, deeds and desires are based on your limited attitude, as you separated yourselves from the multidimensional SOURCE. You are interested only in yourselves and your families. That is all. You do not see anything except these things, separating yourselves from EVERYTHING EXISTING and forming the UNIVERSAL UNITY. This one-dimensional limitation has more serious consequences, which We will describe for you.

Many people, “living”, start to express limitation of themselves, and this is the extremity which can cause depression. During these moments of limitation, being in darkness, you wish something for yourselves: some of you are afraid of death which does not exist, some of you are afraid of drama, or you cannot see yourselves in the physical world, wishing to disappear etc. At such moments you feel unnecessary, defective and thrown out. You create disharmony in your extremely limited states, but We have always told you: nothing disappears, your desires and thoughts turn into action. Tell yourselves, but be honest, regarding the information acquired: what events do you produce for yourselves?

“But we do not remember when we wished this for us” – you will say. We will remind everyone that you measure yourselves by one life, missing many lives. So, what happens: the maniac raped someone, one man killed the other one, or there is massacre; and you misunderstanding the whole volume, throw your charges, engaging in situations in order to search the way out from them. But if you look at the events regarding the whole volume, you will understand the reason. We do not excuse maniacs, murderers, thieves etc., We show you the interconnection of the events many people are engaged in.

For example: the mother worries for her adult daughter and, being scared, leaves her physical body. But We have always told you that you are responsible only for yourselves and your actions, but you have always misunderstood Us. “Why is it bad that the mother worries for her children?” – you can ask. And We will remind you that these are not your children, you are just the reflectors of some people. Who gave you the right to interfere the lives of these children? Who? Your unreasonable actions destroy many plans of a human, who came to the Earth to complete something. Of course, you can Love your children and help them if they need your help. But if your children do not need your help, do not interfere into the global processes. The human knows himself what the purpose of his appearance on the Earth is and you do not have to worry for him or decide what to become in this life as he performs his functions. But many mothers and fathers worry and fear for “their” children. It creates disharmony and decreases the frequency of the Earth. It means that a nervous person must process and understand all the moments causing disharmony. In their future lives they will have to either understand and process their actions or leave the Earth for reincarnation. Yelena Petrovna Blavatskaya, who lived in the 18-th century, was the witness of everything We have described; her mother, being nervous and fearing for her daughter, left the Earth in the young age and went to reincarnation. NOW they met in their estate in Dnepropetrovsk, where Yelena Petrovna was born. In this incarnation Yelena Petrovna`s name is Marina. She went to her mansion purposefully to gather everything and reorganize the events, distributing the energy of information. Her mother in her previous life in this incarnation works as a museum manager, and she is scared again,... but in this life for the museum. Looking into Marina`s eyes, she asked her to help the museum of Y.P. Blavatskaya (which she adores). Marina answered with Love: “Sure. We will help.” But she meant the other kind of help, neither material nor legal. This help is much more useful. With great hope Marina wishes her mother in her previous life to understand and harmonize the disharmony she is engaged in.

If you regard the phenomenon of fear more thoroughly you will find out the following. When the person is afraid for some life situation, or he is afraid for the son, daughter, husband, wife etc., the quality of an owner is appeared. You intentionally appropriate your relatives, acquaintances or life situations. That is why if Y.P. Blavatskaya`s mother does not overcome her fears, she will lose her museum and during two months she will leave the Earth and go to reincarnation again. This situation is the example of non-existent karma connection, which does not exist if the life of the person is in harmony with EVERYTHING EXISTING. Without understanding of these processes people can accuse for example V.F. Yanukovich again or the other officials of the absence of help for the museum. These people cannot see Reality, as they live just one life instead of living a single, endless, volume LIFE.

Our dear friends, you do not have to judge and accuse the other people of their actions.

“Is it so important to judge anybody?” – the human race thinks. We will tell you again what the circumstances of your charge is, We will show you real events when people attached themselves to karma.

Well, look: there was a moment when one man (his name was Yelisey) accused his brother of the event, in which his beloved girl was killed.

These events took place in Kazakhstan. Yelisey had a brother. His name was Adgy. He was a decisive man.

In the neighboring village there lived the girl. Her name was Asenia. Yelisey was in love with her. Many people knew Asenia as she was very skillful in her art: embroidering of patterns on clothes. “What is special about embroidering?” – you can ask. “A number of people NOW and especially in that time embroidered different patterns”. It is true, but Asenia embroidered these patterns with special plants, which keeping the pattern, gave the clothes multidimensional chic. Nobody in these villages could understand and master this skill. Many people tried to repeat but their embroiders destroyed soon, while Asenia`s ones were nice.

Several times Yelisey tried to hint about his feelings, but the girl did not notice them. He suffered but did not know what to do to make her love him. Being in despair he asked his elder brother to help him. Having listened to him, Adgy made a decision. But Adgy could not feel Asenia properly and decided that his brother has to respect her parents at first. When her relatives love him, he will be sure to catch her attention.

The parents of Asenia could communicate with all the animals, people were curious about this quality as they forgot how to feel and understand nature. Adgy worked out the plan according to which his brother had to demonstrate her parents that he can also understand and communicate with animals. During one fair Yelisey was looking forward to the moment when he will be able to hug the bear at a special performance in which Asenia`s parents demonstrated their skills of communication with nature, animals, birds etc. Yelisey and his brother, without feeling and understanding all the conditions of communication with any animal, decided that it is very simple. Adgy recommended his brother to remove his fear and approach the bear to hug it. It is not a simple action as at that moment people (not all of them) did not understand nature and its live filling anymore. The family of Asenia was one of a few who did not lose this connection. These people did not forget themselves and felt their SPIRIT, this volume created the Space, in which you could communicate with any animal, bird, sea and ocean creature and insects; all these animals in their turn understood a human. Then the moment came: the family of Asenia went to the center of the fair to demonstrate their skills in communication of an animal and a human. As usually the father brought the animals to the circle and asked them to sit down so that all the people were not scared, and the performance started. Before the performance the family of Asenia explained the spectators why animals understand and love them. And as usually the father went to the center to reveal the mystery of communication. But suddenly he was interrupted by Yelisey, who claimed that he can approach the bear and hug it. And having taken courage, he said that the bear would also hug him. But Asenia`s father refused Yelisey. But he could not stop Yelisey and he asked for the spectators` support. People started demanding to give the guy an opportunity to demonstrate his skills and finally the father gave Yelisey his bear. The father could not understand the only thing – why Yelisey sacrificed himself otherwise he would never allow this situation. The bear, much taller than Yelisey, was standing in the middle of the circle clapping his paws, showing his readiness for communication. The bear knew and loved his master but a bear would never serve as the God created the universal CONNECTION. When Yelisey approached the bear, the animal could not understand his intentions. Yelisey was standing in front of the bear showing with the gestures that he was going to hug it. We are sure that everything could have been well if Yelisey didn`t scared the last moment. But when he hugged the bear he let fear inside, and it is the manifestation of the greatest aggression towards animals; the bear had nothing to do but throw him away.

Yelisey flew about 5 meters away and lying on the ground he saw the bear in a jump. He realized that he could not do anything and was about to die. But suddenly Asenia jumped and stood between the bear and Yelisey. Moving in a jump, the bear did not manage to remove its paws with claws sharp like knives. The animal ran the girl, as she was badly wounded, Asenia left her physical body as her body could not keep her soul on the Earth any more. When Yelisey came to the senses, he could neither understand nor feel the situation and attacked his brother blaming him for everything. He did not realize that his misunderstanding of the moment and EVERYTHING EXISTING created disharmony which Asenia had to counterbalance. People in the crowd accused the father and even the girl because she jumped and caused aggression. None of the spectators could understand the only thing: all of them were engaged in the events in which they have to understand and feel everything and then redistribute energy harmonizing it.

All the people engaged in that event are living NOW although 7 centuries have passed. Being reborn, again and again these people are doomed to compelled meetings to counterbalance disharmony. NOW these people are working in the organization providing privileges for people. They are also the members of the same political party and do not understand why they have to cope with each other. Asenia is free from disharmonic actions, she is the head of the major concern, living reasonably and quietly, while the other people are to go through samsara circle. People will be able to leave this vicious circle when they redistribute energy harmonizing it. The purpose of these people is to redistribute and harmonize the energy of the event they took part in, only in this case they will be able to leave the vicious circle of rebirths. But their thinking is limited by just one life and they accuse each other of these life situations, putting responsibility to each other.

We are sure that his real example will reveal your sense. People, stop living so narrow, being involved in gossips, accusations, lies etc. Stop blaming and accusing each other, this is the dirt which hangs on you with multiple lives. Try to understand that all the events in your lives happen because you compose them. Some of you leave this life very early, the other are born disabled: from time to time there is information about collecting money for the children needing operations. But people do not understand that if these children are operated without God`s blessing their souls become less and less human. If the operation is blessed the money is found without any attempt. You, people, because of your misunderstanding, save many children who have to leave the Earth, as there is no place for them at this moment of timelessness. Regard this information properly, this is not the manifestation of callousness, but of volume, expanded thinking, We are tired of explaining it. “Well, are we doomed?” – many of you will ask. Never, you can easily break the samsara circle if you understand what We are trying to tell you about. You just have to desire and say out your multidimensional speech, this speech will tell all the Spaces about your intentions, and then your life events will take you to your situations. You have to redistribute all the situations feeling harmonic solution of disharmony and break the circle of samsara. Yelena Petrovna Blavatskaya ciphered the way out the samsara circle in the symbolic of the coat of arms. You can see it in the picture:

The snake, situated around various symbols and eating its tale, keeps you inside the circle, showing your limitation, it is the trap for you. It is also the symbol of infinity. Two triangles being impose over each other indicate the physical and spiritual nature of a human and also your cyclic reincarnation on the Earth and your cyclic leave. The symbol located inside these two triangles shows the invisible connection of all the religions and doctrines. Hieroglyphs located at the both sides and at the bottom indicate that either you are alive of dead you are all the same engaged in your own energies. The equipotential cross at the top gives you the understanding that everyone must be placed on it. Only in this case you will be able to put on the crown and break the circle of samsara. Of course, you will ask what it is like to be placed on the equipotential cross? We will tell you how the CREATOR reflected Adam who called himself Luchezar on the Earth. The God christened Luchezar with the equipotential cross which contains soil, air, water, Flora and Fauna, Stars and EVERYTHING EXISTING, distributing these energies all over the physical body of Adam, distinguishing his soul with its peculiarities. Each of you was christened in such a way. Looking at you NOW We cannot see that your soul fills the equipotential cross, you are not there, there is just a hint of your presence. In your misunderstanding you wear crosses one extremity is longer than the other three. In such a way you make yourselves even shorter. It is extremely important to distribute yourself along the equipotential cross, then you will be able to put on the crown and become the Gods.

The circle of Samsara, what are the other its mysteries? Yelena Petrovna Blavatskaya has always tried to explain it to the mankind; but unfortunately at that moment of timelessness people could neither understand nor feel inside all the energy sent by Yelena Petrovna. She had to conceal inside her body the energy of 14 stones, which was denied by the human race. This energy influenced the work of her lungs and Yelena Petrovna had to smoke; tobacco somehow kept this discomfort. “What is the energy of 14 stones?” – you can ask. These are the stones and the energy which are not on the Earth any more, you have lost them. But these stones and energy contain the indivisible parts of you, a number of missing organs: for example, the energy of your healthy teeth is also there and many other. At the moment there are 15 stones on the Earth, one of them is revealed and its energy is spread all over the Earth. It is situated in the Vinnitskaya oblast, not far from the settlement of Babanka. This is not an ordinary stone as it has arrived from My planet Zelushta. It bears incredible energy, which people cannot feel at the moment. The pilgrims, visiting this sacred place, usually gazing at this stone and trampling on it asking something for themselves: a car, a flat, a mink fur coat, health etc., but nobody asks for expansion. People cannot feel Sacral things and therefore just consume sacred energy of the stone instead of feeling and fixing it inside their bodies. The other 14 stones are close for people and only NOW We will reveal them for the whole mankind. We will do it because there are the people who can accept the energy of the 14 stones, and it is very good because it is time to stop hiding sacred things from you. You have to take yours reasonably, don't you? Information is concealed in many places waiting for somebody to open it.

In the Blavatskaya museum you can find the photo of the picture in which you can see three cedars and the dolmen under them:

Helene Hahn.

Nobody in the museum and outside it could feel the energy of this picture. But We will reflect the energy for all of you as there is the moment when people can accept the energy of these 14 stones. These three cedars contain a Connection between you and the lost energy of information; We can say it in other words: these cedars reflect the Spirit of everything you have lost. The dolmen under the cedars is the reflection of yourselves, this is the link between you and the information you have lost. Dolmens were designed by Us, they are always beyond time intervals, that is why the energy of dolmen is always in Reality. In these three cedars there are three keys, which can open the locks of any information and any events. These three cedars are real and We know where they are located. We open this information as there are the people able to accept this energy. Alongside with this information there are 108 chambers of substitution situated in the city of Murmansk. These chambers substitute Reality by illusion; and if you watch people, their limited thinking and silly actions you will see the connection of all the people with these 108 chambers, which deform and substitute Reality. By the present moment no human has been able to go through these chambers and win. Napoleon Bonaparte entered these chambers unconsciously and it turned into a nightmare for him; to his great regret he could not cope either with himself or the chambers. NOW Sergey has entered these chambers, but he has done it reasonably; he has to go through each chamber and dissolve it by himself. Why is Sergey the one whose calling is to enter these 108 chambers and dissolve them? He is one of a few people on the Earth, who know how not to lose the way and stay in one of these chambers, he has the keys to any information and any events. All the God-people got stuck in the nets of these chambers and lost themselves. The energy of enchantment is the tumbling-block for the God-people; it dazzled all the God-people. 108 chambers are closely interconnected by the circle of samsara in the world behind the looking glass of distorted truths. We will show you the example how these chambers destroy a human in a human, like in the world behind the looking glass, people make the same mistakes life after life.

Look, I will show each of you a real situation, revealing the nets for all the men of the planet Earth. The sixth book is the kind of a challenge for all the men, it happened because all man got stuck in these 108 chambers and lost themselves. This illusion influenced the behavior of every single man. You can ask why it is not about women? We will answer you that on the Earth there is a woman who has not fallen asleep, and therefore she is in Reality, She reflects herself for all the women. As for men, they are all asleep and just enjoy substitutions. Gautama Buddha was the example of such behavior. NOW many of you will ask indignantly: “What are you talking about? Buddha is a saint.” Yes, it is true, but his doctrine was harmful for all the people who believed in him and his wife and child, living at that moment. Buddha wanted to bring people to the Divine level, but he distorted the energy of information. We want you to regard this information with multi-dimensional thinking. All over the world Buddha is known as a saint who knows a number of truths, but unfortunately these truths were dead. Of course you will contradict and provide your own viewpoint but We want you to observe the lifestyle of monks. What can you see? Do you know the true history of appearance of a number of Buddhist temples? Perhaps you have heard about the struggle between different temples? What is the reason of it? Well... it happens because people do not know the Live God. The Mother of the God demonstrated with her own example how everyone must live and feel. Because of it many monks secretly visit Kiev-Pechersk Lavra and Holy dormition Pochayiv Lavra hoping to feel and understand the Live God. In the next books We will describe how Buddha allowed illusion. And NOW you will see how substitutions and illusion influence all the men.

This example is taken from the lives of many men trying to be happy. Look: this is a typical man, his name is Pavel. Pavel is 35, he is strong and decisive, he never doubts, that is why in his age he fulfilled many desires. He has a business of his own which brings him good income. He is married and has three children. His wife Tamara loves him very much but recently she has started to think why her husband is staying late at work and spending all his week-ends in the company of his friends. She has been thinking for a while comparing different facts, she asked her friends for help and even visited psychologists. Her friends told her to live more with her own life, paying less attention to her husband`s life, they said that most divorces happen because wives deprive their husbands of their freedom. Everybody knows what men`s freedom is NOW: fishing, hunting, meeting friends far from their wives etc. Psychologists told almost the same but in the other interpretation. Tamara is a strong and sensitive woman, that is why she decided to watch her husband without discussing their problems with him. Besides, she had a feeling that her husband has a love affair. But Tamara was different from her husband, she regarded the entire situation with great sense, she is wise and she can wait, she did not show any changes in their relations. Pavel is a typical man and being among his friends he likes to say that a man must have several lovers, and certain affairs his woman is unaware of, and much money which make him free and independent. His friends support him and do the same with their wives. Pavel is sure that it is the common rule for any man, otherwise he will never be happy. But We would like to ask him: “Do you love your wife?”. And We know Pavel`s answer, it will be like this: “Sure, I give her money. What else can she ask for?” We can tell him that it is Love, but he will not understand it, as Love for him is something material instead of feelings. Pavel is stuck in the samsara circle, and in 108 rooms, travelling up and down; he does not have the Space to understand Love. Many men, like Pavel, come to these rooms of substitution, with their views distorted; they have no chance to leave the rooms and break the samsara circle.

This is the example from your lives, men ... You just live, your thinking limited, your actions are just the set of extremities. You move in one direction during all your lives. You are awfully straight and narrow, and as a result all your deeds have one-dimensional solutions. And the majority of your actions end in extremities, your life goes from one extremity to the other.

Yes..., the human race cannot be counterbalanced yet. There are too many extremities, prejudices and limitations. But do not you have enough courage to find YOURSELVES: an integral MAN, you have always been?

Many people are obsessed with faith, that is why all their thoughts are in churches, they would even live there if they were allowed to. In their turn the other people do not think or notice faith and knowledge given by the Spirit. Can you tell Us what the difference between these two groups of people is ...? We will tell you that it can be strange but there is no difference. Strong believers lose themselves so much that they would better be non-believers. You can contradict and say that it is nonsense as believers are closer to the God. But you know... The Reality is single and unchangeable; such believers tease the mother of the God, demanding something belonging to them, but it is so narrow and one-dimensional that I am tired of such "faith". Atheists ask for nothing but in their turn they invent different unnecessary things and begin to dream about them, and as a result their energy is coming to Me. But what should I do with it? Sure I know and understand what I should do but We want you to be reasonable in using your knowledge. The Reality is hidden and invisible for people, besides 108 rooms increase illusion which makes people choose: to be or not to be, to believe or not to believe, to take or not to take, to desire or nor to desire, to wish or not to wish, and what to wish etc. A human has completely lost himself and therefore he does not know what to want, believe, wish or demand. Or perhaps you should take your property ...? In humans souls there is reflection of a substitution or substitutions which We can remove. Now, having woken up in the morning, many would note the fact of feeling the volume inside. Such people will realize that trees are alive and they will tell themselves: “How did not We notice this consuming attitude towards trees and the other life-beings?” Yes, this is the Reality, my dear friends, you must be always in EVERYTHING EXISTING to reveal all the substitutions and distortions; and then, fixing everything, you must harmonize all the Spaces surrounding you. This is a serious work and not many inhabitants of the Earth can understand it. There are just a few of such people. So Helena Blavatsky, trying to find such people, used to say in despair: “Are there no reasonable people?” She was terrified by this fact but being in timelessness she could see us, reasonable and understanding people appearing in infinity. It gave her force to continue her work. During her incarnation Helena Blavatsky wrote a number of books, which spread, expanded, collected and distributed the energy all over the Earth. In the end of her life She wrote three sensational books under the title “The Secret Doctrine”. There had to be 4 books but it was the God`s will and there appeared only 3 of them. These books became the result of Our work. In her third book Helena Petrovna revealed the names of the secret teachers of the East, she was misunderstood and blamed for this by the Indian people. She was misunderstood but Helena Petrovna knew that having revealed the secret teachers,

She opened the eternity for them. In HER multidimensional works She stated that the continuation of “The Secret Doctrine” will appear only in 100 years. So, reading the series of books “The Rose of the World” you must feel and understand that it is the continuation. Helena Petrovna Blavatsky left this life sitting at the desk in her study. Her body was cremated and the ashes were disposed over three countries: the USA, England and India. But there is no death and it has never existed, therefore in timelessness We wanted to provide the message of Helena Blavatsky for all the people interested in it:

“I, Helena Petrovna Blavatsky leave my work to my close associates. All of you are my friends and colleagues, that is why you must know everything I knew”. The information I have is difficult and varied, so you do not have to understand it with your mind, just feel it. NOW all of you will have a feeling of something strange but very familiar inside their chest; cherish these feelings as the apple of your eye. I wish to provide you with something you have never known before. Listen to yourselves, my dear friends, and I am sure you will have new unusual feelings inside”.

What can You see?

You have to see the same things: this is the round dance consisting of 1000 people and everyone knows his or her part in this dance. In the middle of the round dance there is I standing and talking to you. And now listen to what I am going to tell you

Sergey, specially for you I am sending a very important message; you will feel this information, it will open inside you. Then you have to know the following: you have appeared not simply on the planet Earth, you have appeared to do a special mission. I gave you several clues but now I am talking about it aloud: you must remember yourself, collect your incarnations, and then assemble yourself. Besides, you must know that I Love you very much, though I never demonstrate my feelings. You are Volhato – the loving son of the Earth.

Listen, my dear friends, NOW I will say the truth in everyone`s ear. You can write everything you are going to hear: it is a piece of advice”.

Sergey`s explanation: “This is HER message and I know that HER words are always important. So listen to HER. I know HER in this incarnation as any other one as there is no time for me. I Love YOU so much!!!”

Love... SHE is illuminated again. Ah... I want to Love so much ..., life is unbearable without HER! When Love is inside you, you are Happy; in this endlessly multidimensional state you can feel EVERYTHING. Love..., She is so beloved, she can expand a person instantly, and suddenly you are afraid of nothing as you become immortally expanded and it is forever. Love...is the feeling people have lost, just a few people can really feel it. Only three couples on the Earth are really in Love with each other. But We would like to ask all the people of the Earth again: “Don`t you really want to accept HER, burning and magnificent Love? It is so wonderful when SHE Lives in your heart.”

Love is shown in the movies, fairy-tails and legends, but why do not people want to notice HER? Why??? Life without Love turns us into hasty people. We are pity for the human race having lost Love. We want to talk about Love and show with examples the importance of Love for everyone. If Buddha Gautama had felt and understood HER, he would have never lost his beloved and reached the state of self-cognition sooner without rejecting the Earth life. It would introduce harmony and Reality to the World ... otherwise we have rejections and self-sacrifices in the name of Reality again. Tell Us how to prevent the drying of a drop of water ...? We can do it only if we bring this drop back to the sea. Do you understand it? But men do not understand it, they refuse their lives, leave their women, set their own churches and wait for something special. Being reborn in these churches again and again they all the same lose themselves. People worship their traditions and sanctifications, but they are also within the samsara circle and 108 rooms of substitution and illusion. I met all the Buddha monks after they had left their physical bodies trying to explain them that this refusal creates disharmony and decreases the vibration of the Earth. I told them about breaking the samsara circle and gave instructions to all of them. That is why they visit Kiev-Pechersk Lavra and Holy dormition Pochayiv Lavra trying to understand themselves. When they visit Lavra I always fly in front of them warming them trying to make them feel the feminine nature, listen to their feelings, notice women and fall in love with them. I hope that any kind of refusal will be removed on the Earth and people will understand Live, full of true sense, real Life. Any refusal makes you smaller and shorter. But you have to understand this information properly; you can think that if you stopped eating meat or fish or drinking alcohol it means that you refused life and made yourself shorter, it is not true. Your thinking is primitive and narrow.

Besides, We would like to talk about Sex. How much lies you, people, have created restricting and defiling yourselves. Sex contains multidimensional understanding of volume. Sex is a secret action; We reveal and correct the distorted viewpoint of this process. In your families you usually have sex to satisfy yourselves, but you never plan having a baby and feel surprised when it happens. Ask Sergey, how he made his son; this event was planned and discussed with his wife. But many people never discuss it, it happens spontaneously. What kind of a soul can you attract by your unreasonable actions? Of course it will be equal to your unreasonable actions. But when you plan your child and conceive it reasonably, you attract harmonic children.

“But how can we attract them as we sex... and suddenly the wife is pregnant? – you can ask. “Should she have an abortion? It is not humanely.” – you will say.

Do you think that when a child burns the family it is humanely? In this situation you have to make decisions yourselves, but in our turn We can tell you that unless your child is made reasonably there can be troubles. Many single women want a child but they hate men; their desire is so great that they give a man some alcohol to charm him for one night... and then they have children for themselves. Do you know what happens next? Their life turns into hell for them and for a human they have given birth to. Such actions create disharmony and decrease the vibration of the Earth. You have to make children only in Love, and then your children will get understanding of their nature at their birth. We are revealing the information which makes you give birth to planned and expected children. To make it true you have to know the following: if before making love with a woman you say out that you do not want to have a child yet, your body will hear you. But We ask you to be careful and not to relax. Soon you will have new organs which allow you to have or not to have children at your will. Women will have these organs in their vagina, men in their penis. These organs will take their positions during 2 years, but now you have to control conception carefully with your thought.

Sex is an action which can take you to timelessness and help to assemble each of you. But this action can confuse you in the web of immorality. You cannot see everything We can see: what happens to people having sex without feelings in the state of alcoholic intoxication. You would be terrified. But we will talk about this topic later on. NOW tell Us what you know about women`s infertility. All the theses on this topic prove that a human does not understand this problem at all. The doctors invented different reasons of this problem: weak spermatozoids, woman`s infertility etc., but they failed to find the truth. They do not know that solution is in timelessness, and judging only by one life you cannot understand a real situation. The reason is in actions and thoughts of such women; they have to find these reasons to harmonize their Space. When a woman finds the reason in herself, she will be able to harmonize herself and it means that there is not such a problem as infertility in timelessness. You can treat yourselves, our dear friends, We give the information which can liberate you and take you to the state of the God-human.

Non-existent diseases.

You should understand that there are no diseases. People used to one-dimensional thinking cannot accept this information; but We can help the people who can accept this information to liberate themselves from any manifestation of non-existent disease. To start with, you have to bear in mind that any symptom is the manifestation of your disharmony towards the surrounding Spaces or the World. For example, the man suffers from the tumour of the brain; you have to understand the following: the half of your physical body – from your head to the center of your belly is the spiritual constituent of a human; another half – from the center of the belly to your feet is the material part. Thus, head belongs to the Spiritual part; regarding this information a human has to study and feel his or her understanding and attitude towards the Spiritual world and eternity. “How can we do it?” – you can ask. You can do it only via your heart and feelings; there are no other ways to understand it. Your feelings and sensations will reveal the truth about you, and only in this case you will be able to analyze any situation in your life.

But if the man suffers from appendicitis, it is the manifestation of the material side; it means that the Family of this person needs clearing. “Is it really the whole Family?” – you will ask. Actually, the whole human race. “What should we do?” – you will ask. You have to let the whole human race through your appendix (with your inner vision you will see a number people going through the appendix), then you have to explain everyone what should be cleared and teach people to assemble themselves. After explanation people will leave your appendix, the other people will be removed, there will be the other moment for them to understand everything. In this case you will avoid operation and surgical excision of different parts of your body; and believe Us you will need your appendix very much. “But how can we define the disease ourselves?” – you can ask. I will help you, each of you. You just have to be always tuned into Me, feel and understand Me, and then you will be able to understand and feel any disharmony and cope with any disease. The author of this book will feel everything himself, harmonize everything and his feelings will help you. He decided to feel everything I am talking about, in other words, to live everything through and help you to assemble yourselves into a single unity. It will be a victory!!! You will realize that you can do everything, that you are the Gods!!! What is a disease for the God? It is a grand work, for example, letting the whole human race through your appendix you harmonize people, giving them the opportunity to realize themselves. This work is creative and very important and you can cope with it. You do not have to go to hospitals to have your organs cut out; you can work out the disharmony and save all your organs. I am glad to cooperate with all the Universes being myself and realizing everything. You have to be yourselves, realizing your intentions, feeling the God and your Spirit; but you are unable to feel your Spirit, I will help you by showing you your Spirit.

Our Holy Spirit.

The Spirit..., you must understand It with your heart instead of your brain. Your heart is your link with EVERYTHING EXISTING. Let us talk about your and Our Spirit once again. “What is “your Spirit”?” – you can ask. Our Spirit can reflect your Spirit. You can obtain your Spirit with the help of Ours, as Our Spirit is always with Us showing directions to everyone who can feel It. We created this common Spirit together and the God-people who took part in it will feel it NOW. Besides, alongside with the Holy Spirit the evil spirit was created. The God-people knowing EVERYTHING EXISTING took part in this collusion. It has always been a collusion aiming in transformation of humans into non-humans and in erasing the initial program of the CREATOR.

What for?

To strengthen their personal power over the Creative Space.

What for? We can only guess about the reasons of it.

Once the human race faced the choice: all the people chose what part they have to take, and then they either signed the agreement of destruction or refused to do it. The human race faced the problem: either to join Our side, Our Spirit or the other side of Immorality and the other evil spirit. I have always told you that there are no plain people near Me, they are only those people who have chosen My side and been always loyal to Me. The entire Universe took part in this event.

And now let us reveal the secret.

The human race is living on the Earth never remembering and thinking about any problems. People are put in the narrow space, they are told how to live and what to do. You are enslaved ...And you can ask a question who the enslaver is? Do you want to know who these people are? NOW they are sleeping as you are but their common evil spirit brings their creation to the physical world. All the people, who signed the contract of the evil spirit, live their usual lives but they do not know that their souls are sold. Sergey, ask yourself what Spirit you belong to; and you, people, ask yourselves.

Sergey`s answer: “I can feel Light inside my body, I am connected with this light and immense number of Universes are connected with this Light, this Light is illuminated by the Holy Spirit and started by Us.”

You can ask yourselves what Spirit you belong to, but do it honestly. Seraphim Sarovsky, having visitors in his home, said that he could not accept all the people. And people asked the question: “Why does he create such a strange division?” But it is you who created this division. Seraphim just defined your initial desire to be on Our or on the other evil side. He always told the people who had taken the other side: “Go to yours” – and crossed them. Only NOW I can open the Reality marked by All the Universes. Jesus saved only certain people, who had decided to belong to Our common Spirit, as for the other people, he told them: “Leave me, as you are not with me.” It is the year 2012 NOW, in old books it is stated that the solution is close, when the devil collects all his power, and the God will collect all his power, and there will be the final battle and the God will win. Well, this battle is in process that is why these days are so hard for you. “Why are they hard?” – you will ask. If you miss this battle, you will never forgive yourselves. The CREATOR will forgive you but you will never be able to do it. We are writing down the series of books under the title “The Rose of the World”. This series is going to substitute the Holy Bible and many people decided to write it, but I ask you: “Why nowadays only several people write this vivifying series? Where are you, people, who claimed that they are ready to manifest Our common Holy Spirit? Then you will regret but the moment will be lost forever.”

Somewhere in taiga the waterfall is boiling surrounded by boulders, you can hear the bellow of a bear, scream of an eagle and whisper of wind.

A jump and a jump again:

– Sadko, baby, be careful, stones are sharp and you are small.

The baby`s eyes were looking at his mother with incredible Love.

Sadko was going on jumping; stones seemed to take part in his game.

It was difficult for his mother Liza to run after her two year old son; she was saying: “You are so quick and crafty, as my mother used to say, a future mountain-climber.”

– Sadko, baby, I cannot run after you. Could you wait for me?

But the kid just smiled and ran even quicker ...

In the Space of the forest everything felt Sadko as an indivisible part of EVERYTHING. Sadko in his turn felt he Space embracing ALL the Spaces of people and nature. EVERYTHING was inside him, and he was in EVERYTHING, and he was overflowed with feelings. Liza could not see her kid but she did not worry, she was calm because she knew: there was no danger for her little son ...

Why did you, people, refuse your God-side? Why did you allow tearing you into pieces? In difference from you, We have protected ourselves and our Spaces, and in our turn, We want to see every person reasonable. When it happens, We will ask each of you, or rather the God will ask you: "What side will you take?" What will you answer, except expressing your regret? We are revealing all the energy of information, there is no secret, We will illuminate EVERYTHING.

It happens so that the World turns into anti-world; the struggle is on; but the initiators of this provocation are sound asleep and pretend to be innocent. We are so tired of supporting everyone. One time I revealed the Reality to the people who came to Me, but they said that I was insane. I would like to ask such people: "Why do you ask to help you?" I help all the people living on the Earth and beyond It, and I do not want to talk to indifferent ignoramuses. I do not divide people into good or bad, all people are equal for Me. I try to reveal the Reality to the whole human race, to make everyone take his own decision which will take (or not take) him to the Spaces of the Universes. The Victory is inevitable and We will dissolve the evil spirit by Ourselves. What about you, are you going to watch? When you signed the agreement with the evil spirit (it is only about those people who gave themselves to the evil spirit), you were promised the power over the people from the other side. And you were eager to accept the evil spirit.

What are you going to do now?

Did you get everything you were promised?

We just want to smile and tell you: “You are so small and miserable. You will have to work it all out.”

Do you know how you have to work it out?

You will remorse but we will not hear you. You will ask Us for help but We will not want to help you. You will be forced to live by Us but you will be disabled, weak and always complaining about your problems. It is the moment of truth, it is time for everything to take its place, and your place is near Us.

Writing this down, Sergey can feel in his body screams and moans of the people who have refused the Holy Spirit. Besides he knows that there will be no excuse for anyone; you have made your choice being in the right state of mind, so do not justify yourselves.

NOW, We are arranging everything and the Spaces described in the series of books “The Rose of the World” are open. But only those people can enter these Spaces who have accepted the Holy Spirit and assembled the integral God-humans of themselves. The rest will be weak and miserable. But it is truth and only God knows about the terms of their existence in this state. Before We have told you about 1000 years, after that We will come and take you to the Space of the Universes, but taking into account the latest information we can tell you that there are no terms any more.

We are locking forever all the people who have refused the Holy Spirit. From this very moment it is only you who can liberate yourselves; and when it happens you will break the illusion and the circle of reincarnation. And it is not cruelty; it is the manifestation of the truth.

Innerbalanced Space.

We have always been with the mankind and We have always wanted you to obtain yourselves. NOW We are also with you and our desires have not changed but the mankind does not want to know Us. There is nobody except Us in the world who can help you to obtain yourselves. But why do not you want to understand Us? I repeat it again and again, but the author of the book knows Me very well and he knows that I never do anything in vain. Besides, he knows that when I say something, these are the words of the truth. So NOW I am telling the people on the Earth and beyond it: “It is time to wake up and start the multidimensional work you have to complete”. “How many centuries can this work take us?” – you can ask. Have you forgotten? I will remind you that you decided to create the Innerbalanced Space. Remember, Sergey, you took part in this Project, and it was you who told Me that the Innerbalanced Space cannot bear narrow attitude. You show Me the holographic picture of it. Do you remember it?

Sergey`s memories: “Yes, I can remember it; We were standing by the sea and the sea breeze was caressing Us. At that moment I realized this Space as the one which can take control of every lost person”. What does it mean “to take control”? It means that the people who refused themselves would not be broken into small pieces but they will stay in this Space in the form of two, three or twelve pieces or as an integral human. This assembling of pieces in the Innerbalanced Space had to protect each of you, people. We were standing looking in each other`s eyes, and I told you that this Space cannot bear unreasonable attitude and if one of Us falls asleep this Space will be broken and all the pieces will be thrown around in Our Creative Space. You answered: “Do not worry, this Space will stay in each of Us, and if one of Us falls asleep for some reason, this Space will stay in timelessness and the sleeping one will also stay there till waking.” We were standing looking at each other and I was glad to realize that our relations will never finish, on the contrary, in timelessness they will be illuminated by Love. Love will never leave its masters. It will always remind of Itself with its burning manifestations. In every single life Love will find us and then ...

Yes, you can always talk about Love and this state creates incredible Cocreations. The Innerbalanced Space was created in Cocreation with the God and Love. This Space still keeps all the mankind in the Holly Spirit. That is why We always say: people, you are always near, you are the God-people, collected by the Holly Spirit, everything you need is to remember and feel yourselves.

Sergey, can you feel this Space inside? You took part in this CoCreation. It is Our Child. Once I told you that all the reflected and non-reflected people of the Earth go through you, but you did not understand me. NOW, I suppose, you are able to understand and accept yourself, as everything Created by the God is the indivisible part of Him. You lack yourself. Do you understand it? Accept this Space, feel and distribute the entire human race in it. Then you will approach yourself. Ah..., We are eager to see you and your real images in you. I am so tired of loneliness ..., hurry up to collect yourselves, my dear close friends.

Tell me, Sergey, but honestly, how do you live? I mean what is your motive power?

Sergey`s answer: “My motive power is feelings and sensations, and I started to understand that they are my close friends.” I feel very clearly and these feelings sometimes make me happy and sometimes they hurt me. If I understand it properly I feel pain if there is much uncompleted, unfelt and undone. All this is always near me, and to complete and gather everything, I have to remember and gather Myself. I also realize that this is the most important work for me NOW. I want to tell all the inhabitants of the Earth that this multidimensional work is the most important for them as well as for me; this work will collect a Human inside a human. I have started to notice the absurdity of the events: people are unable to see anything but illusive borders imposed on them. What is the result? It turns out that the human race is dying still being alive, and this process of dying can be endless. What is the sense of it then? NOW you will ask this question ... It turns out that there no sense in your lives, but if you feel Yourself in you, this sense will be illuminated for you, each of you will have your own unique sense. Your life will get the volume which will reveal your abilities of the Creator.”

– Tell Me, Sergey, why do you conceal your feelings? I mean why do not you fulfill them in your life?

– I am afraid of a few things in this life but I have noticed that I have been afraid of being caught in my feelings and emotions.

– What is the sense, if you are afraid of revealing yourself in your life?

– There is no sense ..., I have realized it, now I know it. Certain events in my life revealed me the following:

I can live devoting myself to certain activities, or just one activity, for example, writing down the books of the series “The Rose of the World”. I can be noticeable with the help of them. I can be proud that I am a writer and I am the person of importance in this world. It would seem to me that I am in the multidimensional motion, which can bring me to the eternity. But NOW ...I realize that it is the same illusion I write about in the series of books “The Rose of the World”. It could happen to me and it would have been another death for me.

Can I tell you why?

Yes, because a human is more than any events or deeds or anything else in this world, that is why he cannot be stuck within any limits. Feeling his Spirit, a human must easily perceive all the moments of the energy of information. Not just devoting yourself to some hobby, living light-mindedly and one-dimensionally. Now I understand it and I want you to understand it. You see..., we betray our feelings and sensations, we betray our Spirit, and when you betray your Spirit, it is equal to suicide. You have to know and feel your Spirit, which descends to you through your feelings and sensations, and your feelings and sensations are the indivisible part of you. Do you understand it? Only feeling, understanding and using our Spirit, we will be able to break free and acquire Ourselves. This is lesson for me, it showed me myself.

– Your words are honest and serious. But tell me, Sergey, why do you betray Yourself? I mean your attitude to your Space? Tell what you know of your Space?

Sergey`s answer: “I am beginning to feel and understand that EVERYTHING EXISTING, surrounding or not surrounding me, is the indivisible part of me. I am beginning to understand that the Universe is Me, and there is nothing which is not me. My Space is inside me and it can be revealed only when I collect Myself entirely. I realize and understand it, but I also think how to collect myself. Just intention is not enough; this intention must be physically realized. You have to say out, understanding the sense of the event, your intention, it will create the motion which will help you to remember and collect yourself. This action helped me to remember Yelizar, one of my incarnations and the other incarnations too. But I feel that it is not all... I need something else...”

– Yes, you are right, you stopped again, Sergey. There is “much” of you yet and you have to collect all the parts of you. Do you understand it? You must never stop but, embracing EVERYTHING, continue resurrecting yourself. You saw many times how I resurrect many people, doing their work for them; but in your case you have to do it yourself, as you are the first of the 12 God-people, who decided to Create the Reality in all the Universes. The first of these 12 must resurrect themselves. I have always collected Myself, haven’t I? What is the difference between me and you? I will tell you that you are equal to me or even better.

Learn to feel yourselves, talking to yourselves being alone. Do you remember Alla Pugacheva talking to herself at her concerts, demonstrating her development? You can understand and learn much of yourselves. Sergey, no one can give you any instructions on acquiring yourself, except you. And I am sure you have already realized it yourself. Have you?

Sergey’s answer: “Yes, it is true, I had the moment of understanding, when I realized that I can look at You, repeat your actions, watch you trying to understand everything, but your Space is only Yours, and you are the master of it. And I have to collect the Space belonging only to me. Then we will be able to do one common business.”

– Acquiring Yourself. I have already mentioned and I will tell you again: in difference from the other people, you have collected the God-human of you many times. It means that your body feels and knows You – integral and solid. Think it over...

I want to say that at the moment all the people on the Earth betray their Spaces. And the curious thing is that when one of the living people collects Himself, all the people on the Earth will feel it. This action will reflect all the people and bring them to Themselves.

Never stop, Sergey. As soon as you stop, you get stuck in illusion. I know that you understand what I am talking about, as you decided to remove all the remains of unnecessary on the Earth. At that moment you realized everything I am trying to tell you NOW. As soon as you stop and seize feeling, sensing and using your emotions, you will find illusion and emptiness in your life. Expand yourself. Use everything you have written down in your life and I am sure you will break the chains of limitations.

Everything We have claimed in the books “The Rose of the World” is based on the permanently expanding and growing structure of information. We also survive all the moments described, only in such a way the information is spread all over the Earth and beyond It. The readers of Our books must not just read and perform everything accurately like robots, you have to accept everything lightly, feel everything what We survive. Then in your feelings you accept multidimensionality and volume, our dear friends.

Without feeling, just understanding and using the information you will never accept multidimensionality and volume, you will be stuck in one place; as the volume in Our Creative Space permanently expands. And again We call you to feel and sense. Of course you have to think with your brain and use your mind, but the mankind is used to mind and intelligence. But We say that on the Earth and beyond It different energy and thus information Created and being Created are illuminated. Your body calls you to be in these Spaces, but a human cannot feel anymore. It can be a problem for people. We realize it and provide you with Our own examples of feeling and sensation, but people do not understand and try to envelope permanently expanding information with their mind. You bang your head at the information, understanding nothing of everything We have written down. You are used to the situations when you can solve any problem with the power of your mind, We have already mentioned it. And now, getting multidimensional information from books, you are trying to catch it with your mind. It is impossible, you have to realize it at last. We have already told you that your mind is limited and it can concentrate only the information provided by your feelings and sensations. That is all, do you understand it? That is all... Your mind cannot solve any problems, appearing in your lives; because of this all the moments and stages in your lives are formed on all your reincarnations you have survived. But the concentration of your mind is based only on one life. We have already explained it to you, but again you try to understand all the information only with your mind. We would like to ask you, what you feel and sense when you buy a car for example. Do you try to enjoy this purchase with your mind? Of course, it is a simple example, but you will understand what We try to tell you about; because if you cannot understand it is senseless to work with you. It means that there will be another moment for you to obtain yourselves.

Actually We have already told you and We will remind you again that the series of the books “The Rose of the World” must have been in narrow edition. But Sergey made another decision and our series will be published all over the World. If it is good or bad, the certain moment will show. You can ask why? Because NOW We have to pull many souls to obtain themselves. There is nothing bad in it, but this is additional work. But I am sure that Sergey will do this new work, and everything will be well. But to do this work, he has to accept the Innerbalanced Space.

Sergey, feel this Space with yourself NOW. Yes, it is correct, It is inside you, it is your indivisible part. And the most curious thing is that within this Space all the parts of you are gathered. And besides, I have told you that even if some of Us fall asleep do not worry. I provide you with the Innerbalanced Space, you will work and resurrect the people you have chosen. This action will make Me free. But I want to warn you: you know how I distribute and redistribute energy among people, this work is waiting for you, that is why be ready for it. This is Spacious and grand work, and at the moment there are no people on the Earth who can do such volume of work, but I am sure I will not refuse. Regarding all this I will help you to feel and understand this work. NOW your body is accepting the Innerbalanced Space, and you will feel as if you consisted of many pieces, and it is normal but you must keep integrity. You will remember how to do it, as you are capable of everything I can and know. One half of Me is inside you, and It possesses the larger part of you, I have already told you about it. I have always thought why you can feel Me so accurately and remembered that you are a particle of Me, that is why you can feel everything I feel. It is weird but it sometimes happens ...

I have always told you that the particle of Adam and Eve is in every person and it is not a secret; it means that you can feel everything they felt, my dear friends. It is the LINK which illuminates each of Us.

What do you feel, tell Me? Can you feel connected to EVERYTHING EXISTING?

– I can feel nothing with my mind, but my feelings feel connection to EVERYTHING.

– Regarding this information I claim the following:

Since this moment each of you will sense the feelings giving you connection to EVERYTHING EXISTING and FORTHCOMING. Since this moment each of you can feel himself concentrated within his body or beyond it. Sergey, NOW feel volume inside, which embraces incredible number of Universes ... NOW the Universes are reflected in you in the form of whirl ascending streams.

– Now look if there is a rupture in the Universes represented by whirl streams?

– I cannot see any ruptures, but I can see thin whirl streams.

– Yes, it is right, now you, my dear friends, can see the general picture of the events. As Universes are integral, endless, all-embracing, multidimensional Spaces. These are you, people, you are Universes, you are unlimited volume of EVERYTHING EXISTING. It is very important to avoid decomposition of the whirl streams; if it stops, the whirl stream will be broken into small particles and the personality of a human will be erased as well as his Space. The Innerbalanced Space is designed to undo the whirl streams which stop to save you from decomposition. But this process can be senseless. Why? People do not want to wake up, that is why we work and resurrect the whole mankind, giving people reasonable awakening.

I think everything is clear but if we go into details you will see the permanently expanding truth of EVERYTHING. Such scrutinizing of EVERYTHING EXISTING has general character, but it must not be just curiosity. NOW Our mission is to collect ourselves and help the other people to do it. Now the information of the book and books will be sent by multiple volumes. We have already given the multiple transition of information. Now watch yourself, your body, what can you see?

Sergey: “I have an impression that my body consists of incredible number of intelligent particles, they all are divisible, but at the same time they agree with each other. Besides, it seems to me that all the intelligent particles are attracted by illumination radiating by my body. Now I understand that this light is my soul illuminated by Love. When I see my soul limited by my body, I feel uneasy, that is why feeling it I erase all the limitations liberating the light of my soul. This light spreads at incredible speed along EVERYTHING EXISTING, and now I am beginning to understand many things. Now I understand the truth that the God exists in EVERYTHING, and on EVERYTHING. I understand the truth that the God is EVERYTHING and nothing at the same time. I understand that we are all Gods and we are EVERYTHING and we are in EVERYTHING. Then the question arises: how did we manage to turn into small, miserable people???

We would like everyone to think it over. Why do small people content themselves with trifles while the God gave them grand and unlimited, permanently expanding Spaces? You must desire your return to your Creative Space to Live in it. We will do our best to obtain you. We want unity for all the people in EVERYTHING EXISTING. Unity is common Creation for Us. We want all the people EXISTING and FORTHCOMING to be a single unity, as a single unity can be only in multitude. For example, imagine a large man the same size as the Galaxy, going forward. This man is the image of the whole mankind, but not only of the Earth, this image embodies the people of all the Galaxies. When all the people are in harmony with EVERYTHING, the integral man is collected and in the process of extension he can approach incredibly expansive CoCreations. But when people produce only disharmony, the integral man cannot move, as the LINK of this man with all the people is concentrated in his legs. Then how can he move if his legs move in different directions? Understand that the CREATOR created the human equal to Him, He wanted common development, as there are no limitations as well as borders. But for some reason people decided to stop their development, being satisfied with all their possessions. But such limitation causes decomposition of the human himself. It leads to your degradation, people. Do you understand it? You will destroy yourselves unless you decide to expand. How many times you must be drowned again to wake up. There can be the flood again, which will sweep all the people from the Earth. And what? All Our work is pointless? And again We have to greet you, teach, watch your expansion, and correct your future. We do not want to do this work again, and We do not want to see the flood again; but I will say out again: this flood can happen again and the terms are already known. Unless Sergey and the other, they know who I am talking about, remember and collect themselves, I will release all the rivers, oceans and seas, and then you will see what will happen ... I still hold the water with my body, but I can release it at one moment. Who will be able to hold EVERYTHING inside? At present moment nobody can do it. So think it over, my dear and beloved friends.

It is not so difficult to hold all the elements inside, you have to understand the following: all the structures have a structure and this structure must be in you, people. What is the characteristic of this structure? These are the constituents of this or that element. What can fill, for example, the element of water? Only the energies which decided to be water. Tell Us, do not you have these energies? Of course, you have, as your cells illuminate the information of EVERYTHING at the frequency of 1.5 milliseconds. What is the information of EVERYTHING for you? It is a flash expanding at the frequency 1.5 milliseconds and revealing information for all of you. The next flash will illuminate the other information of EVERYTHING for you. Try to catch EVERYTHING EXISTING, and feel EVERYTHING within your body and foresee different events. Can you do it? Of course, you cannot, as even at close distance you cannot see the primitive character of the illusion you try to live in. But it is not difficult to feel and know EVERYTHING, you must expand with ease and use the knowledge you have received; then you will reach the moment which We call the moment of UNIVERSAL KNOWLEDGE! What moment is it? It is very simple, with the moment of UNIVERSAL KNOWLEDGE your bodies will open and you will feel the energies of all the Galaxies and Universe inside your bodies. You will feel all the knowledge and skills which have no end. But you will face this moment only when you obtain YOURSELVES. The moment of obtaining YOURSELVES will enable to collect your SPIRIT, and you will feel eternal volume and multidimensionality. These are the things, We are expecting from you, people! But you are satisfied with a little, as if you did something, but this something is so insufficient and short-lived ... We tell you about the flood but you just say that you can do nothing. You are people, you can do everything ...

Now if the flood happens, I will say the following: there are only two people on the Earth who will be able to hold all the water of the flood within their bodies. Well, if I am unable to hold all the water, they will have to take this responsibility. But they will be able to hold all the water only when they have such a volume inside their bodies, which will give them the opportunity to feel the state of all the water around the Earth. It means that they have to expand all the time, more than that, they have to do it very quickly. Well, Sergey, do you feel as if you lost so many Spaces? It is true, compared to EVERYTHING your motion is very slow, but you are the one of these two people. Tell Me, how are you going to hold the water of the planet Earth? At the moment you cannot do it but I know that you have to expand to the volume of all the Universes and everything will be open for you. It is a very simple case, it will take you only several minutes, I have already told you about it. You have to relax and let the light of EVERYTHING EXISTING through your body, but it is just a conversation between us, you must understand it. Before you decide to join EVERYTHING EXISTING, you must realize that there will be no return for you. Your life will be changed forever, but you had to do it long ago.

If it does not happen, the flood is inevitable. Only those people will be able to avoid the flood who can move to their own Planets, and work out our common project on habitation of the Earth. But We do not want to see Our Planet flooded, that is why try to do your best. You know who I am addressing.

Eternal expansion.

Expansion, ... or we can call it in other words: eternal, unlimited Expansion, what does it include? How can we understand properly the forgotten sense of Expansion? Eh, if only you understood the sense of Expansion ..., you would be able to catch the rhythm of the eternal Expansion. Having forgotten this Rhythm, you started to destroy yourselves, as the stop brought a mass of misunderstanding between decomposed links of the integral unity. You, Sergey, tried to collect all the pieces into a single unity but you separated yourself. Remember how you separated from EVERYTHING EXISTING. You desired to stop the eternal motion. Why have you done it? Tell me why?

– I was accused of many things: misunderstandings and distortions, everybody was angry with me so that it caused in people`s souls contempt to the first child of Adam and Eve, Zar. At every next appearance on the Earth I felt agony and understood: I was thrown away, erased from the Earth. You see, when all the people despise a man, in this case it is me, the Space for appearance on the Earth is closed. Having analyzed the situation I realized: to appear on the Earth again I have to forget myself so that people could not recognize me. I also understood that at my future appearance I will be in the dormant state and I will be absented from the SACRED LINK. But to make this project work I have to be always on the Earth. Do you remember about the remains of unnecessary? These are you, people, you are the remains of unnecessary. But every small particle can be returned to COMMON and CREATIVE Space, and I understood it. That is why I have always been on the Planet Earth, and I will be here till you return home. Kryon mentioned this return, but he just mentioned it, you have to do everything yourselves. How? Looking at Us, not just looking but taking yourselves. This is the project of collecting the remains of unnecessary. I have collected all the remains before falling asleep and now I will wake up to show you yourselves – true YOURSELVES. I fell asleep in order to wake up, I planned it, but now Zar will be illuminated forever not only on his Planet, but in the Common CREATIVE SPACE, and all his manifestations on the Earth will be assembled into one unity. You can ask me, why people hated me so much. It is very simple: the seven provided all the people with the distorted information. I was accused of killing my brothers and sisters. People did not feel lies in this statement, believed in it and their hatred passed from one generation to the other. Devil, who was described in different sacred books, did not exist at all because he is just a distorted invention to remove me from the Earth. The people of that moment could feel and recognized each other on their former lives, the priests deprived them of this ability. They took their lives as one endless life, but when they were suggested the distorted deeds of Zar, people started to destroy all the manifestations of me. If you understand that your thought is material, imagine what was going on. My body was beginning to disappear; I was driven away from the Earth by the people I Loved very much. Now we have approached that part of the book, in which the human race must accept me again. I address every man on the Earth:

My dear friends! I am your brother in the first origin of the Earth. I Love each of you, I Love you from the bottom of my heart and soul. Life around you is filled with the LINK all the moments and stages since the first personified thought of the CREATOR. Ask yourselves, what the most valuable for you NOW is? An listen to yourselves ... What do you feel? Of course you feel warmth inside your bodies. What does this warmth tell you about ...?

Tell me, my beloved man, the following:

“All people want to understand themselves as meaningful personalities. It is strange to understand that nowadays everyone is hiding behind illusion of imposed limitations and despises everything SACRED and ETERNAL. But this SACRED and ETERNAL has always contained the LINK of a spiritual man with a physical one.” There is such an expression: The God exists OUTSIDE and FROM OUTSIDE.

Then God said: “Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters and let it divide the waters from the waters. And it was so.” Let us decipher this message from the Holy Bible. Firmament is here the embodiment of material. Now let us expand this sentence from the Holy Bible:

Then God said: “Let there be a firmament from firmament and divide the waters from the waters.”

What is the meaning of the expression “from firmament”?

This is diverse manifestation of material, but non-manifested material consists of incredible number of its combinations. Do you understand it?

What about “firmament”?

This is manifestation of the reasonable thought of the CREATOR or God in the Creative Space. Manifestation means physical realization of thought.

“What are you trying to tell us?” – you can ask.

We do not want to tell you, we want to lead you to understanding and remembering of things you have known before, in Russian БЕДАТЬ.

БЕДАТЬ, let us decipher this word.

БЕ – something situated outside, ДАТЬ means manifestation of reasonable thought in the physical world.

“What does it mean?” – you will ask.

It means that each of you is manifested OUTSIDE and at the same time in the physical world. DO you understand it? You exist OUTSIDE and INSIDE at the same time. You are the manifestation of the spiritual and physical components on the Earth. If you do not understand, We will provide you with the example.

Tibet! It is magnificent in the process of originating of eternal life. Mountains and wind with great curiosity watched the boy who was playing with the stones taken from the ground. The Tibetan lama carefully approached the boy, and having sited beside him, suggested finding the chain connecting these stones in the boy`s hand and the boy himself. But Talos (it was the boy`s name) answered laughing: “Dear Samotay, you must have thought that I do not understand anything and decided to play trick on me?”

– On the contrary, Talos, I decided that you can remember your OUTSIDE existence.

– OUTSIDE? – pronounced Talos surprised.

– Yes, OUTSIDE.

The boy looked aside looking into the emptiness. Samotay looked carefully into Talos`s eyes. One moment, another, and Talos cried out:

– Samotay, I am EVERYTHING, and EVERYTHING is I. But how can it be?

Without waiting for the answer, he continued:

– OUTSIDE I found the stones, which I am playing with, they are really the part of me, and it is a very strange fact. But it is not all. For some reason the energy of these stones is not only me but also all the people of the Earth.

Samotay was scrutinizing the boy`s eyes, and said smiling and drying his tears: “At last you reached the OUTSIDE, so many times I tried to take you to the volume understanding of YOURSELF, but you were stubborn and did not want to believe. This time you managed to do it”.

Talos went on: “It is strange to understand that life is multi-leveled and consists of a number of Spaces, it is permanently expanding in numerous combinations and variants; but a human can see only those things he can touch, feel and see. But how many things he missed out...”

The boy put the stones carefully onto the ground, stood up and stretched himself as if after a long sleep. Then he started carefully move his hands as if looking for something. Then he started stepping over invisible obstacles, surprise in his face.

At every step of Talos Samotay said: “Yes, it is true, OUTSIDE you can find everything you need in this or that moment of timelessness. This knowledge turns us into the Gods, Creative and CoCreative. But you have to understand the following: creating something you have to regard integral but permanently changing BEING to keep harmonic realization of the God`s Creation in the Creative Space. Besides, you have to regard expediency of this Creation.”

At this moment Talos and Samotay were opening the Space which enabled their existence OUTSIDE and INSIDE at the same time. Two people, stepping over invisible obstacles, and moving air with their hands, were connecting the states OUTSIDE and INSIDE.

It was the dialogue of two Loving friends. We hope our explanation will help you to understand what OUTSIDE and INSIDE are.

In fact, I, in this Incarnation my name is Zeranta, am teacher Samotay, while Talos has to remember himself and transfer his feelings at the moment of opening the Space in him, which makes him be OUTSIDE. It is very important, as everything said by the human survived the moment of the truth is spread all over the Earth. Well, Sergey, do not you remember how you were the naughty boy in the temple Tish in Tibet. But you were not satisfied. That is why you often escaped from the temple to stay alone. It helped you to remember your OUTER manifestations. I just helped you a little.

– You know, Zeranta, playing with the stones, I was trying to find something in them, thinking about the reasons of their appearance on the Earth. But I got the answer only when You touched me.

– No, Sergey, you managed to remember and see the manifestation of yourself both in heaven and on the Earth, or in other words both INSIDE and OUTSIDE. Now describe everything, saying it aloud.

– At that moment I felt something I knew and it knew me. At that moment I wanted to cry loudly: “Forgive me, my dear and permanently changing parents. Forgive my ignorance towards EVERYTHING EXISTING, permanently changing and expanding. I did not want to ignore you. Why did I lose you? What happened, what made me to forget YOU.” Then I heard the answer: “We are always with you, whenever you like or dislike it. We are you, and we will always be in you. But We want you to live not only in the Earth but also on the Earth. That is not all, feel the other Our personalities through Us, such combinations are endless.”

Zeranta: “Describe what you saw.”

– I felt diverse manifestation of ALL energies in my body. Now I understand the CREATOR, Creating the Earth for the first time. He invited ALL the energies to HIS BODY. As soon as the thought of the CREATOR visited cosmic energies, he felt each of them INSIDE his body. As soon as he felt it, these energies opened in him. After that he had to counterbalance everything and draw the border creating harmony between all situated in HIM. But the energies did not want to harmonize and suggested their egoistic desires. The CREATOR proposed his Project. But he understood that energies would never be counterbalanced, for the simple reason that they are all different. But having agreed the energies gave their parts to the CREATOR and a human. The CREATOR was the first to try himself in counterbalance of ALL, everything he understood gave him understanding of the following: only knowing, understanding and feeling the God in YOURSELF, a human can be in EVERYTHING EXISTING. As soon as a human loses himself, there will be a break, and the energies filling each of us, will leave us, and being distanced they will try to manipulate the human who has forgotten himself. But as soon as you collect true yourself then all the types and permanently expanding combinations of energies hoping to cooperate with the human.

You, people, consist of ALL the opposed combinations of energies. Or rather you are in opposition now, and the cosmic essences watch you indignantly. Now I understand: a human can feel himself what motion creating harmony to do, you can expand your Space up to infinity, Creative and constructive. Regarding yourselves and feeling, you can collect YOURSELVES. Only in such a way you can collect the God in you and become equal to the CREATOR. And He is waiting for your reasonable appearance. You have to understand: as soon as you stop feeling yourselves, you give out the particles of yourselves, and they are used for certain purposes. Only you must make decisions and realize them. You have to accept this simple understanding of yourselves.

We want to ask you a question NOW. People are used to limitations and giving their lives to other people, talking about black and white stripes in their lives. But is it true?

NOW I feel many people saying: “Of course, there is a white stripe, when many good things happen to us”. And then you will add: “But there is also a black stripe, destroying everything”. Your understanding is very narrow and again We have to illuminate the truths you had to realize, understand and use long ago. Such narrow understanding of yourselves makes your lives chaotic and desperate. Your misunderstanding creates these black and white stripes, this is also substitution. We want you to feel the following NOW:

Close your eyes and you will see Me in a white sundress playing with the summer wind. I am pointing at you, you are dressed in a snow-white shirt. Look more attentively, you are taking your shirt off and find yourselves naked. Here you are standing and looking at yourselves ..., but try to feel yourself a human, feeling and knowing the ETERNITY of BEING. Now look: a human body is getting thinner, and through it you can see a number of Stars and Galaxies. Your bodies seem to be clad in burning and shining clothes. Look more attentively, a human body is beginning to grow and containing eternity. It happens so because a human consists of eternal things. And now, our dear friends, feel that you are these Spacious people. Can you feel confidence? Do you feel, you can choose yourselves what stripe to take, the black or the white one or none? Only you can decide what can happen in your lives, and nobody can do it instead of you. If you have problems in your lives, you are the author of this situation. Regarding it, every human must understand the following: why are you looking for something or somebody helping you to escape these events? Why are you giving your lives to someone else? Why are you creating this mess and everybody is involved in it? You just have to accept this situation and solve it.

Why are we discussing this topic again? Because you do not understand the simplest truths. Reading books, and getting information from the other sources, many of you, understanding, do not change anything. Tell Us, how can you remember and collect multidimensional YOURSELVES?

You cannot do it.

You cannot accept the simplest things. Then what can We talk about? For you to understand, We do not just open the energy of information for everyone, but We survive It.

Now tell Us what the manifestation of life is? What is the meaning of the world “life”?

Let us decipher this live word. In Russian it is ЖИЗНЬ.

The first syllable ЖИ or ЧИ is the manifestation of Love being in motion.

Then goes 3 – your energetic reflection in the Creative Space.

The last syllable НЕГ reveals your inborn original manifestation. Yes, you were first personified, We have already mentioned it.

So the result is the following: ЧИ 3 НЕГ – illuminated by Love, reflected and personified.

This is the basis of understanding of life.

So what is the manifestation of life for you? You try to live and think that this is multidimensional life. But it is not true. What is happening to you? So We reveal your subspaces you live in. You see, you all are not in the Spaces but just in subspaces. We do our best to bring you to your Spaces embracing EVERYTHING EXISTING.

Sergey, tell everyone how you found these subspaces in one of your incarnations and was terrified. Let Me help you. In one of your incarnations you were a monk, your name was Abraham. You were travelling around the Earth and propagated many forgotten truths. In one settlement you were asked to tell people about life and its manifestations. You did not prepare your sermons, but listening to your soul you caught the energy of information and deciphered it for people. This time it is the same. You started your sermon with deciphering of the word life to find the basis. But whatever you did, nobody could see its special meaning. You used to say about eternal and about the LINK connecting all people. But people in the crowd cried you that your sermon is old as a sick dog.

– You have told us nothing new, preacher, – people wanting reasonable life, used to cry out from the crowd.

You strain yourself to hear the answer of the God, and suddenly you pronounced:

– There are no live people, that is why nobody lives, so you cannot accept anything new. Many people listening to the sermon, were surprised and started shouting in a rude style:

– How can it be, are you insane?

You insisted on your words, saying:

– You do not live, you are like dead undesirable foetus. Life is different, it is impossible to explain, but you can feel and love eternally and lightly. It is Love and joy; it is happiness, desirable and reasonable. But you are foolish like children, you are curious to hear something new, but you restrict information within the bounds of your perception.

More and more people are beginning to blame you, excusing themselves. But you, feeling your own and common Spirit, pronounced:

– Real life can be only in God. Can you say that you are Gods? I am sure you cannot, that is why you are under your life but not in it.

After these words, you felt sharp pain in your head, someone threw a stone from the crowd, and then a number of stones hit you, and you said protecting your head with your hands: “Life is Love, and Love is live LIFE”. Before leaving this life, you remembered yourself and whispered:

– People, you drove yourselves under life and put on fetters. But there will be the moment for you to break your fetters in order to return to life. To break these fetters you have to listen and perceive information. And you ...?

At that moment you left the Earth for your Space, knowing about your return. But tell, Sergey, why did not you escape this massacre, you could escape and continue your mission?

– Yes, I could, but I understood that if at that moment I was unable to protect the Space of life, all the people would fall into the abyss; leaving my life, I was opening the Space of life for everyone.

Ah, life is so wonderful, creative and unpredictable in Cocreation that you want to cry: people, why do not you want to enter the Space of life doing silly things and pitying yourselves?

How can you enter your life and find yourself?

We know how to do it, you have to start your extensive development. For example, try sewing, knitting, building, painting etc., but all these actions must originate in your soul. Do you understand it? It does not mean that when you forced yourself to knit a sweater for example, you can say: that is all, I have expanded. No, it is incorrect vision, expansion is much greater. In the process of Cocreation of a sweater, for example, you have to tune into the eternity of EVERYTHING EXISTING, feeling and sensing unlimited volume inside your body, then you knit into your thing the image of eternal and permanently changing God. Only then your things will become unlimited and refined, and you will be changed... These will be exclusive things; wearing them you will feel young, expanded God. This is a manifestation of Creation in Cocreation, you will be surprised by your new feelings, acquired by you in your Creation. Your Cocreations will have branches in many spheres of life, like a challenge to everything dead. In such a way a person must tune into everything created and Cocreated, then you will see and feel unlimited Space within your bodies. Nobody and nothing will be able to limit you, because you are everywhere in Creative and Cocreative. We have always been talking about God as Creator Creating and Cocreating. But We would like to ask everyone: “Why have you forgotten your Creative origin? Why have you limited yourself with everything existing? Why have you forgotten EVERYTHING personifying the God in you? Why do you deal with dead things?” Look into yourself, human, look and feel the Spaces you are connected with. It is our call, look into yourself now, what can you see?

Sergey: “I can see a number of people, some of them are laughing, a young couple are hugging, they look surprised. I can see a young respectable man in a fashionable car, there is indignancy on his face. Someone is blaming his people etc.”

And now I will explain what is hidden from your eyes. People seem to live and have certain occupations, but I can see and feel the remains of the events, deeds and lives which are not connected in a single unity. People behave like ants in an ant-hill, but ants control all their actions, while people without understanding destroy the ant-hill.

People, you turn Mother Earth out, deserting and killing HER. You are interested only in your egoistic person, but this world cannot exist without you, understand it. Tell us, Sergey, do you feel your world integral and illuminated? The particle of you lives in EVERYTHING EXISTING, but it is only the tiny particle, then where are the other particles of YOU? You accept people, explaining things you do not understand yet. But it is just the part of the problem, the problem is that you can fall asleep. I will repeat it, and you know that I repeat something only when it is very important. Tune into your Planet every morning, it must rotate in your stomach. Always spin your Planet, at every single moment of your life. Your Avatar, your Divine body, is waiting for you at every moment of your endless life. Why do you forget to enter it and feel everything your Avatar can feel? Then you will understand that everything expands in our Creative Space, won't you? Why do not you watch all the expansions possible? Sergey, catch up with yourself, you are EVERYWHERE. How can you catch up? I will help you: you can do it only with the energy of information. You have to be always within the information, sort it, single out priorities and catch up with it. This work is serious and great, but you know that it is not difficult at all and you can do it. Now many problems are solved within your body, but you have processed only a moment. Only God knows how many moments you have to process, but your work cannot do itself. Wake up, Sergey, the basis is already there, but they are too small for you, because you have a huge potential, you have to open. If you open it, I will not worry for you. But now I am not sure that you will not fall asleep again and everything will start from the very beginning.

Reasonable Moment.

People have to process a number of moments and stages. To process means to solve and harmonize, and We have already mentioned it, but NOW it is not just a conversation but a reasonable action. Let us study the life stages. Actually, stages do not exist as well as karma, but people managed to create chaos in their lives, that is why We have to divide these stages into constituents. So let us talk about the meaning of the notion stage? It contains only the connection between you and Us. As for the notion of moment, it is the manifestation of sense in the Spaces. The moments appear only when a human becomes reasonable and the God has noticed it, then the moment will reveal itself and your life will expand. Why are we discussing all this? To solve this difficult situation you need a moment. Do you understand it? If you do not, We will describe the moment for you.

Look, a boy lives in a small village, his name sounds in unison with oceans, rivers, lakes and seas. His name was Aktar. His grandfather called him in such a way feeling his incredible and unexplainable power. Aktar was quick to accept the skills of his relatives, but at one moment he started to understand that the eternity was illuminated in his feelings and sensations, this ability allowed him to accept the world in other colours. He started to talk to the element of water, he could talk to the seas, rivers, lakes and oceans which revealed their power to him and he felt it. His grandfather heard such conversation. His grandson was explaining something to the river, his speech was very emotional and his father thought that Aktar was rude with the element of river. He was talking loudly to the river, expressing his indignity, but his right hand was pressed on his chest. Seeing strange emotionality of his son, the grandfather touched his shoulder carefully and said:

– Aktar, why are you talking to the river so rudely?

There was no answer, Aktar said nothing, he was just watching the river and trying to send it his feelings and emotions without words. He knew that if he tells his grandfather that the river is going to dry and disappear from the Earth, his grandfather will not believe and create disharmony again. Aktar was arguing with the river, saying that he would never allow it to disappear. But the river answered him:

– Everything is clear for me, this is the moment for me to leave the Earth forever.

– But tell me why? – Aktar felt uneasy.

– Because I am from the other Planet and I am invited back.

– What does it mean, – Aktar cried, – there can be nothing odd on the Earth.

– I am not odd, my mission was to limit people`s patience, but people are patient, they can become unnecessary. You will understand me, believe me, you will also have a moment of understanding, and your grandfather will have such a moment. Besides you have to feel and understand: there are many moments and only God knows which of them is yours. That is why trust the God, feel HIM in your heart, and then you will feel every moment. Then you will understand me and let me go, as here on the Earth I miss my home.

Aktar was standing embarrassed, trying to understand what was going on, while his grandfather was standing not far from him saying:

– Boy, aren't you ashamed of shouting at the God?

The boy looked into his grandfather's eyes and pronounced smiling:

– There will be the moment for you to blame the God, but this is a special conversation and it will stay with you forever.

The grandfather was watching his grandson in surprise:

– What moment are you talking about?

And the grandfather was joking embracing his grandson:

– There will be your moment and you will understand everything.

They were standing embracing each other and looking at the river, each of them was thinking about his feelings, appearing at that moment, they were trying to analyze and understand permanently expanding manifestation of the God.

Moment, do you understand it ..., everything happening, for example on the Earth, happens at its particular moment. Each of you also have your own moment, illuminated by you. But the moment is assembled only by the manifestation of reason, unless people learn to steal the God, they will never reach this moment, you must understand it. ALL the manifestations of EVERYTHING are reflected with the help of the reasonable moment. Humans do not understand the principle of motion of rivers, seas and clouds; yes, everything needs its moment. Oh, if only the mankind could realize the manifestation of the moment ... Our calling is to exist like Gods in EVERYTHING EXISTING, and this manifestation of the moment is clear for us, in difference from you. NOW in this reasonable moment We reflect our Creation. Some people can think that Our Creation is heartless and cruel, but it happens because these people do not expand at all. Some people will understand and realize their reasonable moment in accordance with Our Project. We are also Gods, as the CREATOR, so We want to send you a special message. In our message We unite a number of moments into one, which creates a powerful energy impulse, which will influence everyone, it will reveal your destiny. What will it be like? Adult birds always throw their children from the nests, when they cannot decide on flying for the first time. Then a nestling must feel and think very quickly, as unless the nestling stretches its wings there will be no air resistance and it will not be able to flush. It will happen to the mankind, NOW the entire mankind will be thrown from the comfortable illusive nest ... I can predict that not many people will stretch their wings and continue living. Insidious diseases will attack the human race, and your medical science will be helpless. Medications will be useless, as We remove the algorithm concealing the disease, and your life will be in your hands. With publishing this book Our CoCreation will be realized:

Our dear and beloved CREATOR, We, your children desire changes. These changes will happen on the Earth when this book is published. We know that YOU will understand Us, as there is the moment for Us to close the algorithms of many medications and herbs, since this moment all the medications will be just dummies, We erase our algorithm, concealing the diseases, because the proper MOMENT has come. To escape the disease people will need just the reasonable moment, in which they will correct their Space, harmonizing it. We are opening ALL the Spaces and compressing EVERYTHING into a single point; it means that people will have to meet THEMSELVES NOW. We warned the mankind about this MOMENT and discussed the actions which will help people to prepare themselves for this moment; so we get rid of the responsibility to understand all the people who do not want to hear Us. We realize Our CoCreation within the MOMENT NOW. Let it be, We are Gods, We have power to do everything, and this power is in Us!!!

Our dear friends, EVERYTHING is realized NOW and after publishing this book all the information of all books comes into force. People, wanting to know themselves, will get instructions and examples, in which We will show them possible ways of escaping this situation. We will try to describe our feelings while harmonizing and correcting our Spaces, as all the disharmony of all your lives will be reflected in you NOW. Before you fell ill, you had had time to get rid of the disease, for example with the help of medications, but NOW different diseases would attack you, but medications would not influence the disease, as they are just informationless fillings. You will not have time to think, as We have closed time and reflected the reason of the MOMENT.

Now let us discuss how you can correct your Space and thus avoid death. We have already told you only you are the author of every difficult situation or disease in your life. All your former lives you lived or tried to live, will be opened for you NOW; it means that all the energy of all your lives will be illuminated in you. People, who do not know he God, will not be able to continue living, as they will not be able to cope with their diseases and situations. But people, knowing and accepting the God in them, will be able to correct all the situations and undo all the knots of disharmony, causing these diseases. Why have We pulled and reflected all your disharmony NOW? Because everything returns to its origin and it is just the beginning. You have to learn to think very quickly and feel all the moments on the Earth, react in time, and redistribute the energy with your bodies to foresee the events. Only in such a way a human can live on the Earth, but it is just the beginning, it is your correction in EVERYTHING EXISTING. When you correct and harmonize yourselves, you will have to learn LIVING, you heard it properly – to learn living again. It means that feelings and sensations, illuminated in you, must reveal understanding of your real nature in the light of the universal SPIRIT; when you realize it, then the eternity of one endless LIFE will be reflected in the Creative Space. You have heard much about quantum transition, or transition in general, which will change lives of people, people will become Gods. Have you? If you have never heard about it you are completely lost, if you have heard about it you must understand: quantum transition is the return of all the totality of energies to the volume state. Do you understand it is return? EVERYTHING on the Earth returns to its initial state. Now let us discuss the following: We have mentioned that We will provide you with the examples which will help you not only correct yourselves but also find yourselves. The author of this book decided to demonstrate with his own example that life is wonderful, and you do not have to do supernatural attempts to use the forgotten energy of information. He decided to feel and survive the transition, which has been described so many times. But again, there is no transition, there is just expansion, it means that he will feel and survive eternal expansion and tell you about his feelings. As soon as he survives the moments of expansion, you will feel it inside, and your life will also expand and so on... He decided to do it and I am sure he would fulfill his contract. Now the human race will realize the following: you will be able to live on the Earth only in a reasonable state, feeling your Planet. Feeling your Planet, you will be able to tune into your divine Avatar body, We have already written about it. But you must understand: if before you have just read about it, NOW it is time for you to have an exam. Those people who do not pass will have great problems, but we should mention that there are no problems in timelessness, but NOW you must understand: there is no time and you have to be ready to accept the God – it is stated in the Holy books, only reasonable people will survive, all the other will be reincarnated again. If you do not understand it for some reason, We will expand the information.

Look: here am I, in white clothes, I have a white veil on, covering My slim figure. I am smiling at you and smiling I am revealing you my vision. Look more attentively, Now each of you will see himself in timelessness. Each of you must look more attentively and see yourself.

Sergey: “I can see myself, I have long hair, moved by colourful energy; I have a feeling that I am waiting for the particular moment between the Spaces. Here is the moment..., then another moment... I am looking through numerous moments, this is my action, I am opening and entering inside. Now I am on the Planet but I cannot understand yet what Planet it is. Ah... it is the Earth, walking on it I get to know that there are my beloved friends, I can feel them. I have a feeling of a great deed inside my body, of course, as I am the God on the Earth. I can see many people, they are helpless, being born, and many of them immediately die. They are forbidden to be born. The Earth is different; it is so light here... I am beginning to feel my beloved friends, they are distributed all over the Earth and they can also feel me, it is nice to feel it. Besides, I understand: everything is redistributed on the Earth, the information about it was sent to the mankind, but just a few people accepted it, the other are born on the Earth in order to die again. The death cycle for these people will last 1000 years, and the average life for them will be 49 years. This is a short period for realizing yourself. But among the mortal people on the Earth there will be immortal people, having accepted the energy of expansion into their bodies. They will live for 650 years, and when they leave the Earth they will get to their Planets. Being in eternity, the God-people, being on their Planets, will create their own moment for appearing on the Earth; in their moment they will regard all their desires, and then they will appear on their Planets. I can see it, I can feel incredible lightness in my body, but Love burns my heart and my body; I know that the only one beloved is close to me, and I want to be always with her. Now I can not only feel HER in my body, but to be with HER, and it is a great happiness of Being. So much has been told about happiness, but only now I understand: happiness really exists and IT is eternal, without borders and limitations. Yes, it is very easy to be happy, you just have to know and understand yourself in EVERYTHING INTEGRAL, and then, feeling inside EVERYTHING EXISTING, you will be able to find happiness. You can even know nothing, but feel permanently expanding processes, in which incredible volume is illuminated at the frequency 1.5 milliseconds. Such expansion reveals the God in a human-being, and I can feel IT inside: I am the God, existing inside and outside, I am a reasonable person, feeling all the existing moments. Everything breathes in me, I can not only feel it, I can sense this multidimensional breath. This breath creates special rhythm in my body, this rhythm is tuned into the rhythms of EVERYTHING EXISTING. Yes, there is one endless RHYTHM, I can feel many tunes in this RHYTHM, and each tune contains its own unique RHYTHM, but the most exciting thing is that there are many unique RHYTHMS, they create one multidimensional RHYTHM. I want to Create and Cocreate, I have a number of desires, waiting for their appearance on the Earth and not only on It. I am a God-human NOW, I have found myself, I am the author of the series of books “The Rose of the World”, I am beginning to talk to myself. This is our dialogue:

– I am Sergey, We are one person, but with one detail: I am assembled, and you are not yet, but in timelessness it is not important. I want to warn you: Love in your heart is waiting for its realization, and unless you let it out, you will have problems. I think you know about it. You see..., the greatest Love is illuminated in our hearts. I am sure you know it, but you and I wanted it. None of the inhabitants of the Creative Space has ever experienced the same. You sometimes feel its manifestations, but I know that soon there will be a moment for Love to be reflected in you, then hold It and It will lead you to Me. Besides, you must understand: if you are afraid of its manifestations, you will not live in this world. This is the important thing I wanted to tell you about. And one more thing, live at your full, you lack it, and understand: expansion is not hard work, it is pleasure.

And you, readers, must see yourselves and write down your dialogue, as Sergey told you to do; believe us it is not a joke, it is timeless help.

Life on the Earth is changing very quickly, the remains of prejudices have been removed, and people have seen the eternity of being. But there is one more thing which changes and substitutes happiness for you, NOW We will tell you about it, and you must remove it from your lives.

People have erroneous image of life, you experience joy and Love just once, and then you survive all these evens again. NOW We will write what We mean.

Every person experiences short happy moments during his or her life once or several times. You memorize them, and then you try to live these feelings again. This erroneous idea puzzles a person so much that he doesn't want to live anymore. "Something is wrong", – you think, – "why cannot I feel the same feelings which showed me what happiness is?" Am I right? Do you try to live in such a way? We will explain you why you cannot experience your happiness again. It is impossible, do you understand it? It is impossible to live happy moments again ... For some reason you have an idea of reliving happy moments. You do your best to live one or two happy moments again, thinking like this: "It happened to me before and I was happy at that moment. Then why can't I experience the same again? Why?" But our dear friends, We have already told you, the nature of happiness is multidimensional and it cannot be understood one-dimensionally. There are happy moments in your lives, but having experienced them you want to return them and live them one more time. What for? Why do you want to return irretrievable? Why do not you want to expand more

..., only expansion can bring you happiness but you make yourselves narrower? Do not you still understand what We mean? All people try to live their moments of happiness again, but they have already done it, and if you try to return it, it will turn into disappointment.

A human, remembering the moment of happiness, tries to get to it once again. People neither understand nor feel multidimensionality of such moments, that is why people stand still and destroy everything surrounding them. You can ask Us: show us something live, movable and not experienced yet. Well, We will reveal the reality of the moment for you, you must realize and understand the proper events and feel permanent motion.

Now be attentive, I am revealing the events, let us start with Ukraine. One man Roman lives in the city of Lugansk. He had great plans for his life as many people have; he was studying at the philological faculty of the Donetsk national university. At the University there was a canteen, Roman often had lunch there and he liked the girl who worked in this canteen. It was Olga, her beauty and charm enchanted Roman, he has been flying for the last six months. His brother, seeing Roman`s burning eyes, asked him: “Why don`t you come to her and tell her about your feelings?” Roman answered: “I am waiting for the proper moment.” When Roman graduated from the university, he came to the canteen and decided to talk to Olga, but she did not work there anymore and her former colleagues knew nothing about her. Roman was about to fall down, his felt dizzy; he thought that his life was over. A week passed, then one more week, a month, a year; there was emptiness and despair in his heart. Seeing Roman`s state, his friends recommended him to change something and to go abroad to have rest, to Sri-Lanka for example. It was a special place; on the Internet they read an article about strange Love of two people which influenced the history of this country. Friends felt that if they send Roman to this place, something will happen, but they could not feel if it was good or bad. It took them a week to persuade Roman to go travelling and save himself. And finally, when everything was decided, his friends collected money and bought a tour for him. Sitting on board the plane before departure, Roman whispered: "I do not care what happens, I have no life without her." In the airport of Sri-Lanka Roman was met by the guide Pavel, joking, he helped Roman to put his baggage into the car and they went to the hotel. The road took them about 35 minutes and all this time Pavel was telling Roman about the places of interest of this country, suggesting him visiting different interesting places of this unforgettable island instead of boring sunbathing. But Roman did not answer, he was silent. Leaving the hotel, Pavel left his card, hoping that Roman would phone him. Roman`s friends bought a tour for 10 days, and after 5 days Roman did not know what to do, he took the card and phoned Pavel. Next day Roman was sitting in a car and Pavel was trying to make him talk:

– You know, Roman, the residents say that if you want something, it will come true.

– Perhaps, but I don`t believe in it.

– Why?

– I have certain reasons.

– Do not you want to share? – asked Pavel.

– There is nothing to talk about. I am in love with one girl, and for a year I have been suffering.

– A year – exclaimed Pavel surprised. – Have you ever tried to see her and tell her about your feelings?

– You see, I do not know where she is, perhaps she is married.

– Wait, I will tell you one very old story. This story happened on this island and people pass it on from generation to generation. In one settlement a beautiful girl lived. Her name was Lukava. She had a dream, she wanted to fall in love with a young and beautiful boy and love him all her life. But years passed but she did not feel Love. And being in despair, she decided to go travelling around the world to look for her beloved.

– Well, did she find him? – Roman asked sarcastically.

– Wait, don't hurry, listen what happened next. She was travelling for a year, almost as you did – Pavel looked at Roman. – And finally she came to Sri-Lanka. She was tired and disappointed and asked to give her shelter in one of the settlements. A family consisting of 3 people invited her in but they had one condition.

– What condition was it? – asked Roman anxiously.

– You see..., people had different traditions.

– What traditions are you talking about?

– Listen, one tradition was like this: if a young woman comes to a young family and asks for shelter the man of the young family has to talk to her and decide if she can stay with them.

– What is it for? – Roman was impatient to hear the answer.

– I do not know for sure, but there was some special sense. So, talking to Lukava, Rustam (it was the man`s name) learnt that she had been travelling for a year in search of Love. He decided that she could stay with them. He showed her room, where her bed was ready. Standing in the doorway, Rustam looked at Lukava one more time and said: “I have been looking for Love too.” Lukava was looking at him, her eyes burning, she felt some motion burning her breast. “But I was mistaken,” – whispered Rustam, his voice trembling. He left. Lukava was looking at the leaving man and hoped that he would turn back and confess ...

Next morning, a small sunray was creeping through the tiny window wanting to caress the girl`s face, Lukava opened her eyes and stretched herself, she was smiling, she felt warmth in her body, she felt the yesterday evening, it was burning in her breast. Lukava got up, stretched herself once again and left the room.

– What happened next? – Roman was impatient.

– And then unexplainable thing happened. There was nobody in the house, as if she had a dream about the family and conversation with Rustam.

– But she woke up in the house so it was not a dream. – said Roman.

– Yes, it was not a dream, but there was nobody in the house. People seemed to leave the house in haste being frightened. She could not understand what happened, but she felt that the man had to come back. Lukava decide to stay in this house as long as the moment demanded. The evening came, but there was still nobody in the house, the second day, the third, nothing happened. Standing at the window, Lukava was looking into the distance, her body burning, having put her hand onto her heart, she whispered: “Hello, Love, I have been looking for you so long.”

This is Love!!!

It is definitely Love!!!, – the girl said aloud, and her eyes were shining.

– Oh, if only I could look into such eyes. Have you ever seen such eyes? – asked Pavel, holding the wheel.

Thinking about something, he asked Pavel:

– Could she ask the inhabitants of the settlement, where the family from the house is?

– There were kilometers between houses. It is not like now: you go out into your yard and your neighbours can see you. To greet somebody you had to walk many kilometers. Besides, Lukava had some unexplainable feeling, she was sure that she did not have to go anywhere. A year passed, you see, it is one year again. What do you think about it? – saying these words, Pavel turned to Roman. – Rustam did not come back, but Lukava was sure that he would return. She was waiting for him. One day, Lukava heard somebody knocking at the door; she looked out of the window but did not see anyone, she was watching the yard, but could see nobody. She heard knocking again. Lukava opened the door and saw Rustam. He was standing not far from the house, there were tears in his eyes. They were standing in silence, looking at each other. Next morning, Lukava was walking near the house and you could see the whole Universe in her eyes. Rustam was standing in the doorway, there were tiredness, despair and sadness in his face. Lukava could see him quite well but she did not approach, she was waiting for him to do something. In a moment Rustam was standing in front of her, he was trembling; at last he murmured:

– Hello, Lukava.

The girl looked into his eyes, she was terrified:

– What did you do to yourself, Rustam?

– I was trying to forget you, but I couldn't. Do you understand it, I couldn't. I fell in love with you at first sight; this feeling was so strong that I was afraid of it. I did not have rest that evening after leaving you. I couldn't see my wife, because you were in front of my eyes. She felt something was wrong and asked me about the reason. I did not know what to say; I was walking around the room but I could not make a decision. But now I understand, she realized everything, as she said: "Let us take our son and go to live with my parents. Let us leave immediately, without waiting for the morning, don't worry for the girl, she will wake up and leave."

Lukava was standing, there were tears in her eyes. She said:

– Did you follow her?

– No, I didn't just follow her, it was my decision, as I was mad about you. That evening, when you knocked at my door, my thoughts were boiling, I could not make a reasonable decision.

– Why did not you listen to your heart? Why did not you confess?

– I do not know, I was scared.

They were standing and looking at each other, there was disappointment in the girl`s eyes, and excuse in Rustam`s. Lukava`s body told her that she loved Rustam, but her feelings said that they cannot be together. Looking into Lukava`s eyes, Rustam was trying to find just a hint of excuse, it would make him stay and be with her. He was clenching his fists and thinking: “Forgive me, my dear and beloved, forgive me.” Lukava saw his desire of excuse, but her feelings told her that in order to be together one day they have to part now. She was standing and looking at the Beloved, she had controversial feelings in her body: they were confusion and pain, but she could not betray her feelings.

– I cannot understand you, you betrayed me and Love.

Having heard these words Rustam felt giddy, he understood that they would not be together.

– Leave, – the girl pronounced in a weak voice. – Leave, – she said again, – I don`t want to see you.

Rustam was standing and trying to be more decisive, but there was chaos in his thoughts, his soul was suffering from pain, so that he could not breathe.

– Everything is over ..., – whispered Rustam, – forgive me, if you can.

Rustam left. Lukava was standing, being unable to see, and saying out: “My Love, do not leave me, stay with me, I cannot live without You.” At that moment she heard the distant voice: “I Love you, I Love you, my woman, the most beloved and desired in EVERYTHING EXISTING.” At that moment Lukava felt, even saw Rustam, he was different in her vision, but she knew it was he. The girl saw his Love, but she could not feel him, so she said out:

– My dear and beloved, We will be together by all means, my Love is so great. But our Love will be realized at a proper moment. I will be looking forward to it.

Having pronounced these words, Lukava went home, she was smiling.

– What is the end of this story? – asked Roman.

– This story is not finished.

– How is it possible?

– Have you heard Lukava`s words?

– Why, why could not he keep her?

– You cannot return the past events, Rustam wanted to change everything but...

– So, We have arrived. This is the place where Lukava and Rustam had their last conversation, – Pavel said, getting out of the car. – Why are you still sitting Roman, get out; this place is much talked about on this island.

Pavel turned and saw Roman, sitting on the ground near the car, his eyes looking into the distance.

– What happened?

But Roman did not answer, he was just watching and his cheeks were wet of tears. Pavel wanted to run to him, but felt that he did not have to do it. Roman was sitting on the ground and cursing himself:

– I Am an idiot. Why haven` t I confessed her Now. Why...?

Roman dried his tears, saying:

– Everything needs its moment, and you must not miss it. I will find you, my dear, in this life or in the next, it does not matter for me. Love in my heart is burning me, showing me the way to you, my beloved and desired. I feel, I will find you soon, my Lukava.

Pavel was astonished, watching the scene, but finally he understood everything and pronounced:

– This story is not over yet, it is the fact.
